OWNERSHIP

WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / GENERAL PARTNER

William O. DeWitt Jr. was born Aug. 31, 1941, and grew up in St. Louis as the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt. He led the organization of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. As the principal owner of the Cardinals, DeWitt serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees all financial, baseball and league matters for the team and is a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council.

DeWitt is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School and holds a 1963 B.A. degree in economics from Yale University and a 1965 M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School.

DeWitt has been involved in baseball since his childhood and has held past investment interests in the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He also has served as a board member for the Cincinnati Bengals and the Cincinnati Stingers hockey team. His father owned the St. Louis Browns from 1949-51, when Bill Jr. served as the team's batboy. His uniform, which was worn by midget Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch-hitting appearance on Aug. 19, 1951, is on loan to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

DeWitt is President of the investment firm Reynolds, DeWitt & Co. He also is Co-Chairman of Restaurant Management Inc. and a board member of Sena Weller Rohs Williams Inc., U.S. Playing Card Co. and Conair Group Inc.

He has had investment interests in CEA Corp. (parent of Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Co.), Charter Cable Systems Inc., Cincinnati Riverfront Coliseum, Coca-Cola Bottling Investment Group Inc. (co-chairman), Future Now Corporation (publicly traded on NASDAQ), Middle States Coca-Cola Bottling Group Inc. (vice-chairman), Midwest Employers Casualty Co., Mississippi Valley Investment Co. (bank holding company), Republic Broadcasting Corp., and Spectrum 7 Energy Corp. (vice-chairman).

His numerous civic activities include: Hamilton County Republican Finance Committee, Ohio Co-Chair Bush for President, President of the William O. and Margaret H. DeWitt Foundation, Semple Foundation Board Member, Yale University Development Board Member, Regional Chairman for the Yale Campaign, Cincinnati Art Museum Board Member, Taft Museum Board Member, Cabinet Member for Cincinnati Fine Arts Fund, United Way of Cincinnati, Multiple Sclerosis Society , Salvation Army Board Member and past President of the Fund for Independent Schools of Cincinnati (minority scholarship program),

In 1998, DeWitt was appointed to the National Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

DeWitt is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew and Margot. DeWitt's sister, Donna "DeDe" DeWitt Lambert, is also an investor in the team.

FREDERICK O. HANSER, CHAIRMAN

Frederick O. Hanser was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Hanser is President and Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and Chairman of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees the daily operations of the team on behalf of the ownership group as well as the activities of the holding companies and other subsidiaries.

Hanser, a St. Louis attorney, has been a partner in the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale L.L.P. since 1978, specializing in banking and corporate and estate taxation. He was a lawyer for the firm of Fordyce and Mayne from 1966-78. He has been involved in numerous venture capital and closely held businesses, including Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc., the holding company for Southwest Bank.

Hanser, a life-long St. Louis resident and Cardinals fan, was born April 13, 1942. He is the son of Mrs. Olive D. Mullen and the late S. Albert Hanser, M.D. He is the great-grandson of former Cardinals investor Adolph M. Diez, whose involvement with the Cardinals spanned 30 years, from 1917 to 1947.

Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966.

Some of his current and past business and civic activities include the Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Board of Directors and Executive Committee (holding company for Southwest Bank) and board membership on the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association, St. Louis Children's Hospital, the Greater St. Louis Area Boy Scouts, the Backstoppers, St. Louis Country Day School and the Easter Seal Society.

Hanser and his wife, Kathy, have two grown children, Tim and Kara.

ANDREW N. BAUR, SECRETARY-TREASURER

Andrew N. Baur was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group that purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Mr. Baur is the Secretary-Treasurer and a Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and is Secretary-Treasurer of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. Baur is a native St. Louisan and life-long Cardinals fan.

Baur is currently chairman and CEO of Southwest Bank and its holding company, Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Baur led a group that purchased Southwest Bank in October 1984.

His past career posts include: Chairman and CEO of the County Bank of St. Louis, and President and Chief Operating Officer of County Tower Corp., the holding company for County Bank (1978-84); President and Chairman, Commerce Bank of St. Louis (1974-78); Mercantile Trust Co., N.A., which he entered as a commercial banking officer and left as Vice President in charge of the Loan Division (1970-74); and employment by the First National Bank of Atlanta (1967-70), where he started as a management trainee and was elected an officer in 1969.

Baur received an A.B. degree in 1966 from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va., and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University in 1970.

Baur is a member of the Board of Directors for Rawlings Sporting Goods Co., St. Louis University, the MUNY (Municipal Theater Association) and the Unity Health Network. He is the former chairman of St. Luke's Hospital, the St. Louis Regional Commerce & Growth Association, the Arts & Education Council of Greater St. Louis and KETC. Baur also serves as a Commissioner of Tower Grove Park.

Baur is the son of the late Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland. He was born in St. Louis on April 25, 1944, and attended Country Day School. He has three grown children, Andrew, Todd and McKay.

MARK C. LAMPING
PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on Sept. 1, 1994. In addition to the club's 1996 Central Division championship and return to postseason play for the first time since 1987, his tenure has been highlighted by the design and completion of major renovations to Busch Stadium. In 1999, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan-Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable.

In February 1994, Lamping was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball Association after serving as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing for five years. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division while coordinating all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping, 42, joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked in the company's corporate planning group before serving as a district sales manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations.

His civic activities include St. Louis Sports Commission Board of Directors; Board of Directors, International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum; St. Louis University Business School; and SSM Health Care Central Region Board.

Lamping also is involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including Board of Directors, Roman Catholic Orphan Board; Board of Directors, Boone Valley Classic Foundation; Board of Directors of the St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; Chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998 and 1999; 1996 Chairman of the Old Newsboys Day for children's charities; and a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

Lamping was honored as 1998 Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources. He also received the 1998 James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area. In January 2000, Lamping was inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame.

A St. Louis native, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. He lives in Kirkwood, Mo., with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian,

WALT JOCKETTY
VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

Walt Jocketty was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on Oct. 14, 1994, and in September 1997 signed a three-year contract extension through the current season. He is entering his 26th season in professional baseball.

Jocketty, 49, spent a busy offseason bolstering the Cardinals' lineup for 2000. He enhanced the starting rotation by trading for Pat Hentgen and Darryl Kile before signing free agent and former Cardinal Andy Benes. In the bullpen, he added closer Dave Veres, and he filled the team's need for a proven leadoff hitter by trading for second baseman Fernando Vina.

Jocketty was instrumental in bringing Manager Tony La Russa to St. Louis as well as nearly a dozen new faces to the Cardinals' roster before the 1996 season. Those changes helped the club return to the postseason that year after an eight-season drought. In July 1997, he engineered a deal that brought slugger Mark McGwire to St. Louis and then put together a contract that keeps McGwire here through 2001. Jocketty also has worked out deals that keep young shortstop Edgar Renteria and longtime Cardinal Ray Lankford here through at least 2003.

Jocketty has helped build the Cardinals' future through the June amateur draft, helping to land young stars like Rick Ankiel, J.D. Drew, Chad Hutchinson, Adam Kennedy and Matt Morris. Last June, he continued to build the team's reserve of talented young pitching by signing first-round picks Chance Caple and Nick Stocks.

Before coming to the Cardinals, Jocketty was the Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel for the Colorado Rockies, whom he joined in 1993. Prior to that, he served 10 seasons as the Director of Baseball Administration for the Oakland A's. He served a total of 14 years with Oakland, starting in March 1980, when he was hired by Charles O. Finley as Director of Minor League Operations and Scouting. Jocketty was instrumental in overhauling the A's minor league system and helped turn the club into one of the 1980s' most dominant franchises by producing such standouts as McGwire, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss.

While with Oakland, Jocketty played a key role in establishing the Arizona Rookie League and the Dominican Summer League. He previously served on Major League Baseball's Operations Committee, which is responsible for negotiations between the Professional Baseball Association and Major League Baseball. He currently is a board member of the Epworth Children's Home in St. Louis.

Jocketty is a native of Minneapolis, Minn., where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey, and make their home in St. Louis County.

JERRY WALKER
VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

As vice president of player personnel, Walker assists general manager Walt Jocketty with personnel decisions involving the major league club and oversees the Cardinals' player development and scouting activities. He was promoted to his current position on Feb. 1, 1997, after serving as director of major league player personnel since he joined the organization in November 1994.

After concluding his playing career in 1964, Walker managed five years at the minor league level for the New York Yankees. He scouted for the Yankees from 1973 until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named the Yankees' major league pitching coach. He also served as the Houston Astros' major league pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was appointed the Tigers' general manager in September 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major and minor league operations. In April 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker's major league career spanned eight seasons with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62) and Cleveland (1963-64). He became the youngest pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game in 1959, when at age 20, he drew the assignment for the American League in the second game played that summer (on Aug. 3).

Walker, 61, a native of Ada, Okla., and his wife, Janis, have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

BOB GEBHARD
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Gebhard begins his first full season with the Cardinals after joining the organization in September 1999. In his new post, Gebhard will work closely with vice president and general manager Walt Jocketty on the club's day-to-day major league operations and player evaluations.

The former vice president and general manager of Colorado, Gebhard built the Rockies from the ground up. He spent eight years with the team — from the November 1991 expansion draft until he resigned in August 1999 — and helped the club reach the postseason in just its third season. Before joining the Rockies, Gebhard was a member of the Minnesota Twins front office, serving as director of major league personnel in 1987 and as vice president of player personnel from 1988-1991. He worked for the Montreal Expos from 1974-86, serving as director of minor league operations, as minor league field director and as a major league coach.

Gebhard's playing career spanned 11 seasons and included big-league duty with the Twins and Expos. A righthanded pitcher, he was originally drafted by Minnesota in the 15th round of the first-ever amateur draft in 1965.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters Angie and Jenny, and son Casey. They reside in Littleton, Colo.

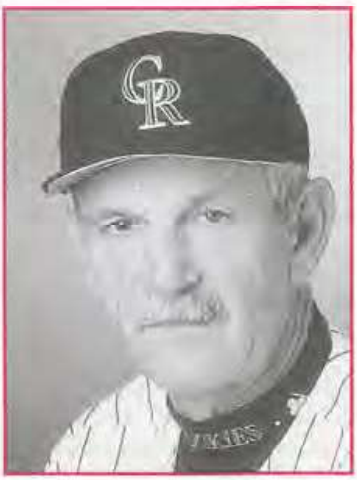
BING DEVINE
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Devine rejoined the Cardinals in October 1999 as a special assignment scout and will report directly to vice president and general manager Walt Jocketty. During the regular season, Devine will scout the Cardinals' National League opponents and the organization's minor league system. He'll also scout for the club in spring training.

As the Cardinals' general manager from 1958-64 and 1968-78, Devine will long be remembered for trades that helped build Redbirds teams that won World Series in 1964 and 1967 and the N.L. pennant in 1968. He acquired Curt Flood (his first trade as a GM), Dick Groat, Bill White, Julian Javier and, his most celebrated deal, Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs. Devine also was president of the St. Louis football Cardinals from 1981-86 and president of the New York Mets from 1965-67. He most recently worked as a scout for the Houston Astros and as a special assignment scout for the Philadelphia Phillies. His career includes stints with the Montreal Expos and San Francisco Giants, as well.

A collegiate basketball star while attending Washington University, Devine served in the United States Navy from 1943-46 after beginning his career in professional sports with the Cardinals in 1939.

JIM LEYLAND
MAJOR LEAGUE SCOUT



Leyland joins the Cardinals staff in 2000 as a major league scout. From his primary base in Pittsburgh, he'll scout National League teams that visit Three Rivers Stadium and travel to Cleveland's Jacobs Field to evaluate A.L. clubs. Leyland reports directly to Cardinals general manager Walt Jocketty.

Leyland retired as a major league manager following the 1999 season, his 14th as a big-league skipper, with a career 1,069-1,131 record. He managed in Pittsburgh (1986-96), Florida (1997-98) and Colorado, leading the Marlins to a World Series championship in 1997 and the Pirates to three straight Eastern Division titles, beginning in 1990. He was a minor league manager from 1971-81, leading his clubs to five first-place finishes, and a catcher in the Detroit farm system from 1964-70.

Leyland, 55, resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Katie, and their two children, Patrick (10/11/91) and Kellie (6/23/93).

BEHIND THE SCENES

DR. STAN LONDON
SENIOR MEDICAL ADVISER

Dr. Stan London was appointed the Cardinals' senior medical adviser in October 1997. He was the Cardinals' head physician for 29 seasons, succeeding his associate, Dr. I.C. Middleman, who passed away in September 1968.

Dr. London, 73, a native of Springfield, Ill., received his M.D. degree from Washington University in 1949. As a student, he excelled in baseball and is widely regarded as Washington University's greatest basketball player ever. While studying for his doctorate, Dr. London coached the university's baseball team and was assistant basketball coach.

Dr. London is a fellow for both the American Board of Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical, and a partner in Parkerest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the St. Louis Hawks during the club's 11 seasons (1956-57 to 1966-67) in the National Basketball Association. He has tended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of the area's top all-time amateur athletes, Dr. London is a member of the Springfield (Ill.) High School Hall of Fame, the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame and was the first inductee into the Missouri Handball Hall of Fame. He also is a member of the Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and four grandchildren.

DR. GEORGE A. PALETTA JR.
HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. George A. Paletta Jr. was named the Cardinals' head physician in February 1998 after serving as the New York Mets' associate team physician since July 1996. Paletta also has been an assistant team physician for the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Cavaliers.

Paletta is a 1984 graduate of The College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. He completed medical school in 1988, receiving an M.D. from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore. Paletta completed a surgical internship at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago and then a residency in orthopedic surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. While at the Hospital for Special Surgery, he also completed a research fellowship in sports medicine. After residency, he served as a fellow in sports medicine in 1994 and '95 at the Cleveland Clinic. He then completed an additional fellowship in pediatric and adolescent sports medicine at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

In January 1996, Paletta joined the staff of the Hospital for Special Surgery as an assistant attending surgeon on the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Service, where his practice specialized in sports medicine. He also served on the faculty of Cornell University Medical College as an instructor in orthopedic surgery.

In 1998, he joined the faculty of Washington University's Department of Orthopedic Surgery as an assistant professor.

Paletta and his wife, Jackie, have four children: Sarah, Savannah, George III and Emma.

DR. RICK WRIGHT
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Rick Wright, a native of Sikeston, Mo., and graduate of the University of Missouri, begins his third year as an orthopedic specialist on the Cardinals' medical staff. Wright has served as an orthopedic physician for the St. Louis Rams since 1995 and the St. Louis Blues since 1997. He also has worked with the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota Vikings and Minnesota Timberwolves.

Wright is a 1984 graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia and received his M.D. from the university in 1988. Following medical school, he received specialty training in orthopedic surgery at Vanderbilt University from 1988-93. From 1993-1994, he did subspecialty training in orthopedic sports medicine at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Wright established his practice in St. Louis in August 1994 and is a member of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Washington University. He is married to the former Lana Adams. The couple have two children, Megan and Robert.

DR. KEN YAMAGUCHI
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Ken Yamaguchi joined the Cardinals' medical staff in 1998 as a specialist in shoulder and elbow disorders. He currently serves as an assistant professor and chief of shoulder and elbow surgery at Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

After graduating from UCLA, Yamaguchi attended George Washington University School of Medicine, where he also served his orthopedic residency training. He completed his fellowship training in shoulder surgery with the internationally renowned shoulder service at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center in New York, which serves as consultant to the Yankees. Yamaguchi later continued his elbow training at the Mayo Clinic and has authored several publications on shoulder and elbow surgery.

Born and raised in Southern California, the 39-year-old physician resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife, Kathy, and two children, Kelli and Kyle.

DR. JIM LOOMIS
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Jim Loomis, the Cardinals' specialist in internal medicine, has been a team physician for the St. Louis Rams since 1995 and has served as European tour physician for the St. Louis Symphony.

Loomis, 40, a native of Little Rock, Ark., came to St. Louis in 1985 after receiving his M.D. from the University of Arkansas. He served his internship and residency in internal medicine at Barnes Hospital, completing both in 1988. He received his M.B.A. from Washington University in 1997.

Loomis is board-certified in internal medicine and a member of Alpha Omega Alpha, the American College of Physicians and the American College of Sports Medicine. He is part of the BJC Medical Group and practices with Associated Internists in west St. Louis County. He also is on the clinical faculty of Washington University's School of Medicine in the Department of Medicine.

Loomis and his wife, Susan, have two sons, Jimmy and Billy.

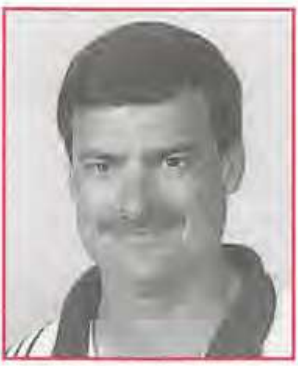
BARRY WEINBERG
TRAINER

Barry Weinberg begins his third season as the Cardinals' head athletic trainer following 16 seasons as trainer of the Oakland A's. He began his training career in 1974 with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he spent five seasons in their minor league system. He was the New York Yankees' assistant trainer from 1979-81.

Weinberg, 48, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He also conducts continuing education seminars for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. Weinberg received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield (Mass.) College and a master's degree in athletic training from Indiana University. He was the American League trainer at the 1987 and '93 All-Star games.

A native of Silver Spring, Md., Weinberg is a Broadway enthusiast and enjoys country and western music, photography and golf.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT TRAINER



Brad Henderson is entering his 13th season as the Cardinals' assistant trainer. The 38-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May 1988 and has been a trainer in the organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, Mo., is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. His first trainer's position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) before joining the major league club in 1988. Henderson has been a NATA member since 1986 and is licensed by the states of Missouri and Florida. He formerly was the National League Assistant Trainer Representative to the PBAT Executive Committee.

Henderson also has worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

Henderson and his wife, Julie Lynn, have a son, Blake Andrew, and a daughter, Brooke Marie. In his spare time, Henderson enjoys running, horse racing and golf.

MARK O'NEAL
MEDICAL/REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

Mark O'Neal enters his 11th season as a trainer in the Cardinals' organization and his third year at the major league level. From 1994 to '97, he was head trainer for the Class-AAA Louisville Redbirds.

O'Neal joined the organization after graduating from the University of Arkansas in 1989. After a year with the Cardinals' Savannah club in 1990, he was the Arkansas Travelers' trainer for three seasons (1991-93). In the off-season, the Russelville, Ark., native has worked as a trainer for the University of Arkansas-Little Rock and in the instructional Arizona Fall League. He also monitors the medical status of the Cardinals' major leaguers during the winter.

A nationally certified trainer, the 32-year-old O'Neal enjoys golf and is an avid college football and basketball fan. He and his wife, Stefanie, have two sons, Conner and Cade.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi begins his fourth season in the Cardinals' system and his first at the major league level. From 1997 through '99, he served as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 30, graduated from Florida State University, where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through '96.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi now resides in Charleston, S.C., with his wife, Lena.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations, including all spring training arrangements in Jupiter, Fla.

Born in Norfolk, Va., and raised in St. Louis, Cherre is entering his 23rd season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and received a bachelor's degree (cum laude) from Saint Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinals career in the group sales department, where he worked in 1977 and '78. He was named assistant director of public relations in January 1979 and held the position through 1980. He assumed his current position in January 1981.

Cherre, an ardent University of Notre Dame supporter, enjoys swimming, country and contemporary music, and fine dining. In 1998 he received the "Good Guy" award from the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA and at baseball's winter meetings was designated the "Traveling Secretary of the Year." Cherre has one daughter, Laura.

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Buddy Bates is in his 18th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. He succeeded the late Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years before retiring after the 1982 season.

The 47-year-old Bates joined the Cardinals in 1969, his first of three seasons as a bat boy. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse manager in 1972, holding the positions until assuming his current role in 1983.

Bates, a St. Louis native, is a graduate of Central High School, where he lettered in basketball. He attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. He was honored in 1997 with the "Good Guy" award by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA. Bates and his fiancee, Rachelle Ringling, are planning a December 2000 wedding.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering his 12th season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 36-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and began assisting in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983. He enjoys watching sports and fly fishing in his spare time. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children, Jessica, Jacob and Brennen.

JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 35th season with the Cardinals and his 17th year as visiting clubhouse manager.

The 47-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpires' room manager. In 1969 and 1970, he served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitors' clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Risch and his wife, the former Mary Catherine Arnold, have two children, Jessica and Joseph.

JEFF MURPHY
BULLPEN CATCHER (30)

Murphy begins his fourth season as the Cardinals' bullpen catcher and his ninth year in the organization. A former All-Big Eight performer at the University of Nebraska, Murphy was the Cards' 19th-round pick in the June 1992 amateur draft. He advanced to Class-AA Arkansas before an ankle injury in 1996 finished his career.

Murphy was named to the New York-Penn League's postseason All-Star squad in 1992, his first professional season. He threw out 47 percent of the runners attempting to steal against him. The next year, he led the South Atlantic League's catchers in fielding while posting career highs with seven home runs and 47 runs batted in. After spending the 1994 and '95 seasons at St. Petersburg, he moved to Arkansas in 1996 but appeared in just two games before injuring his ankle. He was named the Cardinals' bullpen catcher during spring training in 1997 after coming to camp as a nonroster invitee.

Born in St. Louis, the 29-year-old Murphy was raised in Las Vegas, and he now resides in St. Charles, Mo. He and his wife, Leah, have a son, Hunter, and a daughter, Sadie.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The St. Louis Cardinals have a long history of giving back to the community and to the fans who have supported the franchise for more than a century. Several expanded community outreach programs and the creation of Cardinals Care, the team's charitable foundation, manifest the Cardinals' ever-growing commitment toward improving the St. Louis community.

— CARDINALS CARE —

The St. Louis Cardinals charitable foundation known as Cardinals Care is the club's not-for-profit 501(c) (3) and was established by the team in January 1997. Members of the Cardinals' ownership group made inaugural contributions to the Fund totaling $100,000. Since then contributions have been made by the ownership group, Cardinals players and numerous other supporters, fans and businesses.

The mission and focus of Cardinals Care is to benefit area youth through out- reach programs and financial grants. During its first three years, Cardinals Care distributions to such efforts and organizations exceeded $1 million.

The St. Louis Cardinals, LP, underwrites 100 percent of the annual administrative and operating expenses of Cardinals Care. This structure makes Cardinals Care an extremely efficient vehicle through which supporters and contributors achieve maximum impact to benefit children in the St. Louis area.

WINTER WARM-UP

Each January, Cardinals Care presents the annual Winter Warm-Up, a weekend-long baseball festival where fans and families can get autographs, interact with team owners and management, bid on unique auction items, purchase game-used memorabilia and merchandise, and visit a wide variety of baseball exhibitors. Dozens of current and former Cardinals, including all living Redbirds Hall-of-Famers, gather in St. Louis for the weekend to visit and sign autographs for fans. The players donate their time because all proceeds from the event benefit Cardinals Care. The Main Stage features player question-and-answer sessions, a live KMOX Radio show, grant presentations and discussions with representatives from the youth organizations that Cardinals Care supports. This year's Main Stage also featured a raffle for a trip to spring training and a sing-along with Cardinals great Stan Musial, who is pictured leading fans through "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" with his harmonica.

CARDINALS CARE "BALLFIELD PROGRAM"

The chance to play ball on a green, well-kept, regulation diamond is an opportunity that hundreds of youths in St. Louis now have as a result of the Cardinals Care "Ballfield Program." Funds to refurbish existing fields and build new ones are provided for young people — primarily in the inner city — who would otherwise have little chance of learning or playing the game. Cardinals Care has initiated this exciting program in an effort to help revitalize some of St. Louis' neediest neighborhoods.

SHIRTS-OFF-YOUR-BACK DAY AT THE BALLPARK

After the last out of one special game a year, 25 Cardinals players bound out of the dugout to autograph and present their jerseys to 25 fortunate fans who have purchased winning raffle tickets during that day's "Shirts Off Your Back" program. All fans at this game have an opportunity to donate $1 for each scratch-off raffle ticket, with proceeds benefiting the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) and Cardinals Care. Exchanging a winning ticket for an autographed, game-worn jersey is a thrill fans never forget.

RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City)

Every year, Cardinals Care provides a considerable grant to the St. Louis RBI program. Reviving Baseball in the Inner City is an initiative led nationally by the Commissioner of Major League Baseball and supported locally in St. Louis by the Cardinals. RBI provides the leagues and structure that allow youths to participate in organized baseball. The grant from Cardinals Care provides equipment, uniforms and field upkeep for dozens of teams on both sides of the river. The coaches teach baseball, but just as important, they teach teamwork and dedication.

CARDINALS SCHOOL PROGRAM

Say No to Drugs! Stay in School! Participate in Sports! These are the three key messages that more than a quarter-million students have heard from Joe Cunningham, Al Hrabosky and Fredbird as part of the Cardinals' School Program. The traveling, no-cost program entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals. For more than a decade, this program has reached youngsters in schools throughout Missouri and Illinois in a fun, memorable manner.

CARDINALS COMPLIMENTARY TICKET PROGRAMS

Each season the Cardinals donate more than 80,000 tickets to various fans and organizations. Our KNOTHOLE PROGRAM for kids gives groups of youngsters 6 to 18 years old the chance to attend selected games as guests of the Cardinals. Our SPECIAL TICKET PROGRAM provides complimentary tickets to thousands of senior citizens and disabled individuals throughout the year. The SCOUTS PROGRAM allows Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts to enjoy a ballgame compliments of the Cardinals. The St. Louis Area Boy Scout Council works with the team to facilitate this exciting program. Girl Scouts also are welcome and attend games through the Knothole Program. The SAFETY PATROL program provides complimentary tickets to children who serve on their school's safety patrol. The Cardinals work with AAA to coordinate and distribute the Safety Patrol tickets. The FIGHT-FREE Program, coordinated with help from the Office of the County Executive, provides tickets to students in schools that successfully participate in the program.

TONY'S TROOPS

Fans who arrive early at the ballpark are likely to see manager Tony La Russa talking with a group of youngsters in the Cardinals dugout as part of "Tony's Troops." A few games each homestand, the Cardinals manager takes time out of his pre-game preparation to talk with these children about what it takes to succeed in baseball and in life. After posing questions to the Cardinals manager, the group is served dinner before watching the game compliments of Cardinals Care. The program tries to target children who typically lack the resources or means to attend a baseball game.

PLAYERS' WIVES

Each year, the Cardinals' wives team up to raise money for different charitable causes throughout the St. Louis area. Projects from past years have provided teddy bears to children in hospitals, canned food for needy families, and financial support for Oprah's Angel House and Habitat for Humanity, and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

CARDINALS CREW

The Cardinals offer an exciting opportunity for kids 15 and under to sign up and participate in their very own fan club. Every member receives tickets, an official membership card, a periodic newsletter, special gifts, and an invitation to the Cardinals Crew party, which Cardinals players attend.

CARDINALS CARAVAN

Every winter, groups of Cardinals players, broadcasters and Fredbird hit the road to visit Cardinals fans in numerous towns throughout the Midwest. The players answer questions, talk about the upcoming season, and sign autographs for fans. The Caravan also raises money to help local charities in each town.

MALL TOUR

The Cardinals Hall of Fame Mall Tour brings highlights of Cardinals history to malls throughout the Midwest. This huge interactive display features memorabilia from the Cardinals Hall of Fame, including a replica of Mark McGwire's locker, and video highlights of great moments in Cardinals history.

OTHER CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES

The Cardinals receive thousands of requests each year for items to be donated to various fund-raising events and auctions throughout the area. Whenever possible, the team has provided tickets or other items that have contributed toward raising several hundred thousand dollars. In addition, Cardinals players, front-office employees and Fredbird have "adopted" several local hospitals by making frequent visits to children during the baseball season. Other appearances are scheduled throughout the year so that Cardinals players can meet their fans at schools, boys and girls clubs, churches and other local organizations. The far-reaching efforts of the entire Cardinals' family underscore the team's goal of giving back to the St. Louis community in as many ways as possible.

MANAGER

ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10)

Tony La Russa enters his fifth season at the Cardinals' helm as the career leader in wins (1,639) among active managers and No. 11 on the all-time major league list. Only eight other managers — and just three in the last 50 years — have skippered the Cardinals for more than four seasons.

La Russa was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, after managing for 17 years in the American League with Oakland and Chicago. In his first N.L. season, La Russa guided the Cardinals to the 1996 Central Division title and was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, La Russa's honors include Manager of the Year recognition in four seasons, one N.L. Central Division title, five A.L. Western Division titles, three A.L. pennants and one World Series championship.

La Russa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class-AA Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox.

In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, La Russa quickly established his managerial acumen. In 1983, he guided Chicago to the A.L. West title and the best record in the major leagues, 99-63. He was rewarded with Manager of the Year accolades from The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, La Russa's White Sox were tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manager's role with Oakland less than three weeks later, on July 7.

In just his second full year with the A's, La Russa managed the club to an A.L. West-record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the 1988 World Series. He again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, La Russa guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, LaRussa became the 40th manager in major league history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is Oakland's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional career spanned 16 seasons.

LaRussa, the 48th manager in Cardinals history, actually was a member of the organization once previously, when he was a player-coach for the Cardinals' Triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, La Russa passed the bar exam in December 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants, Brooklyn and Providence, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1913-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25). All of La Russa's predecessors are in the Hall of Fame.

La Russa, 55, makes his off-season home in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). La Russa was born 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is the founder and chairperson of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) and is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care.

COACHES

BENCH COACH

DeJohn, 46, joined the Cardinals' major league coaching staff in 1996. He served as the organization's field coordinator for player development for three seasons and managed in the Cardinals' farm system from 1986-1991. He also managed and coached in the Detroit Tigers' and Kansas City Royals' farm systems.

DeJohn was drafted by the New York Mets in 1971 and played in their system through the 1977 season. He signed with the Detroit Tigers in 1978 and reached the major leagues with the Tigers in 1982.

DeJohn made the transition from player to coach the next year, serving as a minor league instructor for the Tigers. He then coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate in 1985 but returned to Detroit midway through the season to manage the Tigers' Birmingham affiliate.

DeJohn joined the Cardinals' organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons. DeJohn managed Detroit's Class AA London affiliate in 1992 before returning to the Cardinals' organization in 1993.

DeJohn and his wife, Judith Marie, make their home in New Britain, Conn., with their two children, Timothy and Stephanie. DeJohn attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, Conn.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)
PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 54, enters his fifth season as the Cardinals' pitching coach after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with six Cy Young Award winners. He coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and LaMarr Hoyt, and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore when all six pitchers won their awards.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, Christopher (drafted by the Cardinals as a supplemental first-round pick in the June 1999 amateur draft) and David, and make their off-season home in Tucson, Ariz.

MICHAEL (MIKE) ANTHONY EASLER (19)
HITTING COACH

Easler begins his second season as the Cardinals' hitting coach. Before joining the club, he managed the Nashua Pride of the independent Atlantic League in 1998, the league's inaugural year. Easler guided the Pride to a 59-41 record, and seven of his players were signed by major league organizations. During his playing career, Easler spent most of the 1976 season in the Cardinals' farm system, winning the American Association batting title with the Tulsa Oilers before a Sept. 3 trade to California.

A veteran of 14 big-league seasons, Easler has coached or managed at the professional or amateur level for the last 10 years. He began his instructional career in 1990 as manager of the Miami Miracle and in 1991 was named the Toronto Blue Jays' roving minor league hitting instructor. In 1992, Easler took over as hitting coach for the Milwaukee Brewers and helped the team to a .268 batting mark, second in the American League. He joined the Red Sox's staff in 1993 and spent two seasons as the team's hitting coach before leaving to become head coach at National Christian University in San Antonio, Texas. In 1996, Easler began working as Mo Vaughn's personal hitting instructor, a role that continues to this day.

Known as the "Hit Man" during his playing days, Easler batted .293 during his career with Houston (1973-75), California (1976), Pittsburgh (1977-83), Boston (1984-85), the New York Yankees (1986-87) and Philadelphia (1987). He was named to the National League All-Star team in 1981 and batted over .300 on four occasions, including a career-best .338 in 1980. A former recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award for Outstanding Community Service and the Boston Man of the Year Award, Easler took part in the 1979 World Series as a member of the Pirates' "We are Family" Series champions.

A native of Cleveland, Easler, 49, attended Cleveland State University and is an ordained Baptist minister. He and his wife, Brenda, have three children, Misty, Shandi and Khyla, and three grandchildren. Easler resides in San Antonio.

MARTIN (MARTY) LEE MASON (38)
BULLPEN COACH

Mason, 42, joins the Cardinals' major league staff this season as bullpen coach after working the last three years as the organization's Triple-A pitching coach. He begins his 15th year as a coach in the system, dating back to his first assignment at St. Petersburg in 1986. After two seasons there, Mason coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas from 1990-96.

A righthanded pitcher originally signed by the New York Yankees in 1980, Mason was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. While in the Yankees' system, he led the South Atlantic League with an .846 winning percentage in 1981, when he was 11-2 at Greensboro. At the Cardinals' Springfield affiliate in '83, Mason ranked second in the Midwest League with 54 appearances and third in games finished, with 46. Mason also pitched for Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, Ky. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on Feb. 22, 1986. The couple have two daughters, Brandy Leigh and Lindsey. Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)
FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 49, begins his fifth season as the Cardinals' first-base coach and his 15th season on Tony La Russa's coaching staff. McKay was La Russa's first-base coach in Oakland from 1989-95 and handled bullpen and bench coach duties for the A's beginning in 1984. In all, McKay spent 16 years as a player or coach in the Oakland system.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minor leagues. He broke into the majors in a big way, homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on Aug. 22, 1975. McKay also hit safely in 21 of his first 22 major league games.

After the 1976 season, the Twins lost McKay in the expansion draft to Toronto, where McKay was the starting third baseman in the first game in Blue Jays franchise history. After splitting time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979, McKay signed with the A's in 1980. He played for Oakland through 1982, helping the A's to the 1981 Western Division crown by batting .288 in the second half and belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach.

McKay earned a physical education degree from Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash., and attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. He was born in Vancouver, B.C., and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark. The couple make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with their son, Cody.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)
THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo takes over as the Cardinals' third-base coach this season after joining the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. He was an instructor in the Cardinals' farm system before manager Tony La Russa appointed him to his staff, working as a field instructor in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in '98.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 60, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 19th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 10 that have been retired by the Cardinals.

Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is entering his fifth season as Cardinals special instructor.

Gibson, 64, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 10 to be retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 58 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

RICK ANKIEL

66 RICHARD ALEXANDER ANKIEL

Pitcher

Ht: 6-1 Bats: Left

Age: 20 (Turns 21 on July 19)
Born: 7/19/79 at Fort Pierce, Florida

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the second round of the June 1997 free-agent draft.

M.L. SERVICE: 0.042

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Considered by many to be baseball's top pitching prospect, he did nothing in his second professional season to dismiss such high regard.
- Was tabbed Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year for the second consecutive season; also received Minor League Player of the Year selections from USA Today, Baseball America and Howe Sports, and was named Minor League Pitcher of the Year by USA Today Baseball Weekly. Was also named to Topps Class AA All-Star team.
- Combined for a 13-3 won-loss mark and 2.35 ERA during his minor league stops with Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA); led the Cardinals farm system in victories (tie, with Larry Luebbers), strikeouts (194), strikeouts per nine innings (12.7) and starter's ERA.
- He was honored as Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month in both April and May.
- He and teammate Adam Kennedy were both tabbed for the Future Stars game which took place at Boston's Fenway Park in July.
- Began the season at Arkansas of the Texas League where he was nearly unhittable; in eight starts for the Travelers, Rick was a perfect 6-0 with a league-leading 0.91 ERA. He fanned 75 batters in 49.1 IP and walked just 16.
- Was 3-0, 0.46 ERA in three May starts and was brilliant in his five starts at Ray Winder Field, going 4-0, 0.29 ERA (31.0 IP/ 1 ER).
- Struck out 10 or more in five of his starts for Arkansas, including 12 in a two-hit complete game shutout vs. Shreveport on 4/24; allowed just one hit in 7.0 IP on 5/16 vs. Midland, his final start before promotion to Memphis.

- Was proficient at the plate as well, batting .400 (4-for-10) with a HR at Arkansas.
- Made his first Triple-A start on 5/21 at Salt Lake, posting a win with 5.1 IP; completed his 16-game stint at Memphis with a 7-3 mark and a 3.16 ERA.
- Continued to record strikeouts in bunches, fanning 119 in his 88.1 IP. He whiffed 14 in 6.0 IP on 6/20 vs. Iowa and fanned 13 in six innings work vs. Tucson on 5/26.
- Suffered the first of his three defeats on 5/31 vs. Omaha, allowing four runs (two earned) in 6.2 IP.
- Made his final start for the Redbirds on 8/16 vs. Oklahoma when he tossed six scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and striking out nine.
- Earned promotion to the majors on 8/23, drawing the starting assignment in the Cards' series opener with MON at Olympic Stadium; allowed three runs in 5.0 IP, taking a no-decision in the 11-7 defeat.
- His Busch Stadium debut came on 8/29 vs. ATL. Had second-straight no-decision, allowing two runs on five hits in six innings pitched. Left with game tied 2-2, but Braves went on to win, 4-3, in 12 innings.
- Struck out nine in 9/8 start at ATL. Suffered his first major league loss as well, losing 5-4 to the Braves.
- Made a total of five starts for the Cardinals, going 0-1, 3.86 ERA. His final four appearances came in relief. Did not allow a run, and only two hits, in 5.0 IP out of the bullpen.
- Struck out six in 2.0 innings of relief vs. Padres in nightcap of 9/29 twinbill.
- Was credited with his first professional save in season finale vs. Cubs. Worked out of a bases loaded no-out jam to preserve 9-5 win in rain-shortened contest on 10/3.
- Finished the year 0-1, 3.27 ERA in nine games (five starts) with the Cardinals. Struck out 39 and walked just 14 in his 33.0 IP. Held opposing batters to a .215 BA, including a .133 mark as a reliever.
- Collected his first major league hit with a single off Brewers' Scott Karl on 9/14.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Completed long journey back to majors after missing nearly two full years due to right shoulder injury that twice required surgery.
- Began the season on disabled list, before returning to game action in early August after completing a variety of simulated game workouts.
- Saw his first professional game action since 1997 on 8/5 vs. Shreveport when he made an injury rehab start for Arkansas (AA). Worked 1.1 scoreless innings.

- Combined to make seven rehab appearances with Potomac (A), Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA). Final rehab start was with Memphis on 9/4 vs. Nashville.
- Had a pair of three inning outings -- his longest of the year. Worked three innings vs. Jackson on 8/25 and did the same vs. Kinston on 8/30.
- Was activated from the disabled list on 9/5 and made his return to the Busch Stadium mound on 9/10 vs. PIT; worked one scoreless inning, striking out two, in his first major league game appearance since 7/30/97.
- Made his final appearance of the season on 9/18 vs. HOU; allowed one hit before inducing a game-ending doubleplay.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1993 – Allowed just two home runs in his 37 innings...posted a 2.01 ERA in four home starts, but had a 6.14 mark in three starts on the road.

1994 – Made a rapid rise through the Cardinals' farm system, posting a combined 17-3 record with a 2.28 ERA...led all of minor league baseball with his 205.2 innings pitched, and his 2.28 ERA was 9th among all minor league hurlers...finished third among minor league pitchers with 184 K's, and his .197 opponents average was second...hurled a 2-hitter in his first AA start, and a 4-hitter in his first AAA start.

1995 – Started out strong, but season was shortened due to injury...began the year 2-0 with a 1.74 ERA in his first five games at Louisville (AAA) before elbow injury put him on the shelf following five scoreless IP in 4/29 start vs New Orleans...missed nearly four months due to inflammation and tightness in his right elbow and forearm...returned to active roster on 8/9 in start vs Iowa...was held to two innings of work as he was working off a pitch count...was stretched out to 4 IP in 8/14 start vs Omaha and went to 6 IP on 8/19 vs Indy...Alan was 2-2 with a 3.24 ERA (25 IP/9 ER) in his six starts following return to the active roster...he was 2-0 during post-season, helping Louisville to opening round series sweep of Indy with a CG shutout in Game #3 of playoff series...earned 2nd post-season win in Louisville's Game #3 win over Buffalo on 9/13 in the American Association Championship series...was 4-2 with a 2.41 ERA in 11 starts at Louisville, his first full year at the triple-A level...held opposing batters to a .185 mark and fanned 54 in his 56 IP...was purchased from Louisville on 9/16 & was 1-2 in three starts for the Cardinals...made his ML debut on 9/19 at PIT, working four innings...lasted just 3.1 IP in 9/25 start at CHI...earned his first ML win on 9/30 vs PIT...fanned 10 in his 8.2 IP, equaling the Cards single-game strikeout high for the year...fanned a total of 20 batters in his 16 IP with the Cards...won Arizona Fall League top honors for pitching with 6-1 mark and a 1.78 ERA...also established AFL record for strikeouts with 62.

1996 – Rookie right-hander put together one of the finest frosh seasons ever by a Redbird pitcher...finished the year with 13 wins, the most by a STL rookie since 1967 (Dick Hughes -16)...his 131 strikeouts were the most by a Cardinal rookie since 1971 (Reggie Cleveland -148)...he and Expos' Ugueth Urbina were only rookie pitchers in the NL to post a double-digit win total...the Cards were 14-18 in his starts and averaged 4.9 runs/game support (158 runs)...Alan owned a 2.21 ERA (85.2 IP/21 ER) in the 12 starts he won, but a 6.99 mark (104.1 IP/81 ER) in his 20 starts without a win...10 of his 13 wins came in night games...suffered tough stretches in May (1-2, 7.67 ERA) & July (3-2, 6/98 ERA), but was a solid 3-1, 2.65 ERA in June...his longest win streak was three games (4/10-20 & 7/6-19)...Alan made two relief appearances, the first ever of his professional career...suffered 4-2 defeat in relief on 9/11 at SF, as Barry Bonds tagged him for a 2-run homer in the 8th, breaking a 2-2 tie...he allowed two unearned runs in 4.2 IP during his start 9/6 vs Padres, before leaving the game after being hit by Steve Finley's line drive off his right wrist in the 5th...was used in relief for first time in his professional career on Labor Day (9/2) and gained win vs Astros in 8-7 extra-innings affair...became Cards' winningest rookie since 1971 (R. Cleveland) as he gained a 2-1 win over the Rockies on 8/31 for win #12...dropped a 4-1 decision at HOU 8/25, allowing three runs in 6 IP...won for the first time since July 19 when he tossed a CG 6-1 win over the Dodgers on 8/14, allowing just five hits...made his longest start (7 IP) since June 15, but had no-decision in Cards' 5-3 loss to the Giants on 8/8, allowing just one run on six hits...Terrell Wade & two Braves' relievers held the Cards in check, as Alan's 3-game win streak came to an end in 4-1 loss to ATL on 7/24...became Cards' first 10-game winner, as he battled Cubs and rain delays for a 9-1 win on 7/19...earned his first career win in three tries against the Cubs on 7/14, as he and Cards held on for a 7-6 win at the "Friendly Confines"...Redbirds provided 11 runs and 17 hits in support of his 11-7 win over the Braves 6/26 at ATL...allowed two runs (one earned) in 6 IP on 6/21 at MTL before departing with game tied at 2-2...the Expos went on to win 4-3 in 12 innings...Alan supplied Cards' first two runs with bases-loaded 2-run double in the 5th...won at home for the first time since 4/15, as he posted a 4-2 win over the Mets on 6/15 at Busch...lowered his ERA below the 5.00 mark for the first time since the end of April...earned his first ML shutout with a 3-0 CG effort on 6/3 at San Diego...it was his second CG effort of the season...recorded wins in each of his first three decisions and finished the month of April with a 3-1, 4.89 mark...fanned a career-high 11 batters in complete-game win vs MTL on April 10...the 11 K's were the most by a Cards' pitcher since 1992...worked 8 scoreless innings in a 1-0 at PHI on April 20...his first and only loss for the month came on April 25 vs NY...he and brother Andy became the first Cardinals' brother pitching tandem since Lindy and Von McDaniel teamed together in 1957-58...they were the first brothers to share 10-win seasons since Joe and Phil Niekro did so in 1985...made postseason debut in fourth game of N.L. Championship Series 10/13 vs ATL, retiring all four hitters he faced to keep deficit at 3-0 before Cards came back for 4-3 win in game started by older brother Andy...held Braves to two runs and three hits in five innings in Game Six start, a 3-1 loss.

1997 – Had his brilliant sophomore campaign cut short by a shoulder injury in late July, which eventually led to season-ending surgery to repair a partially torn rotator cuff, damaged cartilage and looseness in his right shoulder...was placed on the DL 7/31 and remained there for the rest of the schedule...at the time of his injury, ranked third in the N.L. in strikeouts (160) and opponents' batting average and sixth in ERA (2.89)...because of the injury, fell one-third inning short of the 162 necessary to qualify for N.L. pitching honors...would have tied for sixth in ERA and ranked third by limiting opponents to a .219 batting average...surpassed his rookie '96 season strikeout total by 29...fanned batters in 17 consecutive innings (21 batters total) from 5/16-27...the Cardinals were 11-12 in his 23 starts but averaged just 3.6 runs per start, the least support given the Redbirds' regular starters...averaged seven innings per start; worked eight or more innings in nine starts, including two complete games...was 7-7 with a 2.55 ERA and 136 strikeouts in 127 innings before the All-Star break...was 0-2 with a no-decision in his final three starts...notched his ninth, and final, win in a 7/15 start at CIN, winning 7-4...in a 6/27 duel against B. Tomko at CIN, led 3-1 entering the sixth but was beaten on a Willie Greene grand slam, 5-3...earned his seventh win, vs. CIN on 6/22 at Busch Stadium, 5-2, holding the Reds to one earned run and four hits in eight innings...had no decision in his 7/2 interleague start vs. MIN...struck out 10 in eight innings, surrendering only a solo homer by S. Stahoviak before giving way to Petkovsek...Cards won, 2-1, on a McGee solo homer in the bottom of the 10th inning...was brilliant in his 6/16 interleague start at MIL, but lost when J. Burnitz homered in the ninth for a 1-0 Brewers win...Benes matched his career high with 11 strikeouts, the third time he'd fanned 11 batters in '97...also struck out 11 in an 8-3 win at San Diego on 6/11 and in a 5/16 no-decision at Atlanta...blanked the Braves on no hits for 8.2 innings 5/16 at ATL. Did not earn a decision in the game, which the Cards eventually lost, 1-0, in 13 innings...posted a complete-game 2-1 win over the Padres in the nightcap of a 4/19 DH at Honolulu, allowing only three hits and a lone ninth-inning run.

1998 – Was placed on the disabled list on 3/30 after missing the entire exhibition schedule while recovering from shoulder surgery performed in September 1997....underwent additional surgery on his right shoulder on 9/3...Dr. James Andrews performed the arthroscopic procedure to repair "residual underlying laxity."

MISC: Attended Creighton University, where he was team captain and a first-team preseason All-America in 1993...named Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year and second-team All-America in 1992...named to Baseball America's Freshman All-America team in 1991...graduated in 1990 from Lake Forest High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, earning all-conference honors in each sport...enjoys fishing and golf...brother of teammate Andy Benes and Cardinals' minor leaguer Adam Benes...was signed by Cardinals' scout Mike Roberts...was named Cardinals Rookie of the Year for 1996 by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA and by Hamilton Jewelers...resides in Cedar Hill, MO with his wife, Mary Beth...name is pronounced BEN-es.

Age: 32 (Turns 33 on August 20)
Born: 8/20/67 at Evansville, Indiana

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, January 7, 2000.

M.L. SERVICE: 10.054

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002 with a club option for 2003.

1999 SEASON:

- In a career full of late-season surges, the 1999 campaign was no different for Benes, as he won six of his last seven decisions and posted a 7-2 record in his last 10 starts to finish the year with a 13-12 record.

- Went 8-3 with a 3.92 ERA after the All-Star break. His career ledger after the break stands at 74-47 with a 3.59 ERA, while his pre-break work has resulted in a 57-72, 3.95 mark.
- Posted a 4-1 mark in the month of September.
- Split his first four starts of the year before entering a three-game losing streak from 5/8 to 5/19. Won two more games and then dipped into another three-game losing streak from 6/12 to 6/23.
- Entered the All-Star break with a 5-9 record and a 5.51 ERA.
- His last appearance in Houston's Astrodome was a memorable one, as he clubbed his sixth career home run off Jose Lima on 7/22. Allowed just one run on six hits in 6.0 innings in the 2-1 win.
- Received a scare at SD on 7/27, when he was nailed in the right arm by a line drive. Came out of the game to take X-rays, which were negative. He had thrown two shutout innings with four strikeouts.
- His longest win streak of the year was four games, from 8/18 to 9/11.
- Got the best of Curt Schilling at PHI on 8/7. Allowed just one earned run over 6.2 innings, while matching his D'Backs best with 10 strikeouts.
- Blanked the Phillies with an eight-inning, five-hit perfomance at Bank One Ballpark on 9/11, a 4-0 D'Backs win.
- His final appearance of the year was out of the bullpen on 10/3 vs. SD. Worked two innings and allowed one run (a solo homer to Ruben Rivera) with two strikeouts in the D'Backs' 10-3 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1989 – Began his professional career at Double-A Wichita, where he went 8-4 with a 2.16 ERA in 16 Texas League starts...allowed two earned runs in his first five starts (0.44 ERA), including three straight shutouts that featured strikeout totals of 16, 12 and 11...was promoted to Las Vegas (AAA) in July, going 2-1 in five starts, before getting the call to the majors...made his big league debut on 8/11 vs. ATL, fanning seven in a 6-5 loss...collected first major league hit on 8/18 at MON, then added first big league homer on 9/3 off Phillies' Dennis Cook...posted first major league victory 8/23 at PHI, a 7-3 win that triggered a six-game winning streak...the streak featured a pair of 1-0 wins over Orel Hershiser and the Dodgers...honored by The Sporting News as N.L. Rookie Pitcher-of-the-Year by recording 66 strikeouts in 66.2 innings during brief big league stint...was named the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Year despite spending only half of the year at Wichita.

1990 – Made 32 appearances (31 starts) in his first full big league season...fired first major league complete game with a two-hitter on 5/14 vs. PHI...Padres went extra-innings in six of his 11 no decisions, winning five...fanned 11 on 7/5 vs. STL.

1991 – Established a then career high with 13 strikeouts on 4/13 vs. CIN...hit second career home run on 4/27 at PHI off Danny Cox...started career-best 10-game winning streak with 2-0 win on 7/28 vs. NY, allowing five hits over 8.0 innings...winning streak spanned 12 starts and was longest in N.L. since Dennis Martinez won 11 in a row in 1989...tossed first major league shutout with 2-0, two-hitter at STL on 8/29.

1992 – Tossed two shutouts, a three-hitter on 5/22 vs. CHI, then a four-hitter on 6/17 at HOU, winning 2-0 and 5-0, respectively...hit his third career home run on 8/13 at ATL off Charlie Liebrandt...won six of last seven decisions at SD, allowing 11 earned runs in 55.2 innings (1.78 ERA).

1993 – Lost Opening Day start vs. PIT, then went 12-6 with 2.29 ERA over next 22 starts, working into seventh inning 17 times, and holding the opposition to two or fewer earned runs in 15 of those 22 games...hit fourth career homer on 5/12 at CIN off Jose Rijo...made lone career All-Star Game appearance, working 2.0 frames in BAL, fanning a pair and allowing a run...earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honor after back-to-back starts at CHI (7/27) and at CIN (8/1), allowing no earned runs over 16.0 innings in a pair of wins.

1994 – Won the N.L. strikeout title with 189 strikeouts in strike-shortened season, becoming the first Padre to lead the league...recorded 10 or more Ks in seven games, including career-best 14 strikeouts on 7/15 at NY...pitched lone career one-hitter on 7/3 vs. Mets, recording 13 whiffs, while contributing a three-run double...had the three highest strikeout games in the N.L. with 12, 13 and 14.

1995 – Was a double-digit winner while splitting time between San Diego (19 starts) and Seattle (12 starts)...went 4-7 with San Diego, then was dealt to Seattle for the pennant drive on 7/31, posting a 7-2 record and assisting the Mariners to post-season play...recorded career strikeout #952 on 5/31 at NY, breaking Padres' club record...had a season-high 11 strikeouts on 6/5 at PHI...ranked second in N.L. with 19 starts and 126 Ks at time of trade to Seattle, leaving San Diego as club's all-time strikeout leader with 1,036...won A.L. debut on 8/3 at CAL, a 10-7 victory allowing two runs with nine strikeouts over 6.0 innings...won five straight decisions from 8/29 to 9/26...included was a 6-2 win vs. KC on 9/9, featuring 19 consecutive batters retired. 1995 POSTSEASON – Started Game 2 of Division Series vs. Yankees, allowing three runs in 5.0 innings, a game the Mariners dropped 7-5 in 15 innings...started Game 5, allowing four runs in 6.2 innings, but Seattle rallied for 6-5 win to qualify for ALCS vs. CLE...struggled vs. Indians, allowing six runs in 2.1 innings.

1996 – Established a career high with 18 wins, the second-best tally in the N.L...after nightmarish 1-7 beginning (5.92 ERA through 10 starts), he had a dramatic turnaround, finishing with a 17-3 record and 3.11 ERA over his final 26 appearances, lowering his season ERA to 3.83, a drop of 2.09 from the beginning of the season...won 10 straight decisions from 6/19 to 8/16, the longest winning streak for a Cardinal pitcher since John Tudor won 11 in a row in 1985...Andy won 15 of last 17 decisions...posted his only career save on 5/29 vs. COL, recording final out of 6-5 Redbird win...his win on 9/9 was 17th of year, giving Andy and brother Alan 31 combined wins, the most by a St. Louis brother tandem since Dizzy (28) and Paul Dean (19) combined for 47 in 1935...was the winning pitcher in Cards division clincher on 9/24 at PIT. 1996 POSTSEASON – Fanned nine in 7.0 innings vs. SD in lone Division Series start, a 5-4 St. Louis win in Game 2...allowed two runs in 6.0 frames at ATL in opener of NLCS.

1997 – Season started late due to left rib cage injury...made three rehab starts before winning 4/28 debut at Busch over SF...upon recovering from the injury, the durable Benes worked into the 7th inning in 18 of 26 starts...recorded 10 or more strikeouts on five occasions, including a pair of 12-strikeout games...fanned a dozen over 7.0 innings in 9-3 win at SF on 5/24, then struck out 12 in a no decision at CHI, working 9.0 innings of an eventual 2-1 Cards win...season ERA dipped to 2.97 after outing vs. Cubs...also had a pair of 11-strikeout outings (6/4 at PIT and 6/14 vs. CLE)...posted 100th major league win 6/24 vs. CHI, a 7-2 triumph...season ended on 9/7 at COL, when he was hit by Pedro Astacio pitch while batting in seventh inning, suffering broken finger on pitching hand...despite injury-shortened campaign, he finished 10th in the N.L. with 175 strikeouts, while his .230 opponents' batting average was the seventh-best mark in the league.

1998 – Posted a phenomenal late-season run to tie Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo for most wins ever by an expansion pitcher, finishing the year with a 14-13 mark...tied his career best with 231.1 IP (1992), working into the seventh inning in 25 of his 34 starts, including his first 11 of the year...was 8-4 with a 3.00 ERA in 15 starts after the All-Star break...won seven of his last nine decisions and closed the campaign by not allowing an earned run in his last 27.1 innings, establishing a club record...threw the first pitch in Diamondbacks' franchise history, his fifth career Opening Day start, vs. COL on 3/31 (a 9-2 loss)...poked his fifth career home run on 4/10 at SD (off Kevin Brown)...recorded a season-high 10 Ks in a no-decision at PIT on 9/2...pitched a near no-hitter at CIN on 9/13, when he went 8.1 innings before allowing a line drive to right by Sean Casey on a 3-2 pitch; Andy left the game with the bases loaded before Gregg Olson induced a game-ending double play to preserve a 5-0 win...finished September with a 3-0 record and a 0.42 ERA, allowing just two runs on 17 hits while fanning 34 over 38.1 IP.

MISC: Graduated from Evansville (Ind.) Central High School, where he lettered in baseball basketball and football...attended hometown University of Evansville and earned All-America and Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year honors as a junior, when he went 16-3 with a 1.42 ERA and a nation-leading 188 strikeouts...led the Purple Aces to the NCAA Tournament, where he knocked off Arizona State 1-0 and was named to the West II Regional All-Tournament squad...was drafted by the San Diego Padres as the first overall pick in the 1988 draft, but did not pitch, opting instead to pitch for the U.S. Olympic Team that traveled to Seoul...Benes won his lone Olympic start, working 6.2 innings vs. Australia, allowing one earned run on three hits...is highly involved in community work...he and his wife Jennifer have two sons, Andrew Charles II (11/4/88) and Shane Ryan (2/16/96) and two daughters, Bailey (12/20/94) and Brynn (11/1/93)...Andy is the eldest brother in the Cardinals system, joining Alan and Adam.

37 KENT DENNIS BOTTENFIELD

Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Bats: Right
Wt: 240 Throws: Right

Age: 31
Born: 11/14/68 at Portland, Oregon

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, January 6, 1998.

M.L. SERVICE: 5.112

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Put together one of the best performances by a Cardinals pitcher in the 1990s, winning a career-high 18 games. His 18 wins in '99 matched his career victory total prior to the season.
- Tied for fourth among NL pitchers in wins, and tied for third in winning percentage (.720). Led the team in games started (31), ERA (3.97), strikeouts (124) and home runs allowed (21).
- Joined Andy Benes (1996) as only the second Cardinals pitcher to win 18 games during the 1990s. His 18 wins accounted for 24% of the team's wins, the highest total among any Cards' pitcher this decade.
- Was named to the National League All-Star team, his first such selection.
- Won his 14th game on 7/11 at SF, as he became just the third Cards' pitcher to win 14 games prior to the All-Star break (the last was Joaquin Andujar in 1985, 15-4).
- The Cards were 21-10 in his 31 games started. He showed true stopper form with 14 of his 18 wins coming after a Cardinals loss.
- Averaged more than six innings per start and worked seven innings or more in 11 of his 31 starts. The Cardinals offered 6.05 runs/9 IP in support when he started.
- Earned his 18th win on 9/21 at CHI in his final start of the season.
- Win #10 came on 6/16 vs. MON, as he became the first Cardinals pitcher since Andujar (1985) to win 10 games before July 1.
- Fanned a career-high 10 batters in 4/13 win at PIT despite pitching just 5.1 IP.
- Won a career-best five straight decisions, 6/16 - 7/11, and was 14-3 prior to the All-Star break. Was a perfect 4-0 with a1.53 ERA in April.
- Worked a season-high eight innings in three of his starts. Totaled a career-high 190.1 innings pitched for the year.
- Raised $24,800 for the National Kidney Foundation by donating $200 per strikeout as part of his Kent's K's for Kidneys program.
- Was voted one of three finalists for the MLB Player's Choice Comeback Player of the Year Award. Earned plaudits from St. Louis Chapter of BBWAA for his '99 performance.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1986 – Started his pro career with the Gulf Coast Expos, winning five times and working a pair of complete games in 13 starts.

1987 – Hurled three shutouts among six complete games and nine wins for Class-A Burlington.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1980 – Began his professional career at Eugene after being selected by the Reds in the eighth round of the June draft...he stole 10 bases in just 33 games.

1981 – Batted a lofty .322 in 62 games with 11 home runs in his second professional campaign...led the league in runs scored (67) and stolen bases (40).

1982 – Spent entire season at Class-A Cedar Rapids...swiped 53 bases in 55 attempts and scored 80 runs in 111 games.

1983 – Split time between Class-AA Waterbury and Triple-A Indianapolis...hit seven homers, scored 18 runs and had 19 RBIs in just 19 games at Indy.

1984 – Started the year at AA Wichita but was promoted to Cincinnati and made his big-league debut 5/19...was the Reds' everyday center fielder until suffering an injury that required offseason surgery to remove bone chips from his right knee...hit five home runs in four games, becoming the first Reds player to homer in four straight games since George Foster in 1978.

1985 – Made the major league roster out of spring training but was optioned to AAA Denver on 6/4...batted .406 (13-for-32) after being recalled to Cincinnati in September...was successful in 84.2% of his stolen base attempts (16-for-19).

1986 – Spent his first full season in the majors...did not become a full-time starter until 6/15, but still finished second in the N.L. in stolen bases (80) and third in runs scored (97)...joined Rickey Henderson as the only players in major league history to hit more than 20 homers and steal 80 bases in a season...earned National League Player of the Month honors for July (.381, 6 HR, 16 RBIs, 23 R)...belted three home runs on 9/10 at SF.

1987 – Captured his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award, leading N.L. outfielders in total chances (394)...also named to the Silver Slugger team and The Sporting News' All-Star team...honored as Reds' team MVP...got off to a torrid start, earning N.L. Player of the Month honors in both April and May...became just the seventh player in history to join the "30-30 club"...accomplished the feat on 8/2, the earliest date ever, with his 30th homer...stole 50 bases in 56 attempts...set a National League record with three grand slams in one month (5/1, 5/3 and 5/30)...collected his second career three-homer game and drove in a career-best six runs on 5/3 at PHI.

1988 – Finished among the N.L.'s top 10 in six offensive categories...named N.L. Player of the Month for August, batting .323 with six homers and 24 RBIs...led the league with a club-record 21 game-winning RBIs, just three shy of the major league mark held by Keith Hernandez...also paced the N.L. with an RBI ratio of one every 5.1 AB and was second in HR ratio (1:18.2)...stole 33 consecutive bases without being caught 4/12-9/5...won his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove.

1989 – The Reds' Most Valuable Player ranked third in the National League in homers (34) and fourth with a career-high 101 RBIs...named N.L. Player of the Week 5/29-6/4 (.545, 10 RBIs)...elected as the starting N.L. center fielder in the All-Star Game...won his third Rawlings Gold Glove in as many years and was named to his second Silver Slugger team...hit for the cycle with six RBIs on 6/2 vs. SD.

1990 – Led the club in RBIs (86) for the fourth straight season...went on the disabled list 4/25-5/19 with a sprained right knee...named National League Player of the Week for 6/18-24...belted fifth career grand slam on 7/16 vs. MON...hit more than 20 homers and stole at least 20 bases for the fifth consecutive year...led the Reds to their first World Series since 1976...became 22nd player ever to homer in his first W.S. at-bat as he went deep off the A's Dave Stewart in the first inning of Game 1...suffered lacerated kidney in Game 4 attempting to make a diving catch in left field and was hospitalized for 11 days...five RBIs in the four-game sweep of Oakland tied for the team lead...underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on 11/19.

1991 – Appeared in only 89 games due to injury...made 78 starts, 74 in center field...made first of two trips to the disabled list on 6/12 with a strained right quad...went down again on 7/31 due to exhaustion...played just 18 games after being activated on 8/26.

1992 – Injuries marred his first season with Dodgers...missed three games in April due to a slightly herniated disk in his neck...disabled from 5/23-6/19 with a sprained left shoulder...stole three bases on 6/30 vs. SD, his first three-steal game since 4/18/88...was struck by a pitch and suffered a fractured left wrist on 8/1 and was not reactivated until 8/25...had surgery on 9/17 to repair his shoulder and wrist...swiped 19 bases in 20 attempts overall.

1993 – Was 33-for-38 in stolen base attempts for the Dodgers...hammered his sixth career grand slam on 5/18 off the Reds' John Smiley...was acquired at the trading deadline by Detroit...in his first game for the Tigers, 9/3 vs. CWS, ripped a home run and a double...hit 200th career home run off Cleveland's Jose Mesa on 9/18.

1994 – Suffered through an injury-plagued season, appearing in just 37 games for Detroit.

1995 – Did not play...retired after the 1994 season due to a herniated disk in his neck.

1996 – Came out of retirement and posted a strong campaign for the Reds...finished second on the team in homers (26) and RBIs (83) and was third in runs (81) and stolen bases (23)...was Cincinnati's Opening Day left fielder...batted .370 (20-for-54) with eight home runs and 25 RBIs in May and hit .301 (28-for-93) with six homers and 17 RBIs in August...had four homers and 16 RBIs in a five-game span, 5/4-10...collected his seventh career grand slam on 5/4 at SF and his eighth the next day...had a pair of two-homer games on the year: 5/24 at COL and 7/22 at PHI [1]...placed on the disabled list on 5/25 with bruised rib muscles and was reactivated 6/10...on 6/19 at HOU, Eric picked up his 1000th career hit, a single off Mike Hampton...compiled a season-best 10-game hitting streak, 8/3-16 (.472; 17-for-36)...committed his first error of the season on 8/20 at ATL, snapping a string of 248 total chances without a miscue, dating back to 5/1/94...batted .327 (35-for-

107) with runners in scoring position and .400 (4-for-10) with the bases loaded...named N.L. Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

1997 – Started the year by belting seven home runs in his first 21 games for Baltimore, including his ninth career grand slam on 4/23...drove in six runs in that contest, the third six-RBI game of his career...hit safely in 14-of-15 games from 4/22-5/13 (.474; 27-for-57)...went 4-for-5 and homered twice off Steve Avery on 4/27 vs. BOS, his 13th career multi-homer game...went 4-for-4 and raised his average to a league-leading .388 on 5/6 vs. ANA...left the game on 5/24 at CLE with severe stomach cramps and returned from New York to Baltimore on 5/27 to be examined...on 6/9 the Orioles announced that Eric would undergo an exploratory surgery, performed by Dr. Keith Lillemoe on 6/13 at Johns Hopkins Hospital...at a press conference on 6/17, Lillemoe announced that Davis had a malignant mass and 1/3 of his colon removed during the surgery...Eric announced on 7/11 that he would begin chemotherapy treatments at UCLA Medical Center on 7/16...returned to Baltimore on 8/22 to begin working out with the team...activated by the Orioles on 9/15 and started the first game of a day/night doubleheader vs. CLE, going 0-for-3...one day after receiving a chemotherapy treatment, he went 4-for-5 with a homer on 9/27 at MIL...finished the season with a 9-for-19 streak (.474) with three runs, a homer and four RBIs...was 6-for-6 in stolen base attempts for the season...on 10/13 at CLE in Game 5 of the ALCS, he hit a pinch-homer off Paul Assenmacher...following the season, Eric received a number of awards celebrating his fight against cancer: The True Value Roberto Clemente Award, the Jack Dunn Award at the annual Tops in Sports banquet, the Hutch Award from the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, the Tony Conigliaro Award from the Boston BBWAA, the "You Gotta Have Heart" Award from the New York BBWAA, the Arete Award and the Bob Chandler Courage Award.

1990 - Equaled his major league high with 17 homers while driving in 66 runs...combined with Ryne Sandberg to hit 57 homers, tying for the most ever for a big-league shortstop-second baseman duo...the other middle-infield combo to reach the 57-homer mark was Boston's Vern Stephens (39) and Bobby Doerr (18) in 1949 and Stephens (30) and Doerr (27) in 1950...went to the All-Star Game for the second time and made his first All-Star appearance in Wrigley Field, going 0-for-2...hit a grand slam off Don Carman (PHI) on 6/8...had three triples on 7/28 at MON, tying the modern major league record...had the third two-homer game of his career 8/17 vs. ATL...was a member of the M.L. All-Star team that toured Japan after the season.

1991 - Finished tied for third in the NL in sacrifice flies (11) and tied for ninth in triples (7)...had a 14-game hitting streak 8/14 to 8/28 (26-for-49, .531)...led league shortstops in putouts with 261.

1992 - Played in only 18 games due to a herniated disc in his lower back...injured his back during the off-season, necessitating a hospital stay in January...hit safely in 16 of his 18 games, including a 12-game stretch 4/19 to 5/3, in which he batted .347 (17-for-49)...the hitting streak was snapped 5/4 in his final game of the season...on 5/6, a myelogram and a CT Scan were performed, revealing the herniated disc...the disc was removed 5/13 by Dr. Michael Schafer, the Cubs' orthopedic surgeon.

1993 - Played just seven games and missed most of the campaign due to continued back rehabilitation...was activated from the disabled list on 9/1 and made his first M.L. appearance in almost two years the next night against NY, grounding out as a pinch-hitter...on 9/4 vs. NY, he had an eighth-inning, game-tying RBI double and scored the eventual winning run...started at shortstop on 9/10 at NY and went 2-for-3...it was his first start since 5/4/92 vs. ATL.

1994 - Appeared in 88 games after missing almost two full seasons due to back surgery...led off three games with homers, 6/19 at SF (off Salomon Torres), 6/29 at HOU (off Pete Harnisch) and 7/26 at PIT (off Zane Smith)...in the 6/19 contest, he later added a second homer...it was his fourth career two-homer game...played in his 1,000th big-league game 7/17 at CIN.

1995 - Posted one of his best major league seasons, batting .296 with 14 homers and 69 RBIs...nearly became the first Cubs shortstop to bat .300 since Ernie Banks (.304) in 1959...recorded his 1,000th career hit 6/4 off Florida's Mark Gardner...from 6/22 to 8/6, a span of 38 games, he batted .382 (55-for-144) with 16 doubles, five homers and 21 RBIs...served a two-game NL-imposed suspension 6/20 to 6/21 stemming from an incident with Colorado's Jason Bates on 6/11...charged the mound after getting hit by a Sergio Valdez pitch 8/13 at SF and was on the NL's suspended list 9/8 to 9/11.

1996 - Spent the entire season with the Giants, appearing in 82 games and batting .300 with five homers and 25 RBIs...in his Giants debut Opening Day (4/1) against ATL, he went 2-for-4 with a two-run homer off the Braves' Greg Maddux...opened the season with a 12-game hitting streak, going 16-for-38 over the stretch (.421)...on 4/22 against HOU, he committed four errors and participated in five double plays (the major league record for shortstops in both categories is five)...was on the disabled list 4/24 to 5/13 with a strained left groin...hit his 100th career home run 6/15 off Houston's Donne Wall...his season came to an end 8/4 when he collided with Houston's Ricky Gutierrez at second base...suffered a concussion, two fractures of the left eye orbit and a fractured left cheekbone...underwent surgery (Dr. Joann Stenger) on 8/9 in which three mini-plates were inserted into the eye orbit.

1997 - Began the season with Chicago after signing back with the Cubs in the off-season following a one-year, injury-shortened hiatus in SF...enjoyed one of his finest seasons in the majors, batting a combined .300 (147-for-490) with 22 doubles, five triples, 14 homers and 57 RBIs between CHI and PIT...his 147 hits and 32 steals (40 attempts) were career-bests...he hit .275 (33-for-120) with runners in scoring position, including 10 homers and 46 RBIs...batted .433 (13-for-30) against the AL Central...his ratio of one walk every 63.9 plate appearances was the lowest in the majors...he walked just once after 6/28 (72 games, 256 plate appearances), on 8/12 at LA...passed Ernie Banks on 4/5 at ATL, his 1,126th game at shortstop for the Cubs, moving into third place in club history for appearances by a shortstop (Don Kessinger - 1,618, Joe Tinker - 1,500)...ended his Cub tenure with 1,228 games at shortstop...on the year with the Pirates and Cubs, he made 126 appearances (123 starts) at short and seven (5 starts) in left field...made his first career appearance in left field on 8/24 vs. MON, ending a stretch of 1,278 consecutive starts at short...hit his 100th homer as a Cub on 5/30 vs. CIN off Pete Schourek, becoming the 16th player and second shortstop (Ernie Banks - 277) in Cubs history to accomplish the feat...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/9 with a strained left hamstring, his sixth career stint on the DL...collected his 500th RBI with a three-run homer off Darryl Kile and HOU on 7/15...was traded to PIT for a player to be named later just hours before the trading deadline on 8/31...equaled his career-high by hitting in 14 straight games from 8/28 to 9/14 (.407, 24-for-59)...the last 10 games of the streak came as a member of the Pirates...in his PIT debut on 9/2 vs. CLE he went 2-for-4 with a pair of home runs and four RBIs in the 6-4 PIT win...it was his fifth career two-homer game (both HRs off Jaret Wright).

1998 - Participated in his 14th major league campaign and his first in a reserve role...played 62 games for Cleveland before a 7/24 trade to San Francisco, where he played in 36 contests...his overall totals included 98 games, a .222 batting average, six home runs and 20 RBIs...played second base for the first time in his career, making 25 appearances at that position...made four starts in center field, also a career first...posted nine multihit games and six multi-RBI contests...hit a pair of pinch-homers, 7/2 at MIL and 8/7 vs. NY.

MISC: Graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn, NY, in 1982, where he was a three-time baseball all-star and two-time MVP...during his senior season, he stole 37 bases in 37 tries and batted .790...he and his wife, Tracie, have four children, including three girls - Whitnie, Jasmine and I'sha - and one boy, Shawon Jr...resides in Fremont, Calif.

1999 SEASON:

- Split season between Carolina (AA) and Colorado Springs (AAA) before drawing a late-season call-up from the Rockies.
- Posted a winning record (4-3, 4.04 ERA) in 11 games (10 starts) for Carolina while equaling his combined win total (four) for 1997-98.
- Struck out 10 in a 4-0 win vs. West Tenn Diamond Jaxx on 4/17; allowed just three hits in his seven scoreless innings.
- Worked eight strong innings in a 4-1 win over Knoxville after returning from a six-game league suspension.
- Was promoted to Triple-A Colorado Springs on 6/12 and continued winning trend with a 7-6 mark and a 3.74 ERA in 15 starts.
- Twirled a four-hit, 8-0 shutout against Edmonton on 8/11. He allowed just one walk and fanned a season-high 10 and set down 11 straight between the fourth and the seventh innings, including seven via strikeout.
- Contract was purchased by the Rockies on 9/1. Made his ML debut in a start vs. PIT that day at Coors Field; he went six innings, allowing five runs on six hits and struck out five.
- Made two relief appearances before returning to the starting rotation to finish the year.
- Recorded his first major league win with a two inning relief effort on 9/17 vs. LA.
- Each of his final two starts were losses to the Diamondbacks, one in Phoenix and one in Denver.
- Took part in Arizona Fall League, where he was 1-3, 6.40 ERA in eight games (six starts) for the Grand Canyon Rafters.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1994 – Selected by the Colorado Rockies in the sixth round of the June free-agent draft...made 12 starts for Chandler, fanning 63 in 55.2 innings pitched while posting a 2.10 ERA.

1995 – Tied for the Rockies' organization lead in starts (28) in just his second season of pro ball, ranking second in the South Atlantic League...twirled a two-hitter on 7/16 at Charleston (WV), but gave up a ninth-inning run which cost him in 1-0 defeat....worked nine shutout innings on 8/28 at Hagerstown, only to get a no-decision, as Asheville eventually won the game, 1-0, in 11 innings.

1996 – Continued climb through the Colorado system as he spent the entire season at Salem (A), going 5-7 with a 4.24 ERA in 21 games (all starts)...blanked Winston-Salem for 7.0 innings on 4/26, allowing only two hits and three walks while striking out a season-high eight...was 4-2 with a 3.32 ERA before taking a line drive off his nose in the third inning of 5/31 start vs. Frederick...injury required surgery and sidelined him for six weeks...returned on 7/13 and had two no-decisions and a pair of losses before etching his name in the organizational record book on 8/4 when he fired a no-hitter vs. Kinston in 4-1 win...it was the first nine-inning no-hitter in the Carolina League since 1992...allowed only two homers in his 110.1 innings of work, and only one homer in his first 19 starts, a span of 101.0 innings.

1997 – Started the year at New Haven (AA)...was 0-6 with a 7.82 ERA after his first 10 starts and was sent back to Salem (A) in early June....completed the year at Salem where he was 1-4 in 15 starting assignments...combined record for the year was 1-10 with a 6.57 ERA....had a seven inning shutout stint vs. Reading on 5/20...lone win of the year came in his second start with Salem on 6/12 vs. Kinston...worked six or more innings in seven of his 15 starts for Salem and allowed three or fewer earned runs in eight starts...completed two games at Salem to finish fifth in the league.

1998 – Pitched the entire year at Class-AA New Haven, appearing in 28 games while starting 23...was 3-12 with a 5.44 ERA...his 28 games pitched and 12 losses represented career highs...allowed five or more runs in five consecutive starts, 5/11-6/1, to drop to 0-3 in his first 10 starts...snapped a personal five-game losing streak and won his first game in 13 starts in a 5-4 win at Reading on 6/23...it was his first Eastern League win in 23 starts dating back to 1997...was 0-4 in seven games, 7/18-8/12...after being moved to the bullpen, worked two scoreless innings against Akron on 8/20 and snapped a five-game losing streak in a 9-5 win.

MISC: Lettered in baseball, basketball and football at Columbus (Miss.) High School...during his prep baseball career, Luther recorded games of 18 and 17 strikeouts during the district championships in 1994...pitched for the Maui Stingrays during the 1996 and 1997 off-seasons...was recently rated the eighth-best prospect in the Cardinals organization by Baseball America...he and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Alexis (5/6/93), and they make their home in Memphis, TN.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Toronto Blue Jays with pitcher Paul Spoljaric in a trade for pitcher Lance Painter, catcher Alberto Castillo and minor league pitcher Matt Dewitt, November 11, 1999.

M.L. SERVICE: 8.024

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

1999 SEASON:

- Went 11-12 and posted his seventh consecutive season with a double-digit victory total; it was his first losing campaign since 1995 (10-14).
- Ended the year ranked fourth in Blue Jays franchise history in wins (105), starts (222) and strikeouts (995); ranks 10th in games pitched (252).
- Went 6-6 away from Toronto, despite notching the second-best road ERA (3.13) in the American League. Was 5-6 with a 6.83 ERA at SkyDome.
- 35 of his 106 earned runs (33%) were scored in the first inning. First-inning opponents batted .385 (60-for-156) against him with 15 home runs.
- His ERA after the All-Star break was 3.79, nearly two points lower than his 5.75 mark from the season's first half.
- Made his second career Opening Day start on 4/6 at MIN and took the loss. Did not lose again until 5/23.
- Went 4-0 with a 2.78 ERA in a five-start span from 4/27 to 5/18. Then lost four straight starts from 5/23 to 6/8.
- Collected his first major league base hit in a loss at NYM on 6/8.
- Captured his 100th career win on 7/4 with a 6-3 victory vs. TB. Became just the fourth pitcher in Blue Jays history to post 100 wins, after Dave Stieb (174), Jim Clancy (128) and Jimmy Key (116).
- Notched a season-high nine strikeouts vs. DET on 8/1.
- Pitched his only complete game of the year on 8/12 at MIN, losing 3-0 in a pitching dual with rookie Joe Mays; Pat allowed just six hits and one walk in eight innings, but Mays limited the Jays to only four safeties.
- Won three consecutive starts from 8/24 to 9/4 to put his record back at the .500 mark (10-10).
- Six of his last eight starts were "quality" starts, in which he allowed three or fewer ER in six or more IP.

- Claimed on outright assignment by the Braves on 4/16; was on the disabled list with Atlanta from 5/15 to 6/28.
- Was released by Atlanta on 7/28 and signed by Toronto on 8/5.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1988 – Went 7-2 at South Bend in his first season of pro ball.

1989 – Recorded a career high 26 saves at Class-A Sarasota and Class-AA Birmingham ...played in the Florida State League All-Star Game...opponents hit just .144 against him (22-144) at Sarasota.

1990 – Played entire season for Birmingham and went 6-6 with a 4.58 ERA in 42 games (10 starts).

1991 – Led Birmingham with 13 saves.

1992 – Went 8-2 with a 3.06 ERA at Double-A Birmingham and Triple-A Vancouver...ranked second on the Vancouver club with 39 appearances.

1993 – Was claimed off waivers by Houston from Detroit on 7/29...recorded 18 strikeouts in 19.0 innings pitched at Triple-A Tucson.

1994 – Became just the fifth player in Major League history to begin the year in the minor leagues and be selected to play in the All-Star Game (Don Newcombe in 1948, Don Schwall in 1961, Bill Dawley in 1983 and Alvin Davis in 1984)...finished second to Raul Mondesi (LA) in the N.L. Rookie of the Year Award voting...began the season at Triple-A Tucson but was recalled on 4/21...made his big-league debut on 4/23 at STL...earned his first career save on 5/5 at CIN...in his first 19 appearances (covering 19 innings) allowed just one run and converted eight save opportunities...converted 16 of 18 save opportunities for the year...did not surrender a home run to a right handed batter.

1995 – Began the season with nine consecutive scoreless outings (10 innings pitched)...went 2-2 for Houston but had season-ending surgery on 7/18 to remove his top right rib and surrounding muscle, a condition doctors believed was causing a vein in his right arm to constrict...surgery was performed by Dr. David Roos...was originally placed on the DL on 6/23.

1996 – Returned to the Majors after nearly a year off...went to spring training with the Astros but on 3/14 strained the intercoastal muscles in his left side while throwing off the mound...an MRI on 3/21 revealed a torn scalene muscle in his neck...an X-Ray on 3/31 showed a non-displaced fracture of the first rib on his left side, which was thought to be the cause of the pain from the scalene muscle tear...was placed on the 60 day disabled list on 4/1...made eight rehabilitation appearances before being reinstated from the DL on 7/15...pitched at FLA that night, his first big league appearances since 6/22/95...pitched two more games for the Astros before being optioned to Tucson on 7/26...was recalled again on 8/23 and allowed just one earned run in 12 appearances (0.69 ERA, 13 IP) the rest of the season.

1997 – Made 40 appearances, at that time the second highest total of his career...opened the season with the Astros and produced four saves in eight games, including saves in three straight from 4/10 to 4/28...was optioned to Triple-A New Orleans on 6/3, recalled again on 6/22, and returned to New Orleans on 7/14 before his final recall on 8/15...on 9/15 vs. SD threw 3.0 innings in the longest outing of his career (0R, 3K).

1998 – Combined to go 5-6, 3.09 ERA in 58 relief appearances overall...established career highs with 58 appearances, five wins, 64 innings pitched and 68 strikeouts...after his 7/3 trade from the Mets to the Reds, N.L. batters hit only .206 off him, including .160 by lefthanders and .235 by righthanders...did not allow an earned run in his first 18 games (24.2 IP) with CIN...posted a 0.59 ERA in his first 24 appearances for the Reds...on 9/6 at STL, allowed two home runs (Lankford and Tatis, back-to-back) for the only time all season...compiled a career-high three-game winning streak from 8/1 to 8/25, spanning nine appearances...while with the Mets had a season-high four-game losing streak from 4/28 to 6/14...on 9/13 vs. ARI pitched 2.0 innings and recorded all six outs via strikeout, a career high.

MISC: Played football and baseball at Plant (Fla.) High School, the same school attended by Wade Boggs...following his senior season was voted the No. One Punter in Florida in The Last Fifty Years...attended Florida Southern College (Lakeland), leading them to the 1988 NCAA Division II College World Series...his father, Joe, in 1953 lost the New York State High School long jump finals by 1/8 of an inch to football legend Jim Brown...he and wife Tracy have twin daughters, Haven Susanne (1/20/97) and Sarah Gray (1/20/97), name is pronounced HOO-dek.

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the third round of the June 1987 free-agent draft.

M.L. SERVICE: 9.044

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002 with a club option for 2003.

1999 SEASON:

- Moved from center field to left field for the first time in his career after undergoing offseason surgery on his left knee.
- Posted a .306 batting average, with 15 home runs and 63 RBIs, despite opening the season on the disabled list and being slowed much of the year by the surgery.
- Played in 122 games — his lowest total since 1994 (109). In only 106 games played in the field, garnered six outfield assists — the third highest total on the club.
- Failed to post a 20-20 (HRs and stolen bases) season for the first time since 1995.
- Ended the season in a tie with Jim Bottomley for fourth place on the club's all-time home run list (181). Now ranks 10th in Cardinals history in RBIs (703), 10th in doubles (291), fifth in stolen bases (239) and sixth in walks (637).
- Hit .320 with 12 home runs in 60 games before the All-Star break. His batting average after the break dipped to .292 (in 62 games), despite batting .340 in August and .306 in September; batted just .213 in July.
- Posted three multi-homer games, 36 multi-hit games and 14 multi-RBI games.

- His 10 game-winning RBIs ranked second on the club only to Mark McGwire's 12. Finished third on the squad with 23 two-out RBIs.
- Batted .344 (66-for-192) with runners on base and was 3-for-10 with bases loaded.
- Had his best success vs. FLA (.522), SD (.500), MIL (.467) and LA (.407). Five of his 15 home runs came vs. the Dodgers.
- Batted .320 at night and .265 in daylight.
- Was successful in 14 of his 18 stolen base attempts, including 2-of-3 at third base.
- Hit safely in 21 of 28 games in August and in 11 of 18 in September.
- His knee surgery limited him to just two spring contests (both as a DH).
- Missed the first 16 games of the season before coming off the DL on 4/24 and making his '99 debut that night at LA.
- Made his first start 4/27 vs. COL and went 2-for-3 with a home run.
- Notched a 10-game hitting streak 5/10 to 5/23.
- Crushed two home runs 5/16 vs LA. His ninth-inning, two-run shot off Jeff Shaw was the game-winner in a 5-4 Cards win. Also posted a two-HR game 5/21 at LA.
- Clubbed a pair of homers at CHI on 5/31, his third multi-homer contest in a 12-game stretch.
- Compiled a 12-game hitting streak (6/5 to 6/17) in which he batted .392 (20-for-54).
- Had three consecutive three-hit games 6/9 to 6/12. Went 9-for-17 (.529) with eight RBIs in those three contests (one at KC, two vs. DET). Collected a season-high four RBIs vs. DET on 6/12.
- Missed nine games in early July with tightness in his rib-cage.
- Hit his last home run of the season on 8/18 vs. PHI.
- Went 3 for 4 with two doubles and four RBIs on 9/1 vs. FLA.
- Equaled a career high when he drew four walks at MIL on 9/5. Scored three runs and reached base all six plate appearances by collecting base hits in his two official at-bats, as the Cardinals won 13-9.

1996 – Played at Class-A St. Petersburg and batted .271 with 52 RBIs in 114 games...tied for seventh in the Cardinals farm system with 25 doubles...swatted three doubles and drove in two runs in a 4-3 win at Sarasota on 5/29...went 3-for-5 with five RBIs vs. Dunedin on 7/22...went 4-for-4 and drove in both runs in a 2-1 win vs. Dunedin on 8/2.

1997 – Moved up to Class-AA Arkansas...batted .240 with five homers and 30 RBIs...collected two hits and drove in a pair of runs in a win vs. Wichita on 7/3.

1998 – Spent the entire season at Class-AAA Memphis and batted over .300 (.318) for the first time in his career...was limited to just 58 games after two stints on the disabled list (4/7 to 4/17 and 5/16 to 5/29)...batted .423 (33-for-78) in 27 games through the end of June, but batted just .200 (11-for-55) in July and .240 (6-for-25) in August...played 14 games as designated hitter and hit .382 (21-for-55) in that role...caught in 32 games and batted .300 (30-for-100) with five homers and 11 RBIs...put together two nine-game hitting streaks...boasted 16 multihit games, including four three-hit efforts.

MISC: Graduated from Esperanza High School in Anaheim, Calif., in 1994...captained the baseball and football squads...was named all-county in baseball...attended Pepperdine University, where he played baseball...also played baseball and football at the University of Utah...resides in Anaheim Hills, Calif., with his wife, Elizabeth...was signed by Cardinals scout Chuck Fick.

Age: 27
Born: 10/19/72 at Bristol, Pennsylvania

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the 28th round of the June 1992 free-agent draft.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Completed an impressive rookie campaign in which he batted .275 with nine home runs and 44 RBIs in 152 games.
- Received Cardinals Rookie of the Year honors from Hamilton Jewelers and finished sixth in National League Rookie of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.
- Posted a Cardinals rookie-record 25-game hitting streak 6/8 to 7/4. He batted .318 (35-for-110) in the streak, which was the third-longest in the N.L. in 1999 and the fifth-longest rookie streak in major league history. It was the longest by a Redbird since 1971, when Lou Brock hit in 26 straight. McEwing's streak was snapped with an 0-for-4 game vs. Randy Johnson on 7/5.
- Ranked in the top five among N.L. rookies in batting average (5th), runs (T4th - 65), hits (3rd - 141), doubles (T3rd - 28), triples (T3rd - 4), on-base percentage (4th - .333), slugging percentage (5th - .398), multi-hit games (2nd - 40) and total bases (4th - 204).
- Grounded into only three double plays in 513 at-bats (171.0 ABs per GIDP) and ranked as the third-toughest player in the N.L. to double up.
- His versatility allowed him to play every position except pitcher and catcher. Made starts at five different positions, including second base (85), center field (18), left field (16), right field (8) and first base (1).
- Paced the club with 16 infield hits and ranked second with four bunt hits. His nine sacrifice hits also led the club.
- Ranked third on the team with 40 multi-hit games.
- Opened the season by posting a .386 batting average in the month of April.
- Batted .305 with four home runs and 30 RBIs before the All-Star break and .223 with five homers and 14 RBIs after the break.
- Had his best success against HOU and FLA. Batted .372 (16-for-43) in 11 games vs. the Astros and .357 (5-for-14) in seven games vs. the Marlins.
- Batted .333 (3-for-9) as a pinch hitter.
- Scored three runs and recorded his first career three-hit game 4/14 at PIT.
- Notched back-to-back three-hit games at ATL on 5/3 and 5/4, going 3-for-4 with a run scored in each contest.
- His longest hitless spell was four games (covering three starts), 5/5 to 5/9.
- Popped his first career home run on 5/15 vs. LA (off Mike Maddux).
- Went 3-for-4 with a homer and two RBIs in a 6-4 win at COL on 7/23.
- His batting average dipped below .300 for the first time on 7/30, with an 0-for-5 game vs. COL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 - Selected by the Cardinals in the 28th round of the June 1992 free-agent draft...played for Chandler in the rookie Arizona League and was named to the All-Star team after leading the league in runs scored (55), finishing second in at-bats (211), games (55) and hits (71), and ranking third in batting average (.336) and stolen bases (23)...led all AFL outfielders with a .991 fielding average and also led the league with 11 outfield assists...hit safely in 19 of his first 20 games and had 21 multihit games...played for the Cardinals' Winter Instructional League club.

1993 - Played at Class-A Savannah and led all Cardinals' farmhands with 94 runs scored and 89 walks...was second in the organization with 35 doubles and ranked seventh with 22 stolen bases...batted .340 in 14 games against Capital City.

1994 - Split his third pro season between Class-A Madison (90 games) and St. Petersburg (50 games)...batted .324 at Madison and his overall minor league average of .297 was fifth in the Redbirds' system...was named to the Midwest League All-Star team...hit safely in 40 of his 44 games...earned a promotion to St. Petersburg on 7/13...also played for the Cardinals' Winter Instructional League club.

1995 - Opened the season at St. Petersburg and was converted to second base, where he played 72 games...was promoted to Class-AA Arkansas in July and moved back to the outfield...batted .393 with two homers in nine games vs. Tulsa.

1996 - Struggled at the plate in his first full season at Arkansas, but led Texas League outfielders with a .993 fielding percentage.

1997 - In his second full year at Double-A, improved his batting average 51 points (from .208 to .259) and more than doubled his RBI total (from 14 to 35).

1998 - Played in 10 games with the Cardinals in September after being promoted from Triple-A Memphis on 9/1...made his big-league debut 9/2 at FLA and went 0-for-1...made his first start 9/12 at HOU...led off the game with his first big-league hit off Randy Johnson...collected his first big-league RBI on a squeeze bunt 9/16 vs. PIT...played second base and all three outfield positions during his Redbirds stint...posted an outstanding minor league campaign in which he totaled 51 doubles between Double-A Arkansas (21) and Memphis (30), tying for the most in the minor leagues since 1985...ranked second (to Peoria's Pablo Ozuna) among all minor leaguers with 189 hits...ranked sixth among all minor leaguers in total bases (307) and extra-base hits...ranked 12th in batting (.342)...among Cardinals' farmhands, led the organization in doubles, tied for the lead in triples (11), ranked second in hits and slugging average (.551), third in batting and runs (97), and tied for third in RBIs (92)...was the Cardinals' Minor League Player of the Month in April, when he batted .341 with four homers and 18 RBIs at Arkansas, and in June, when he batted .350 with four homers and 24 RBIs at Arkansas and Memphis...homered and drove in five runs for Arkansas against Jackson on 4/14...homered in back-to-back games vs. Tulsa on 6/1 and 6/2...was promoted to Memphis on 6/7...departed the Texas League as the circuit's leading hitter...at the league's All-Star recess, his batting (.354) and slugging (.605) averages still ranked third in the loop...hit a grand slam in a 6-5 loss to Oklahoma two days after joining Memphis.

MISC: Graduated in 1990 from Bishop Egan High School (Fairless Hills, Pa.), where he played baseball and basketball...earned first team all-state honors in baseball as a senior...attended County College of Morris (Randolph, N.J.), where he played baseball and received all-conference, all-region and second team All-America honors...resides in Yardley, Pa....he and his wife, Julia, were married this past offseason (11/6/99)...was signed by Cardinals' scout Joe Rigoli.

MARK McGWIRE

25 MARK DAVID McGWIRE
First Baseman

Ht: 6-5 Bats: Right
Wt: 250 Throws: Right

Age: 36 (Turns 37 on October 1)
Born: 10-1-63 at Pomona, California

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Oakland Athletics for pitchers T.J. Mathews, Eric Ludwick and Blake Stein, July 31, 1997.

M.L. SERVICE: 13.047

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

1999 SEASON:

- Hit 65 home runs to lead all major leaguers for the fourth straight season. Finished two homers in front of Chicago's Sammy Sosa, the only other major leaguer to reach 50 homers, and became the first player since Dale Murphy (in 1984 and '85) to lead the N.L. in home runs for two consecutive seasons.
- Homered in six of his last seven games to conclude the season with 522 career home runs, 10th on baseball's all-time list.
- Led the National League with 147 RBIs, matching a career high established in 1998. Became the first Cardinal to top the league in RBIs since Joe Torre drove in an N.L.-high 137 runs in 1971.
- Hit his 60th homer of the season on 9/26 at CIN, joining Sosa as the only other player to hit 60 or more home runs in consecutive seasons. The home run was McGwire's 400th of the 1990s, making him only the third player to hit as many as 400 in one decade, after Babe Ruth (467 in the 1920s) and Jimmie Foxx (415 in the 1930s). Finished the decade with 405.
- With a home run in the first game of an 8/22 DH at NY, extended his record for consecutive 50-homer seasons to four. Also joined Ruth as the only other player to hit 50 or more homers in four different seasons. Concluded the year with an average of 61 homers over the last four seasons, an all-time high.
- Set major league records for home runs over a two-season (135), three-season (193), four-season (245) and five-season (284) span.
- Joined the exclusive 500 career home run club on 8/5 vs. SD, clouting a pair of homers off Andy Ashby: No. 500 was a 451-foot solo blast to center field; No. 501 was a 479-foot solo drive — his longest of 1999 — to left-center. Became only the second player, after Harmon Killebrew, to have a multihomer game while reaching 500 homers.
- Reached 500 homers in the fewest at-bats, 5,487, in history. Also became the first player to hit his 400th and 500th career homers in back-to-back seasons.
- Hit his 494th career homer as a first baseman on 9/1 vs. FLA, breaking Lou Gehrig's all-time record for first-sackers. Finished the season with 507 career homers while in the lineup as a first baseman.
- Posted his 62nd career multihomer game (ninth of the season) on 9/19 vs. HOU, tying Hank Aaron for third on the all-time list.
- Became the first player in big-league history (min. 100 RBIs) to have more RBIs (147) than hits (145) in one season. (Seattle's Jay Buhner came close in 1995 with 121 RBIs and 126 hits.)
- Hit his 13th career grand slam on 9/17 vs. HOU. The blast was the first of three consecutive home runs the Cardinals hit during a nine-run fourth inning.
- Became the 15th player to hit at least 100 home runs in both the American and National leagues when he connected for a grand slam off Greg Maddux on 5/4 at ATL.
- Tripled on 8/2 vs. SD (off Trevor Hoffman), ending his record span of 4,618 at-bats without a triple, dating to 6/20/88.
- Clubbed a pair of three-run homers on 7/16 vs. CWS to equal a career high with six RBIs.
- Became just the third player (after Willie Stargell, twice, and Mike Piazza) to hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium with a 484-foot blast over the left-center field pavilion on 5/22.

ADDITIONAL 1999 MILESTONES & HIGHLIGHTS:

- Homered on Opening Day for the second straight season, connecting off the Brewers' David Weathers on 4/5.
- Hit his 55th career homer at Busch Stadium on 5/12 vs. PHI, tying George Hendrick for third on the all-time Busch Stadium home run list.
- Blasted a 427-foot homer into Big Mac Land on 5/27 off the Giants' Mark Gardner; it marked the second straight year he homered into Big Mac Land, both off Gardner.
- Scored his 1,000th career run with a solo homer off Russ Ortiz on 7/10 at SF.
- Hit his first career homer at Atlanta's Turner Field on 5/4, his first regular-season homer at Dodger Stadium on 5/22 and his first at Cincinnati's Cinergy Field on 7/22, increasing the number of ballparks he's homered in to 34.
- Voted the starting first baseman on the N.L. All-Star team for the second consecutive season, his 11th career All-Star selection and fifth in a row.
- Staged an eye-popping extravaganza during the Home Run Derby festivities before the All-Star Game; clubbed 13 first-round homers, eclipsing Cal Ripken's one-round record from 1991. McGwire's home runs traveled a combined 5,692 feet, including a 488-foot blast high over Fenway Park's Green Monster to conclude the first round.
- Averaged one home run every 6.3 at-bats (37 HR/232 ABs) following the All-Star break.
- Homered in four straight games, 7/30-8/2, a club high he shared with Craig Paquette.
- Set an N.L. record and tied a major league mark for most home runs (16) in July. Earned N.L. Player of the Month honors with a .295 average, 16 homers and 30 RBIs.
- Tied Sosa for the N.L. home run lead with his 61st homer on 9/27 at CIN. Took the lead on 9/29 vs. SD by homering in both games of a doubleheader (Nos. 62 and 63). It was McGwire's first time on top since 8/18, when he led 48 homers to 47.
- Blasted his final home run, No. 65, in a rain-shortened season finale on 10/3 vs. CHI — his first homer on a 3-0 count as a Cardinal.
- Increased his Busch Stadium career totals to 88 homers and 191 RBIs in 182 games (one homer every 6.9 at-bats).
- Finished second on the team in games played with 153. Leads the team over the last two seasons with 308 games.
- Despite another record-setting performance, finished fifth in N.L. Most Valuable Player voting and was left off the postseason All-Star and Silver Slugger teams.
- In an announcement at the World Series, was named to baseball's All-Century Team, joining Cal Ripken Jr., Roger Clemens and Ken Griffey Jr. as the only active players to receive such honors.
- Selected as St. Louis Baseball Man of the Year for second straight season by St. Louis BBWAA Chapter; was also named to Cardinals All Half-Century team that was selected by St. Louis BBWAA.
- On 11/18, he and the Cardinals agreed to exercise his mutually held option for the 2001 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1984 – Selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June amateur draft...played 16 games for Modesto, batting .200 in 55 plate appearances.

1985 – Spent the full year as Modesto's starting third baseman...showed exceptional power...batted .274 in 138 games, and slugged 50 extra-base hits in 489 at-bats (23 doubles, 3 triples and 24 homers)...also had 106 RBIs and 108 strikeouts...earned the California League's Rookie of the Year Award.

1986 – Started the year at Double-A Huntsville but moved up to Tacoma June 6th and then up to Oakland on August 20th...finished his minor league season with a .311 average, 148 hits, 23 home runs and 112 RBIs...picked up his first major league hit on August 24th vs. the Yankees Tommy John...belted his first homer the next day off Walt Terrell at Detroit...never really found his groove with Oakland, batting .189 with 10 hits and three homers in 53 at-bats...fielding was a problem at third as he made six errors and fielded .833.

1987 – Was the consensus American League Rookie of the Year...selected unanimously by the BBWAA, only the second rookie to earn that distinction (after Carlton Fisk in 1972)...his 49 homers led the league and tied for the major league high with the Cubs' Andre Dawson...homer total also set a new major league rookie record...set a new Oakland single-season standard, eclipsing Reggie Jackson's 47 hit in 1969...also topped the major leagues with a .618 slugging percentage, which was an A's record at the time...had at least 12 RBIs in each month of the season and 20 or more in four months...his RBI total was the third best in the AL...finished sixth in the AL MVP voting...had a five-homer spree in Detroit May 8-10th...in a three-game series at Cleveland June 26-28, hit five homers, knocked in seven runs and scored runs in nine consecutive at-bats...named to the AL All-Star team for the game in Oakland...had 33 homers with 68 RBIs at the break...tied major league rookie homer record of 38 August 11th at Seattle with a solo shot off the M's Mike Moore...set the new mark with his 39th homer in Anaheim August 14th, a two-run homer in the 6th inning off the Angels' Don Sutton.

1988 – Finished second on the club to Jose Canseco with 32 homers and 99 RBIs...homer total of 32 was third-best in the loop and RBI total was eighth best...back stiffness caused Mark to miss nine of the A's last 16 games and his chance at 100 RBIs for the second consecutive season...named as the AL's starter at first base in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...more than a third of his RBIs pulled the A's into a tie or put them ahead. 1988 POSTSEASON – Hit .333 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a homer and three RBIs...recorded one of his greatest career moments when he homered off Jay Howell in the ninth inning of Game 3 in the World Series...the blast gave the A's a 2-1 victory...it was Oakland's only win in the Series and Mark's only hit in 17 at-bats.

1989 – Led the A's and ranked third in the AL with 33 homers...finished second to Parker on the A's and tenth in the league with 95 RBI's...led the league with a homer every 14.8 at-bats and was second with an RBI every 5.2 at-bats...all this despite spending 15 days on the DL in early April with a herniated disc in his back...after returning missed just five games the remainder of the season. 1989 POSTSEASON – Hit safely in seven of the A's nine postseason games...overall hit .343 in the postseason with a homer and four RBIs...amazingly was the only A's regular not to homer in the Series vs. San Francisco.

1990 – Topped the A's in RBI's (108) and games played (156) and led the major leagues in walks with 110...was second on the A's to Rickey Henderson in runs scored with 86...post season numbers were not up to his standards...wound up with five hits...all singles...earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence at first base...made just 5 errors in 1,429 total chances for a .997 fielding percentage...selected by the fans for the third consecutive season as the AL's All-Star starting first baseman...finished 11th in American League MVP voting. 1990 POSTSEASON – Hit .154 in the ALCS vs. Boston with 2 RBI's...and .214 in the Series with no RBI's.

1991 – Had his consecutive streak of 30 or more homers end at four years...his .201 average was a career low by 30 points...was again among the top fielding first basemen in baseball...made just four errors in 1,297 chances for a .997 fielding percentage...22 homers was the third best total on the club and his 75 RBIs was fourth best...with 93 walks he finished second to Rickey Henderson on the A's and sixth in the league.

1992 – Led the major leagues by averaging one homer every 11.1 at-bats but a muscle strain in August forced him to miss 20 games and cost him a chance to win his second major league homer title...McGwire's 42 homers were second only to the Rangers' Juan Gonzalez who homered on the final day of the season to finish with 43...Mark did lead the AL with a .585 slugging percentage...finished fourth to teammate Eckersley in the AL MVP balloting and was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams...also named by UPI as the Comeback Player of the Year...finished the year with a .268 average, 67 points above his 1991 figure...led the A's with 104 RBIs as he also topped the club with 29 multi-RBI games...spring training was a good indication of what kind of year McGwire was set for as he led the major leagues in hitting with a .453 Cactus League average...June 10th in Milwaukee a big day in Mark's career as his 22nd home run of the 1992 season off the Brewer's Bosio was the 200th of his career...only four men in baseball history, Kiner, Ruth, Killebrew and Mathews have reached the 200 mark faster than Mark who hit his 200th in his 2,852nd at-bat...that homer also tied his total for 1991...reached the All-Star break with 28 homers and was named to the AL All-Star squad for the sixth consecutive year...it was the fifth straight year he was named a starter by the fans...in the All-Star home run hitting contest belted 12 homers to top everyone and lead the AL All-Stars to an easy win...with 38 homers on August 21st had a six-homer bulge over Gonzalez but strained a rib muscle on the right side of his rib cage that night at Camden Yards and went on the disabled list...when he came back 20 games later had lost the homer lead...with one swing at Chicago 9/21 reached the 40-homer and 100-RBI plateaus...second time he had reached the 40-homer mark and third time for 100 RBIs. 1992 POSTSEASON – In the playoffs vs. Toronto belted a two-run homer off Morris in his first at-bat but then finished the post season 2 for his last 19 with one RBI.

1993 – Appeared in just 27 games due to an injured left heel...made just two pinch-hitting appearances after 5/14...eventually underwent surgery in September to repair the damage...was off to a great start with 28 hits, including 15 extra-base hits, and 24 RBI in his first 25 games before the injury shut him down...originally injured the heel during the A's series in New York 5/3-4...played in another nine games before he went on the DL 5/14...missed the next 100 games before he was activated 9/3...after grounding out in a pinch-hitting role vs. Baltimore at the Coliseum on 9/3 had to miss the A's next 3 games as he served a suspension for his part in the 8/24 rhubarb at Milwaukee...his last 1993 appearance was as a pinch-hitter at Toronto 9/9...underwent surgery on the heel September 24th in Houston as Dr. Donald Baxter corrected a partial tear of fascia in his left heel and also shaved a small bone spur...his season total of nine homers was the second-best figure in major league history for a player with 100 or fewer at-bats...Ted Williams hit 13 in 91 at-bats for Boston in 1953.

1994 – Had his second consecutive injury-shortened season...after off season left heel surgery, came to spring camp healthy but the injuries arrived almost as soon as camp started and persisted through much of his season...a stiff back kept McGwire out of the first three weeks of spring games but not out of the A's opening day lineup for the seventh consecutive year...stress fracture of the left heel was his second significant injury of the year and it landed him on the disabled list from 4/30-6/18 (43 games)...belted one of the most dramatic homers of the year 7/10 at Baltimore off Lee Smith, a two-run shot with the A's down a run in the 9th inning...but just a little more than two weeks later, on 7/26 in Anaheim, he re-injured his left heel...was placed on the disabled list the next day, missed the remainder of the season and eventually underwent surgery for a second time on the heel...Dr. Donald Baxter, who performed the first surgery on McGwire's heel to "release" the medial part of the fascia 9/2493, performed the second surgery to "release" the lateral aspect of the fascia on 8/30...on the year McGwire wound up appearing in 47 games, making 37 starts at first base which tied him with Troy Neel for the most starts on the A's at the position.

1995 – Despite having the schedule shortened to 144 games and missing 33 games because of two separate stints on the disabled list, McGwire hit 39 home runs in just 317 at-bats...became one of just seven players in ML history to hit 30 homers with fewer than 400 at-bats and his 39 HRs are the most ever by a player with fewer than 392 at-bats (Hank Aaron, 40 HRs in 392 at-bats in 1973)...most of the power came against lefthanded pitching as he hit 14 HR off southpaws in just 79 at-bats (1 per 5.6 at-bats)...his average distance of 418 feet per homer was the best in the majors...also topped the A's with 90 RBIs...had more home runs than singles (35)...started the year 4-for-18 but then put together a career-high 18-game hitting streak (23 for 64, .359) from 5/3-21...had his first two-homer game of the season on 6/10 at Boston and followed that up by blasting three the next day to tie his career high (6/27/87 at Cleveland)...the five HR in consecutive games tied a major league record (18 times) which he already shared...he and Ralph Kiner are the only two players who have done it twice...had five multiple HR games for the season...belted his sixth career grand slam vs. California on 6/30 in the bottom of the ninth off Lee Smith to give the A's an 8-5 win...21 of his 39 HR and 31 of his 90 RBI either tied the game or put the A's ahead...was tied with Mo Vaughn for the major league lead with 24 HR and 59 RBI when he was hit in the helmet by a David Cone pitch on 7/8 vs. Toronto...was hit by a pitch 11 times for the season which tied for 4th in the league...was named to his seventh All-Star Game but did not play because of the injury...missed five games following the Cone beaning and returned for three games before suffering a deep bruise in his left foot on 7/17 which landed him on the DL the next day...missed 12 games, was activated 8/2, played in three games, and then went back on the DL with a sore lower back...missed another 21 games before returning 8/26...finished the season by hitting 11 home runs in his last 18 games...included in that span was the 269th of his career on 9/14 vs. Kansas City (Gubicza) which broke Reggie Jackson's Oakland career record...stole second base as a part of a double steal at California on 9/30, his first steal since 8/6/91.

1996 – Hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs, becoming the 14th player (21 times) in major league history to hit 50 home runs...the 52 homers tied for 11th most in major league history, were the most in the majors since Foster hit 52 in 1977 and the most in the A.L. since Maris (61) and Mantle (54) in 1961...is the only player to hit 50 HR and play in fewer than 140 games...did it at a major league record rate of one home run every 8.13 at-bats, matching his figure from 1995...in addition to leading the majors in home runs, he also ranked first in slugging percentage (.730) and on-base percentage (.467)...became the 10th player (18 times) to lead the majors in all three categories, the fourth since World War II (Mays in 1965, Yastrzemski in 1967 and Schmidt in 1981)...both figures also set Oakland records and the slugging percentage was 14th best in major league history...batted a team leading .312 which was 60 points above his career average and 23 points above his previous best of .289 in his rookie season of 1987...also had career highs in runs (104) and walks (116), falling two walks short of Bando's single season Oakland record...had his fourth career 100 RBI season (113) and reached the century mark in runs, walks and RBI in the same season for the first time in his career...named to the Silver Slugger Team, the Associated Press All-Star Team and finished seventh in the BBWAA MVP voting...missed the first 18 games with a foot injury before he was activated April 23...reached base via hit, walk or hit by pitch in each of his first 48 games and 62 straight dating back to 9/16/1995, setting an Oakland record...hit his first of two grand slams on 5/1 vs. California (other came on 9/22 at Seattle)...went 24 at-bats without a homer from 5/7-14, his longest homerless streak of the season...began his home run tear on 5/17 at Boston and including that blast, he hit 21 home runs in a 36 game span through 6/27...hit .333 (41 for 123) over that span with seven doubles for a .902 slugging percentage...during the streak he hit the 9000th home run in Athletics history on 5/28 vs. Boston and drove in his 790th career run on 6/16 at Milwaukee to break Sal Bando's Oakland career record...had three doubles in the latter contest, tying an Oakland record...belted his 300th career home run on 6/25 vs. Detroit (Olivares) to become the 73rd player in major league history to reach that plateau...finished June with 14 home runs, one shy of his club record for home runs in a month (May, 1987) and the major league record for home runs in June...was named American League Player of the Month in June, hitting .329 with 25 RBI, six doubles, a .915 slugging percentage, 31 walks, a .513 on-base percentage and 26 runs in 26 games...was named to the American League All-Star Team for the eighth time in his 10-year career on 7/2 and celebrated by hitting his 303rd career home run that night in Seattle, breaking Jimmie Foxx's Athletics career record...hit his 30th home run on July 13 at Texas, giving him seven 30-homer seasons, tying Foxx's all-time A's record...recorded his 1000th career hit on 7/22 at Chicago off Tapani, becoming the eighth Oakland player to reach the plateau...homered in four consecutive games from 7/23-26...also homered in three straight twice...he hit the longest home run ever by an opponent at the new Comiskey with a 470 foot blast 7/24...then on the 25th in Toronto he homered into the fifth deck for a 488 foot home run, the longest in the five years that all major league home runs have been measured...he homered at least once in every series during the latter streak for a major league record of 20 consecutive series with a home run...that streak ended when he missed five games with back spasms, 7/27-8/1...hit his 40th home run on 8/12 vs. Minnesota, his third 40 homer season, making him and Foxx the only two Athletics with three 40-homer seasons...hit his 40th in his 294th at bat, breaking Ruth's record for fewest at-bats to 40 homers (316 in 1928)...homered the next day to increase his 162-game total dating back to 6/2/95 to 70...hit his 145th career home run in the Coliseum on 8/18 vs. Baltimore (Yan) breaking Reggie Jackson's Coliseum career home run record...hit his 50th home run in the second game of a doubleheader at Cleveland on 9/14 off Ogea...reached 50 in 390 at-bats, breaking Ruth's record of fewest at-bats to 50 homers (438 in 1921)...hit his final two home runs on 9/22 at Seattle, and both came in the fifth inning to tie a major league record for home runs in an inning (28th player, 30th time)...that gave him 28 home runs on the road, tying the franchise record which he already shared with Canseco...homered at least twice against every team; hit six vs. Boston, Cleveland and Detroit...hit at least .321 each month from May through August, including .356 in May, his highest batting average ever in a full month...average improved to .359 with runners in scoring position, which ranked fourth in the league, and his .373 average off southpaws was seventh-best.

1997 – Tied the major league record for most home runs in one season by a righthanded batter with 58 round-trippers, the most in the majors since Roger Maris hit a record 61 homers in 1961...broke Jimmie Foxx's record for most home runs by a righthanded batter in two consecutive seasons (106 in 1932-33) with 110 home runs...became only the second major leaguer, after Babe Ruth, to hit 50 or more homers in consecutive seasons...concluded the season with a career average of one home run every 11.94 at-bats (387/4622), second in major league history to Ruth's ratio of one homer every 11.76 at-bats...had eight multihomer games in 1997 (four with Cards) and concluded the season tied for 14th on the all-time list with 43 multihomer games...became the first player to hit 20 home runs with two different teams in one season...after arriving in a July 31 trade from Oakland, hit 24 homers as a Cardinal, including a club single-month record 15 home runs in September. Overall, 24 of his 44 hits as a Redbird were homers...homered once every 7.3 at-bats as a Cardinal and wound up second on the team in home runs behind Ray Lankford (31)...went deep 11 times in April, eight in May, 10 in June, five in July, nine in August and 15 in September. Homered in 12 consecutive series to finish the year...established career highs with 123 runs batted in (topping his best of 118 RBIs as a rookie in 1987) and three stolen bases, and finished one short of his career best in doubles (28 in '87)...homered against every opponent except BAL in 1997...hit home runs in a record 17 ballparks...matched his previous single-season high for home runs (52) on 9/16 vs. LA, when he launched a 517-foot blast off the facade above the left-center field scoreboard — the longest estimated homer at Busch Stadium, McGwire's longest as a Cardinal and his fifth 500-foot effort of the season; earlier in the day, he'd signed a contract extension with the Cardinals through the year 2000...homered in the second at-bat of his Busch Stadium debut on 8/8 vs. PHI — a 441-foot drive off the left-field foul pole at the Stadium Club level; the homer ended a 71 at-bat homerless drought, the second-longest such streak of his career after his 102 consecutive homerless at-bats spanning the 1990 and '91 seasons...in his first game against the Marlins on 8/22, became the first player to hit two upper-deck homers at Florida's Pro Player Stadium...hit his second-longest homer as a Cardinal (and 44th of the season) on 9/2 against the White Sox, a 504-foot blast off Busch's left-field scoreboard...matched a career high with four hits 9/5 at COL, including two home runs...hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Tom Glavine in the ninth inning 8/15 vs. Atlanta, setting up the Cards' 3-2, 12-inning victory...was named the National League's Player of the Week 8/11-17, when he hit .421 with four homers and eight RBIs...was named the National League Player of the Month for September, when he blasted 15 home runs and recorded a .729 slugging average...left Oakland as the Athletics' franchise leader with 363 home runs, 941 RBIs, 563 extra-base hits and a .551 slugging average. Ranks second in runs scored (773), walks (847), total bases (2,451) and on-base average (.380)...ranks No. 1 in franchise history, with Jimmie Foxx and Sam Chapman, with nine career grand slams...in four months with the A's, McGwire's 34 homers ranked as their season high and he tied Jason Giambi for the team lead with 81 RBIs...tied an Oakland record with his fifth career pinch-homer on 4/16, equaling the mark held by Mike Aldrete, Jeff Burroughs and Terry Steinbach...concluded the season with one homer and an .800 (4-for-5) average in pinch-hit appearances...his 11 homers in April were the most ever hit during the month by an Oakland player...reached base in all seven plate appearances 4/26 vs. KC to tie an A.L. record for most times reached base in an extra-innings game without being retired; his five walks in the game (three intentional) tied an A's club record...hit his longest homer to date and the longest in Seattle Kingdome history (538 feet) off Randy Johnson on 6/24...became the fourth player (after Harmon Killebrew, Frank Howard and Cecil Fielder) to clear the left-field roof at Tiger Stadium with a 514-foot home run on 4/20...had two four-game homer streaks with the A's: 4/19-23 and 5/24-28...named to the American League's All-Star Game team for the ninth time...was named 1997 Sportsman of the Year by The Sporting News and was selected by his peers as the Players Choice Man of the Year for leadership and commitment on and off the field.

1998 – Inspired a renaissance of the National Pastime as he blasted his way to a major league record 70 home runs, eclipsing Roger Maris' 1961 record of 61 homers...received a bevy of postseason awards and honors...named The Sporting News Sportsman of the Year (co-winner with the Cubs' Sammy Sosa), Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year (co-winner with Sosa), Associated Press Player of the Year, Players Choice Player of the Year (chosen by major league players), Baseball America Major League Player of the Year, Baseball Weekly Player of the Year, ABC Wide World of Sports Man of the Year, Time Magazine Hero of the Year, St. Louis Baseball Man of the Year (selected by St. Louis BBWAA chapter), the Missouri Athletic Club Personality of the Year, Sid Mercer Player of the Year (New York BBWAA chapter)...named N.L. first baseman on Louisville Slugger's "Silver Slugger" team (his third Silver Slugger award, emblematic of the best offensive player at each position), The Sporting News' Major League All-Star team and Baseball America's Major League All-Star team...finished second to Sammy Sosa in N.L. 1998 ADDITIONAL MILESTONES & HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first Cardinal (and 20th major leaguer since 1901) to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, connecting for a fifth-inning blast off LA's Ramon Martinez on 3/31 at Busch. The slam was the 10th of his career.
- Homered in the season's first four games, tying Willie Mays' 1971 major league record for most consecutive games homered in to start a season.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the season's first week after batting .400 (8-for-20) with four homers and 12 RBIs.
- Collected his 1,000th career RBI on a bases-loaded walk 4/11 at SF.
- Became the ninth Cardinal to belt as many as three home runs in one game and the first Redbird to do so at Busch with a 3-for-3 performance 4/14 vs. ARI. Became the ninth major leaguer to have a three-homer game in each league (see chart).
- Hit his first career homer at Montreal's Olympic Stadium, a two-run shot off Trey Moore on 4/21.
- Hit his first career homer at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, a two-run homer off Jerry Spradlin on 4/25.
- Hit career homer 400 in the fewest at-bats in major league history (4,726) on 5/8 at NY, a two-run blast off Rick Reed in the third inning (his first career homer at Shea Stadium). Became the 26th player to reach the 400-homer plateau.
- Crushed what could briefly be called the longest homer ever hit at Busch Stadium, a 527-foot bomb off Milwaukee's Paul Wagner on 5/12. The ball landed in Sec. 389, Row 4, Seat 4, above the left-center field scoreboard.
- Launched the longest estimated home run in Busch Stadium history, a 545-foot moonshot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16. The ball caromed off the Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field before falling into the shrubbery below.
- Belted three homers on 5/19 at PHI, becoming the 12th player (13th time) to record two three-homer games in one season. The third homer was No. 20 for the season, breaking Ken Griffey Jr.'s record for reaching 20 in a calendar year (May 20, 1997) and tying Mickey Mantle's record for reaching 20 in the fewest games played (41). Also matched a career high with six RBIs.
- Became the first player to hit a home run into Busch Stadium's "Big Mac Land" on 5/22 vs. SF, entitling 47,549 ticket holders to a free Big Mac hamburger at McDonald's restaurants the following day.
- Recorded his third multihomer game of the season by belting Nos. 22 and 23 on 5/23 vs. SF.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the week ending 5/24. Batted .423 with eight homers and 15 RBIs in six games.
- Became the first player to hit 25 homers before June 1 and tied a club record for most homers (17) at Busch Stadium with a first-inning solo shot on 5/25 vs. COL.
- Set a Cardinals club record for most home runs (16) in a month on 5/30 at SD, tying Mickey Mantle's 1956 major league record for most home runs in May.
- Established a single-season club record for most homers (18) at Busch Stadium on 6/5 vs. SF, breaking the mark shared by Richie Allen (1970), Ted Simmons (1979), Jack Clark (1987) and Ron Gant (1996). The homer, No. 28 of the season, came in his first at-bat after missing three games with back spasms.

- Reached the 30-homer plateau in the Cardinals' 64th game, sooner than any other player except Babe Ruth (63 games in 1928), on 6/9 at CWS.
- Hit his first homer at Arizona's Bank One Ballpark when he connected for his 11th career grand slam, 6/12 against Andy Benes.
- Recorded his first-ever Astrodome homer, 6/17 off Houston's Jose Lima.
- Hit his 33rd homer on 6/18 at HOU (the 11th to reach the Astrodome's upper deck) to break Ken Griffey Jr.'s major league record for most homers before July 1.
- Homered in both of the Cardinals' interleague games at Cleveland, 6/24-25, including a 461-foot homer (No. 35) on 6/25 — the second-longest in Jacobs Field history after his 485-foot blast in April '97 while with Oakland.
- Belted homer No. 37 into the left-field upper deck (472 feet) 6/30 vs. KC, tying Reggie Jackson's 1969 record for most homers before the All-Star break.
- Pounded a dramatic 11th inning, two-run homer into Busch's upper-deck (485 feet) off Houston's Billy Wagner on 7/11, capping a 4-3 win. The homer was his 38th, but his first home run and RBIs of July.
- With a two-homer game 7/12 vs. HOU, reached 40 homers in the fewest at-bats (281) and games (90) in major league history.
- Posted his second two-homer game in less than a week on 7/17 vs. LA, tying Rogers Hornsby's 1922 club record for homers by a righthanded batter (42) while breaking Babe Ruth's and Jimmie Foxx's major league record for most homers before August 1. The first homer traveled an estimated 511 feet.
- Tied Johnny Mize's 1940 club record with his 43rd homer on 7/20 at SD. Also matched a career high with four hits.
- Established a single-season club home run record with No. 44 on 7/26 at COL, ending an 0-for-16 skid at the plate.
- Snapped a 29 at-bat homerless drought and set a single-season club record for most homers at home (26, breaking Mize's 1940 record) with No. 46 on 8/8 vs. the Cubs.
- Hit No. 47 on 8/11 vs. NY, eclipsing Hack Wilson's N.L. record for home runs before Sept. 1 (46 in 1930).
- Drew his 27th intentional walk on 8/12 vs. NY, breaking Stan Musial's 1958 club record for intentional walks in a season.
- On 8/19 at CHI, less than an hour after Sammy Sosa hit his 48th homer to take over the N.L. lead in the fifth inning, McGwire tied the game with his 48th homer in the eighth, then hit a game-winning shot (No. 49) in the 10th to reclaim the lead.
- Hit No. 50 in the first game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, becoming the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three successive seasons and the oldest player to hit 50 (34 years, 324 days, compared with Mize's previous mark of 34 years, 256 days). Tied major league records for fewest at-bats (390, which he set in 1996) and games played by team (125, set by Ruth in '21 and matched by Maris in '61) to reach 50 homers.
- Hit No. 51 in the second game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, setting a club record for most homers (24) hit on the road in one season.
- Hit No. 52 on 8/22 at PIT, setting major league records for most homers before Sept. 1 and most homers in three consecutive seasons (162), an N.L. record for home runs by a first baseman (breaking Mize's 1947 mark), and a club record for most homers in two consecutive seasons (76).
- Hit No. 53 and walked twice on 8/23 at PIT, breaking Jack Clark's 1987 club record of 136 walks in one season. Also broke his own major league record for most homers by a righthanded batter in consecutive seasons with his 111th since the start of play in 1997 (110 in 1996-97).
- Became the first N.L. player since Ralph Kiner in 1949 and only the third National Leaguer to hit as many as 54 homers in one season, blasting a 509-foot smash off the hitter's backdrop on 8/26 vs. FLA.
- Hit Nos. 56 and 57 on 9/1 at FLA. The second homer breaks Hack Wilson's 1930 N.L. record for most home runs in one season and Ruth's major league record for homers in consecutive seasons (114 in 1927-28).
- Smashed Nos. 58 and 59 in a 9/2 win at FLA, his second-straight two-homer game. The second homer enables him to surpass Jimmie Foxx, Hank Greenberg and his own 1997 total for most homers by a righthanded batter, and Greenberg's major league record for most homers by a first baseman.
- Belted a two-run, first-inning home run off Cincinnati lefty Dennis Reyes on 9/5 at Busch, reaching 60 homers in the team's 142nd game — in 12 fewer games than Ruth (154) and 17 fewer than Maris (159).
- Tied Maris' mark of 61 homers with a first-inning solo homer off the Stadium Club against Cubs righthander Mike Morgan on 9/7. Hits 61 in 19 fewer games than Maris (144-163).

- Connected for historic No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, 9/8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Forneris. The home run came in the Cardinals' 145th game and McGwire's 451st at-bat. The game was delayed 11 minutes by the ensuing celebration.
- Drew walk No. 152 on 9/12 at HOU, breaking Barry Bonds' 1996 N.L. record.
- Poked his 63rd homer (450th career) and his only pinch homer of '98 (sixth career) in the ninth inning of the first game of a 9/15 doubleheader vs. PIT.
- Pounded his 65th homer in the first inning 9/20 at MIL and had another apparent homer ruled a double due to fan interference. Tied Ruth's 1927 major league record for most homers on the road (32) and broke George Foster's 1977 N.L. mark.
- Kept pace with Sosa on 9/25 by belting his 66th HR, off Montreal's Shayne Bennett at Busch, just 45 minutes after Sosa hit No. 66 at HOU.
- Regained the homer lead with Nos. 67 and 68 on 9/26 vs. MON. No. 67 was his 35th homer at Busch, breaking Ted Kluszewski's 1954 N.L. record for most homers at home.
- In the 9/27 season finale vs. MON, singled in the first inning, hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third, walked in the fifth and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1985 – Made his professional debut with the Gulf Coast (Rookie) Royals.

1986 – Ranked first among Northwest League second basemen in fielding percentage (.965), assists (214) and total chances (373) at Eugene (A).

1987 – Led Florida State League second basemen with 284 putouts at Fort Myers (A)... appeared in 131 games and batted .252 with a team-high 62 runs.

1988 – Began the season at Baseball City (A)...earned an early-season promotion to Memphis, appearing in 91 games in his first Double-A action.

1989 – Spent the campaign with Memphis, where he was converted to an outfielder after previously playing second base and shortstop...had a .981 fielding percentage in the outfield, recording 11 assists...tied for the Southern League lead by participating in five double plays...led the league with 533 at-bats.

1990 – Saw his first major league action in August after opening the campaign at Double-A Memphis...appeared in 116 games and batted .268 with 10 home runs and 64 RBIs at Memphis...batted .286 in his first 46 big-league games...in his debut 8/7 vs. CHI, he started in centerfield and tripled off Alex Fernandez in his first at-bat...went 2-for-4 in the contest with one run scored and one RBI...recorded his first four-hit contest 8/18 at MIL...hit his first big league home run on 8/26 off SEA's Keith Comstock.

1991 – Was on the Royals' Opening Day roster for the first time...led the club in games played, at-bats, runs scored, hits, triples and stolen bases...tied for sixth in the American League in triples and ranked 10th in at-bats...had a career-high 22-game hitting streak 7/20 to 8/13 (34-for-93, .366), the longest streak of the season in the A.L. and the third-longest streak in KC history...hit his first major league inside-the-park home run 4/30, batting lefthanded off DET's Walt Terrell...had the first two-home run game of his ML career on 7/14 at DET, recording a personal-best six RBIs and hitting a grand slam off the Tigers' Dan Gakeler.

1992 – Struggled most of the year at the plate, finishing the campaign with a .223 average in 149 games...of his four home runs, two were of the inside-the-park variety...both of his inside-the-park home runs came off lefthanders, CAL's Chuck Finley (8/6) and SEA's

Randy Johnson (9/22)...recorded an unassisted double play 8/23 at CHI...it was the first time an A.L. outfielder had accomplished the feat since OAK's Bill North on 7/28/74.

1993 – Batted .282 with 12 home runs and 69 RBIs in 153 games...had 177 hits, the ninth-highest total in the A.L...tied for fourth in the league in at-bats and triples and was third in sacrifice bunts...had his fourth career inside-the-park home run off Danny Cox 7/17 at TOR, batting lefthanded.

1994 – Appeared in 114 games during his final season with Kansas City, batting .273 with four home runs, 40 RBIs and 28 stolen bases...tied for second in the American League in games played...finished fifth in the A.L. in triples and ranked seventh in steals...was the seventh-toughest batter in the A.L. to double up, grounding into only three double plays (once every 145.3 at-bats)...collected his only career five-hit game on 5/31 at BOS.

1995 – Batted a career-high .288 with 12 home runs, 48 RBIs and 27 steals in his first season with the Cubs...tied for second in the N.L. with a career-high 38 doubles...led the league in at-bats and tied for fourth in hits...paced N.L. outfielders with 352 total chances and 345 putouts...committed just three errors for a .991 fielding percentage...hit his second career grand slam, 6/28 off PIT's Mike Dyer...recorded his 100th career steal, 5/29 vs. ATL...batted safely in 12 straight games, 5/28 to 6/9...underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left wrist on 10/25...the surgery was performed by Dr. Dan Nagle.

1996 – Led the Cubs in games played, at-bats, runs scored, triples, walks and stolen bases...established career highs in steals and runs...his run total was the highest by a Cub since Ryne Sandberg crossed the plate 116 times in 1990...tied for sixth in the National League in steals...recorded 345 putouts, the fourth-highest total among N.L. centerfielders...was hit by 12 pitches, the seventh-highest total in the N.L. and the second-highest mark on the club behind Scott Servais (14)...led off four games with a home run: 4/20 off SF's Mark Gardner; 7/15 off PIT's Dan Miceli; 9/19 off STL's Andy Benes and 9/25 off CIN's Dave Burba...had a straight steal of home on 4/13 at SF off William VanLandingham...it was his first career steal of home...hit his third career grand slam 4/19 off SF's Allen Watson, going 4-for-5 in the contest...had a career-high three doubles on 6/8 vs. MON...from 8/3 through the end of the season, he reached base via hit, walk or hit by pitch 87 times in 51 games (54 hits, 27 walks, six hit by pitches)...stole his 150th career base (and his 30th of the season), 8/10 at MON...batted .515 (17-for-33) over an eight-game stretch, 8/10 to 8/18 with a four-hit contest, 8/16 vs. HOU, and a trio of three-hit affairs...was the N.L. Player of the Week for 8/12-18, winning the weekly award for the first time during his career; reached base 21 times in six games, going 13-for-22 (.591) with seven walks, one hit by pitch and eight runs scored...had his second career two-home run game 9/27 [1] vs. PIT...sent the contest into extra innings with a two-out home run in the bottom of the ninth inning.

1997 – Started 35 games in centerfield for the Mets...led off the Cubs' 5/9 game at SF with a home run off William VanLandingham...it was his eighth career leadoff home run...on 5/10 at SF, with runners on second and third, Stan Javier hit a shallow fly ball that was ruled an infield fly; the ball fell, allowing Brian to initiate an 8-5-4 triple play...in his first game as a Met on 8/8 vs. HOU, he went 3-for-4 with two runs scored, a walk and a triple...cracked his first career pinch-hit home run, a solo shot, against PHI's Darrin Winston at Shea in the eighth inning on 9/10...hit his fourth career grand slam against Alex Fernandez at FLA in the first inning on 9/20.

1998 – Made 144 starts in centerfield with eight assists...was hitting just .219 (43-for-196) with four home runs and 24 RBIs through 6/10...the rest of the season, he hit .289 (103-for-356) with 17 home runs and 55 RBIs...hit .333 (36-for-108) in July and .304 (35-for-115) with three home runs and 17 RBIs in August...had 33 multiple-hit games and fashioned 17 multiple-RBI games...of his 146 hits, 62 (42%) were for extra bases (36 doubles, five triples and 21 home runs)...went 4-for-10 with the bases loaded...was 4-for-5 with two runs scored, a double, home run and three RBIs vs. CIN on 5/20...had the ninth leadoff home run of his career 5/31 at PHI (Mark Portugal)...hit safely in a season-best nine straight games from 7/22 to 7/29 (18-for-40; .450)...went 4-for-5 with two doubles, two runs scored and one RBI vs. SD on 7/29...hit in the clean-up position for the first time in his career 8/5 vs. SF...stole his 20th base on 8/15 vs. ARI...hit his 20th home run 9/1 at SD in the seventh inning against Stan Spencer to become the second Mets' centerfielder to hit at least 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in the same season (Tommie Agee hit 24 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1970)...collected his career-best 70th RBI vs. the Braves on 9/7...paced NY to its 7-4, 13-inning victory at HOU on 9/14...hit a two-run home run in the ninth inning to tie the score at 4-4 and then hit a two-run double in the 13th inning for the go-ahead run.

HENRY MERCEDES

HENRY FELIPE PEREZ MERCEDES

59 Catcher

Ht: 6-2 Bats: Right
Wt: 210 Throws: Right

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on July 23)
Born: 7/23/69 at Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a minor-league free agent, January 19, 2000.

M.L. SERVICE: 2.013

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Spent the year with Triple-A Omaha (Royals).
- Played 69 games and batted .244 with six home runs and 32 RBIs.
- It was his second stint in the Kansas City organization (1995-96) and his 13th professional season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1987 – Played in Dominican Summer League after being signed by Oakland as a non-drafted free agent.

1988 – Appeared in just two contests for the Athletics' Arizona League entry at Scottsdale because of lower back problems.

1989 – Spent the year with Oakland's three Class-A clubs, opening at Madison (Midwest League), transferring to Modesto (California League) 7/6 and then Southern Oregon (Northwest League) 7/29...completed season with .180 batting average in 89 games.

1990 – Opened again at Madison...played in Midwest League All-Star Game,..leapfrogged to Class-AAA Tacoma on 7/5...played in 12 Pacific Coast League games before 7/29 return to Madison.

1991 – Played in career-high 116 games during full-season stay at Modesto...also set personal bests with 100 hits, 61 RBIs, 55 runs, 17 doubles and 68 walks...even took mound once, suffering loss after a one-inning stint...named 10th-best prospect in California League by Baseball America.

1992 – Again skipping Class-AA, opened season with Class-AAA Tacoma, then recalled by Oakland 4/16...made major-league debut 4/22 vs. CAL and singled off Steve Frey in only at-bat...optioned back to Tacoma on 4/25...would appear in 85 PCL games in all for the season...recalled back to A's on 9/1...saw action in eight more games and went three-for-four at plate...had two hits, including first triple and RBI, in season finale 10/4 vs. MIL.

1993 – Took part in 20 games over 108 days during three stints with A's...otherwise, matched his 1992 playing time with Tacoma, again accruing 85 games played at Class-AAA...led PCL catchers with 10 double plays.

1994 – Invited to Oakland spring training as non-roster player and eventually spent the season at Triple-A Tacoma...would see time catching, at first and third base, as well as in the outfield.

1995 – Joined Royals' organization and split season between Class-AAA Omaha and Kansas City...hit career high 11 home runs with Omaha...finished year as parent club's backup catcher after Pat Borders was traded to Houston in mid-August...tallied career-high three RBIs in second game of doubleheader 8/21 at MIL.

1996 – Topped American Association catchers, retiring 25 of 37 would-be basestealers, a success rate of 68 percent...consummate batteryman, made two pitching appearances totaling 1.1 innings, and retired all four batters faced...spent much of first half with Omaha before contract purchased by Royals...played in two games, going one-for-three, before being outrighted back to Omaha 7/19...called back to majors 9/10 and had one hitless at-bat over two games played.

1997 – Invited to Rangers' spring training and proceeded to win spot on Opening Day roster for first time...had appeared in 18 games, nine starts, when he was outrighted to Class-AAA Oklahoma City on 8/6...recalled 9/2 and appeared in five more games for Texas.

1998 – Signed minor-league pact with Giants in January and opened season at Class-AAA Fresno...saw action in 27 games, with two homers and 11 RBIs, before being released 6/24...signed by Reds' organization 7/29 and was sent to Class-AAA Indianapolis...had two hits in 16 at-bats over eight games with Indy.

MISC: Henry has one daughter, Brittany (5/27/90)...resides in Santo Domingo.

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, January 15, 1999.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Appeared in 48 games — all out of the bullpen. Had one save and finished fifth on the staff with six holds.
- His statistics after the All-Star break included a 2.60 ERA, 16 strikeouts, five walks and a .177 opponents' batting average in 21 games (17.1 IP).
- Posted a 1.26 ERA and a .173 opponents' batting average in 25 home contests, compared to an 8.71 ERA and .349 opponents' average in 23 road games.
- Held lefthanders to a .224 batting average (13-for-58) with no home runs.
- Was impressive in five appearances vs. the Cubs, collecting five strikeouts and notching a 1.50 ERA in 6.0 IP.
- Made his Cardinals debut 4/8 vs. MIL. Allowed one run in 2.1 IP.
- Struck out three batters in one inning pitched in a 4/14 win at PIT.
- Collected his first Cardinals save 5/1 at MON after working three innings.
- Tossed three scoreless innings 5/16 vs. LA.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Memphis on 7/2. Went 2-1 with a 3.07 ERA in 10 games, with 17 strikeouts and five walks in 14.1 IP.
- Was recalled from Memphis on 7/27.
- Fanned a season-high four batters in two innings pitched 8/15 vs. CHI.
- Was unscored upon in 18 of his 21 appearances after his 7/27 recall.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1989 – Signed by former A's scout Bill Gayton in mid-August after the June draft...did not pitch for the Athletics until the next year at Madison (A).

1990 – Pitched his first year of pro baseball at Madison of the Midwest League...worked in long relief for the Muskies...allowed just 56 hits and struck out 72 in 63.1 innings (10.23 SO/9 IP).

1991 – Split the year between Modesto (A) and Huntsville (AA)...was converted to a starting pitcher at Modesto and went 9-4 with a 2.86 ERA, the sixth lowest ERA in the league...earned a late-July promotion to Huntsville and went 4-2 with a 3.57 ERA in eight starts for the Stars.

1992 – Returned to the bullpen for most of Huntsville's season...was in the Stars' starting rotation to start the year but 38 of his final 39 appearances were in relief...did his best pitching in June and July, when he allowed only two earned runs and 12 hits over 23.1 innings.

1993 – Made the jump from Double-A Huntsville to the majors...pitched both out of the A's bullpen and in the starting rotation until a late-season shoulder injury ended his rookie campaign and eventually led to surgery (performed by Dr. Rick Bost)...made his M.L. debut 4/7 vs. DET...made his first major league start 7/3 vs. NYY after 27 relief appearances, but wound up with a no-decision...recorded his first M.L. win in relief on 7/15 at NYY...final five appearances of the season were as a starter...was especially effective against lefthanders, holding them to a .183 mark (13-for-71) with no home runs.

1994 – Spent the year rehabbing his surgically repaired shoulder and made just one appearance for Oakland...opened the season on Tacoma's (AAA) disabled list...was sent to Modesto on 5/24 to begin pitching and in seven games (five starts), he was 1-1 with a 2.76 ERA...recalled to the majors on 7/22...started and lost that night vs. BAL...returned to Tacoma the next day and finished up the season in the Triple-A rotation.

1995 – Started the season at Edmonton (AAA)...was recalled on 7/22 and finished the year in Oakland, making 28 relief appearances...recorded his first major league save on 8/16 at KC by escaping a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the ninth...yielded just two runs on nine hits over his last 18 outings (15.2 IP) and allowed only two of 16 inherited runners to score...did not allow a home run in 23.2 innings pitched in Oakland and 45.0 innings at Edmonton.

1996 – Was the A's closer early in the season, saving each of his first six opportunities through 6/16...had just one save in seven chances over his final 42 games...appeared in a career-high 72 games, which tied for the team lead...also had career highs in wins (6), which tied for sixth among A.L. relievers, and saves (7)...retired 27 consecutive hitters from 4/15 to 4/28.

1997 – Converted to a starter to begin the season but went 0-7 with a 6.83 ERA in his 10 starts and returned to the bullpen by the end of May...fared better once he rejoined the relief corps, going 1-3 with a save and a 3.21 ERA (17 ER/47.2 IP) in his 52 appearances...tossed a career-high 101.2 innings and struck out a career-high 66...fanned nine batters in a 7-1 loss on 4/27 vs. KC...went into the All-Star Break with 0-8 record and 6.68 ERA...his eight-game losing streak was the longest by an Oakland pitcher since Rick Langford in 1986...improved his numbers significantly in the second half as he went 1-2 with a save and a 1.91 ERA...ended his losing streak with a victory on 7/15 vs. SEA, which started a scoreless streak of 11.0 innings through 8/9...recorded his only save on 8/13 at BAL...made his 200th career appearance on 9/13 vs. DET.

1998 – Worked short relief most of the season, tossing more than 2.0 innings just twice in his first 49 outings...did not allow a run in nine of his 12 appearances in April, posting a 2.92 ERA for the month...finished the season on a high note, allowing just two earned runs in 10.1 innings (1.74 ERA) in September...picked up first win of the year on 6/5 vs. ARI with a scoreless 11th inning...moved onto Oakland's top-10 list in games pitched on 6/5 and finished the season in the eighth spot (262)...posted a 2.70 ERA (5 ER, 16.2 IP) over his final eight outings...pitched 4.0 innings on 8/31 at CLE, the longest relief stint of his career.

MISC: Graduated in 1986 from East Ascension High School, where he was a two-time all-state selection...prior to being drafted by the A's in the June 1989 draft, he was an accounting major at Nicholls State in Thibodaux, La...he and his wife Paula (1/15/93) reside in Prairieville, La., with their son Landon (3/10/96) and daughter Bailey (7/23/99).

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Missed the entire campaign after injuring his right elbow in spring training.
- Was placed on the disabled list on 3/26 and Dr. Frank Jobe performed "Tommy John" surgery in Los Angeles on 4/13. The procedure replaced a torn ligament in Morris' pitching elbow with a tendon from his right hand.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1995 — Made an impressive professional debut, allowing just two hits in five innings, while striking out six in a 1-0 win over Pittsfield on 7/12...was promoted to St. Petersburg after his second win at New Jersey...faced the minimum 21 batters and struck out eight in a seven-inning, one-hit shutout over Sarasota in Game 1 of a doubleheader on 8/21...named Florida State League Pitcher of the Week for 8/21-27 after throwing six scoreless innings with nine strikeouts in a 3-1 win over Tampa...pitched for Cards' Winter Instructional League club, posting a 1.17 ERA with four walks and 20 strikeouts in 23 innings.

1996 — The workhorse of the organization, Morris led all Cardinals minor leaguers with 175 innings pitched, mostly at Class-AA Arkansas with one start for Class-AAA Louisville...his four shutouts for Arkansas led the Texas League and helped earn him a spot on the league's All-Star team...tied for second in the league with four complete games and 12 wins, tied for third with 27 starts, ranked fourth with 167 innings, fifth with 120 strikeouts and 10th with a 3.88 ERA...in the Cardinal organization, he tied for fourth in wins and tied for fifth with 129 strikeouts...his four complete games were all four-hit shutouts...in his first start of the season, tossed three-hit ball over six innings with seven strikeouts, earning an 11-2 victory 4/6 at Shreveport...struck out a season-high eight batters in an 8-2 triumph 4/26 vs. Tulsa...issued 10 walks in 64.2 innings (1.39 BB/9IP) over 10 starts, 6/5 - 7/26...won three consecutive starts, two by shutout, 6/29 - 7/11...promoted to Louisville in the season's final week...in his only Class-AAA start, struck out nine over eight innings in a 3-0 loss 9/1 vs. Indianapolis.

1997 — Turned in one of the top rookie seasons by a Cards pitcher, earning selection as The Sporting News' N.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year and tying for second in N.L. Rookie of the Year voting conducted by the BBWAA...led all major league rookies in ERA (3.19) and strikeouts (149), and paced N.L. rookie hurlers with 12 wins, which tied Todd Stottlemyre for the team lead...yielded only 12 home runs in 217 innings, posting the fourth-best homers-to-innings ratio among N.L. pitchers...had his best stuff at Busch, going 9-5 with a 2.73 ERA in 21 starts...was 4-1 in June and had a 2.18 ERA in July...in interleague starts vs. the Indians, Twins and White Sox was a combined 2-0 with a 1.19 ERA (22.2 innings/three earned runs)...pitched his first complete game in the majors 5/23 at SF but lost 2-0 to Shawn Estes...pitched his second complete game of the season 9/22 at PIT but lost 3-1...retired the first 17 batters 5/1 vs. FLA en route to his first major league win, a 3-2 Cards victory...made his big-league debut 4/4 at HOU, allowing one run on seven hits in five-plus innings, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 3-2 extra-innings loss...in his 8/5 "homecoming" to New York state, worked 8.1 innings vs. the Mets in the rain, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 5-4, 10-inning loss. Left the game with a 4-3 lead, but NY rallied for single runs in the ninth and 10th...with the temperature hitting 104 degrees, pitched 7.2 innings (five hits, one run) to post a 3-1 win (No. 8) vs. FLA on 7/26...earned his third victory over the Marlins on 8/22 at FLA, his ninth win of the year...in his 33 starts, the Cards were 18-15 while averaging 4.6 runs per game...at the plate, batted .205 (15-for-73) with six RBIs. Had a pinch-hitting appearance in Cards' extra-innings loss at SD on 6/10.

Wt: 180 Throws: Right

Age: 24 (Turns 25 on August 7)
Born: 8/7/75 at Barranquilla, Colombia

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Florida Marlins in a trade for pitchers Armando Almanza and Braden Looper and shortstop Pablo Ozuna, December 14, 1998.

M.L. SERVICE: 3.143

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2003 with club options for both 2004 and 2005.

1999 SEASON:

- In his first season with the Cardinals, batted .275 while establishing career highs of 11 home runs and 63 RBIs.

- Led the club in games played (154), at-bats (585), hits (161), doubles (36), sacrifice flies (7) and stolen bases (37).
- Tied for seventh in the National League in stolen bases.
- Paced the Cardinals with 45 multi-hit games and ranked fifth on the club with five game-winning RBIs.
- Came through in the clutch, batting .304 with runners in scoring position.
- The righthanded hitter posted a higher batting average vs. righthanded pitchers (.283) than vs. lefthanders (.250). Nine of his 11 home runs came off righties.
- Batted .300 with five home runs and 40 RBIs before the All-Star break and .248 with six homers and 23 RBIs after the break.
- Committed a career-high 26 errors; his .959 fielding percentage was the lowest of his four-year career.
- Batted leadoff a club-high 46 times; also led the club by batting in the second spot 53 times. Hit two of the club's five leadoff home runs.
- Victimized his former Marlins teammates with a .423 batting average (11-for-26), three home runs and five RBIs in seven games. The .423 average was his best mark against any 1999 opponent.
- Right knee bone bruise continued to bother him in spring training and did not appear in any major league spring games, but was in opening day starting lineup.
- Posted an eight-game hitting streak 4/11 to 4/23.
- Poked his first Cardinal home run vs. LA on 5/16 (off Ismael Valdes).
- Notched a three-RBI game at LA on 5/23, as all three RBIs came with two outs.
- Matched his career best with a pair of homers at FLA on 5/31.
- Collected three hits and drove home the game-winning run with a 14th-inning single vs. DET on 6/12.
- Put together a 10-game hitting streak 6/21 to 7/1; had a five-game RBI streak that coincided with his hitting streak (6/26 to 7/1).
- Equaled a career high with four hits at SF on 7/9.
- Posted another four-hit effort 8/31 vs. FLA.
- Set a career high and a 1999 club high with four stolen bases at MIL on 9/5.
- Notched his second leadoff HR of the year on 9/15 vs. MIL (also did it 9/8 at ATL).
- Closed the season by hitting safely in seven straight games (9-for-31, .290) and in 32 of his last 37 contests (49-for-161, .304).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies with pitcher Ricky Bottalico in a trade for outfielder Ron Gant and pitchers Jeff Brantley and Cliff Politte, November 19, 1998.

M.L. SERVICE: 2.066

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Went 6-3 with a 4.22 ERA in his first season with the Cardinals.
- His six wins tied for third-most on the Cardinals staff.
- Made his first five appearances out of the bullpen before moving into the starting rotation in August.
- Made 12 starts and went 5-3 with a 3.84 ERA in that role. Posted 49 strikeouts and allowed only 26 walks in 75.0 innings as a starter.
- His August ERA of 1.36 (5 ER in 33.0 IP) ranked as the best in the majors.
- Posted a 5-1 record with a 3.43 ERA and a 43-19 strikeout-to-walk ratio in 13 night games.
- Held righthanded hitters to a .236 batting average.
- Made two stints with the Cardinals. Was originally recalled from Triple-A Memphis on 6/23 and optioned back on 7/17. Was recalled for the second time on 8/6.
- Opened the season with one start at Class-AA Arkansas before moving up to Memphis, where he went 1-1 with a 3.16 ERA in four starts.
- Earned his first Cardinals win in relief on 7/17 vs. CWS. Pitched one inning in an 8-6 Cards win.
- Was recalled from Memphis on 8/6 and made his first Cardinals start that night in the second game of a twinbill at PIT. Lifted his record to 2-0 and posted an outstanding seven-inning effort in which he allowed only one run on three hits, with eight strikeouts and no walks.
- Upped his record to 3-0 with a 5-1 win at PHI on 8/11. Went 7.1 innings and allowed only five hits. Gave up a first-inning home run to Ron Gant for the Phillies' lone run.
- Left his 8/17 start vs. PHI after 3.2 IP when he suffered a bruised left forearm resulting from a Mike Lieberthal line drive.
- Improved to 4-0 with a 7-5 win in game two of an 8/22 DH at NY. Allowed just two runs (one earned) in his seven-plus innings pitched.
- Established a career-high and matched Kent Bottenfield's 1999 club mark when he won his fifth-straight game with a 9-3 win vs. FLA on 9/1.
- Suffered his first loss with a 4-1 setback vs. Greg Maddux at ATL on 9/6.
- Went 2-for-2 at the plate, with a double and an RBI en route to his sixth win vs. HOU on 9/17. Went five innings and allowed a season-high six runs in an 11-8 Cardinals win over Jose Lima.
- Lost his last two decisions, both against the Cubs. Suffered a 5-3 loss at CHI on 9/22 and a 6-3 defeat at Busch on 10/2 — his final appearance of the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Made pro debut for Bluefield's Appalachian League champions...made three starts in 12 appearances...allowed one hit in first three outings, all scoreless...pitched six shutout innings in his first start, 7/16 vs. Princeton.

1993 – Led Orioles' system with 16 wins and was fourth with 147 strikeouts for Class-A Albany...shared South Atlantic League lead with two shutouts, finished second in wins and fourth with 2.84 ERA...made 30 appearances, 24 starts, going 14-7...just as effective out of bullpen with two wins and a save in six outings...tossed no-hit game 6/9 vs. Macon, recording 11 strikeouts and one walk in a 1-0 win...worked another low-hit effort, yielding one safety in seven innings 8/13 vs. Capital City...allowed two or fewer runs in 13 of his last 19 starts...promoted to Class-A Frederick on 9/4 for Carolina League playoffs.

1994 – Opened at Frederick before joining Class-AA Bowie of the Eastern League...recorded minor league career-high 165 strikeouts over 144 innings...had fourth-highest strikeout rate in minors with 10.31 per nine innings and led EL starters with a 10.87 pace (126 K/104.1 IP)...finished second in O's organization in strikeouts...had five double-figure strikeout games with Frederick...fanned season-high 13 in seven innings and allowed only an unearned run on three hits, but suffered loss, 4/23 at Prince William...in only relief outing among 25 appearances all season, 5/21 vs. Durham, struck out seven in three innings...promoted to Bowie on 7/3...posted 11 strikeouts while walking none in four-hit shutout 7/8 vs. New Haven...returned to Frederick 8/11...was 2-0 in last four Class-A starts...impressive in final three outings, permitting no earned run over 22 innings and a .111 opponents' batting average (8-for-72) with 29 strikeouts...returned to Bowie on 9/5 and won regular-season finale vs. Harrisburg...suffered loss in decisive fifth game of EL semifinal series vs. Harrisburg.

1995 – Spent entire season with Bowie and made Eastern League-high 29 starts...also placed second in league with 175.1 innings and third with 139 strikeouts...had seven walk-free outings of at least seven innings...held righthanded hitters to a .219 average...went 4-0, 0.94 ERA over five starts, 6/20 to 7/12...tossed only complete game of season, allowing a run on seven hits 6/20 vs. Norwich...carried a no-hit bid until a two-out single in ninth at Norwich on 6/30, yielding an unearned run and fanning 11 over nine full innings, then picking up a 2-1 win in 10 innings...pitched for Scottsdale in Arizona Fall League.

1996 – Spent bulk of season at Rochester, first Class-AAA experience...ranked among International League leaders with one shutout (tie, third) and three complete games (tie, fourth)...went 6-0, 3.25 ERA at home...served up one home run as late as the fifth inning in 23 appearances and allowed .229 batting average (50-218) after third inning...threw two-hit, seven-inning shutout in first game of doubleheader, 7/14 at Norfolk, and in so doing, earned IL pitcher of the week honors...was also middle leg of three consecutive winning starts during which he allowed 1.44 ERA (4 ER/25 IP) and .113 batting average (9-80)...recalled 7/25 for major league debut that night at CLE, where he allowed three runs in 4.1 innings of relief, earning no decision in 10-7 loss...made two more relief appearances, also vs. Indians, before being sent back to Rochester 8/6...won two of last three starts to help Rochester win playoff berth...would not see postseason action for third time in five years as he was sent to PHI organization 9/4 to complete trade of six days earlier...attended Phillies' Florida Instructional League.

1997 – Opened season at Class-AAA Scranton/Wilkes-Barre...went 3-1 over four outings, 4/7-23, three starts and a six-inning relief stint, 4/23 at Ottawa, in which he picked up the win...made seven appearances at Triple-A before Phils bought contract 5/9...made National League debut, and first big-league start, 5/13 vs. STL...struck out career-high 12, most by a pitcher in first major league start since Astros' J.R. Richard whiffed 15 on 9/5/71 vs. SF, and became first in Phillies history to post two-figure strikeout tally in first ML start...allowed two runs on two hits but got no decision in 3-2 loss...singled off Andy Benes in first ML at-bat...would go on to finish among NL rookie leaders with two complete games (tie-2nd), eight wins (tie-5th), 117 innings (7th), 18 starts (8th), 81 strikeouts (9th)...in second start, 5/18 vs. HOU, collected first win, allowing an unearned run over seven innings in 5-3 decision...each of four April starts decided by two runs or less, as he went 2-1, 1.33 ERA (4 ER/27 IP) and gave up .189 batting average (17-90)...inflamed left knee resulted in 6/10 scratch and placement on disabled list retro to 6/5...reactivated for 6/22 start at ATL and, though lasting season-low 2.2 innings, did collect RBI double, first of ML career in each category...made first N.L. relief appearance, 7/6 vs CHI...worked first major-league complete game, 7/15 at ATL, a four-hitter and 8-1 win...had 12.2 straight walkless innings, 7/25 to 8/6...following departure from 8/17 start at HOU with tightness in right forearm, placed on DL second time in season, 8/18 to 9/2...returned with an inning of relief 9/3 vs. NYY...would go 2-1, 1.84 ERA (6/29.1) and .194 BA (20-for-103) in last four starts...capped rookie campaign with a second four-hit complete game, 9/24 vs. ATL.

1998 – Started the season with the Phillies, his first year on a major league Opening Day roster....surrendered two runs over six innings in Phillies' home opener, 4/12 vs. ATL, but was tabbed with the loss in the Braves' 3-2 win...made six starts before being optioned on 5/5 to Sranton/Wilkes-Barre of the Class-AAA International League...won his first start, 5/11 at Louisville, allowing two runs in seven innings...was disabled 6/27 to 8/3 with a sore right shoulder...returned to work an inning in relief 8/6 at Pawtucket and five shutout innings in a start 8/10 at Rochester.

MISC: Father, Richard, played in the Pittsburgh organization...graduated in 1990 from Boonsboro High School in Maryland...played Little League, Babe Ruth and American Legion baseball...attended Ricks College in Idaho and Idaho State University...he and wife Stephanie (8/8/92) have two sons, Riley (10/28/93) and Teagan (7/1/97)...the Stephensons reside in Boise, Idaho.

Third Baseman

Ht: 5-10 Bats: Right
Wt: 180 Throws: Right

Age: 25
Born: 1/1/75 at San Pedro de Macoris, D.R.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Texas Rangers with pitcher Darren Oliver and a player to be named (outfielder Mark Little) in a trade for shortstop Royce Clayton and pitcher Todd Stottlemyre, July 31, 1998.

M.L. SERVICE: 2.065

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- In his first full season in St. Louis, posted one of the finest campaigns ever by a Cardinals third baseman. His 34 home runs broke Ken Boyer's 1960 club record of 32 homers by a third baseman.
- Led the club in batting average (.298) and finished second in HRs, RBIs (107), runs scored (104), stolen bases (21) and walks (82).
- Became just the fourth player (first infielder) in Cardinals history to hit at least 20 home runs and steal at least 20 bases in the same season.
- Became the first player in major league history to hit two grand slams in one inning, doing so off Chan Ho Park in the 3rd inning of the Cards' 12-5 win at LA on 4/23. Also became the first Cardinal to hit two home runs in the same frame, while establishing a major league record with eight RBIs in an inning.
- Tied the club record of three grand slams in one season (Jim Bottomley, 1925, and Keith Hernandez, 1977).
- Was hit by pitch 16 times, tying him for second in the National League. His 16 HBPs were the most by a Cardinal since Solly Hemus was plunked 20 times in 1952.
- Had four multi-homer games, 44 multi-hit games and 21 multi-RBI contests. His eight game-winning RBIs ranked third on the club.
- His 12 infield hits were second on the team, as were his 32 two-out RBIs.
- Was 21-for-30 in stolen base attempts, including 4-for-4 in third base attempts.
- Posted a .331 (49-for-148) batting average with runners in scoring position, including a league-leading .692 (9-for-13) mark with the bases loaded.
- Batted .301 vs. righthanders and .290 vs. lefthanders; hit .309 at night and .274 in the daylight.
- Compiled a .321 batting average on the road and a .274 mark at Busch Stadium; batted .353 on artificial turf and .285 on grass.
- Committed 11 fewer errors in 1999 (16) than in 1998 (27), and his .958 fielding percentage ranked sixth among N.L. third-sackers. Had just four miscues after the All-Star break and was errorless in 31-straight games from 7/27 to 8/30.
- Hit seven homers in each of the months of April, May, June and September.
- Batted over .400 against KC (.462), MIN (.455) and CHI (.415). Hit five home runs against LA and MIL.
- Homered in each of the first three games of the season (4/5 through 4/8).
- Put together a team-best seven-game RBI streak 4/20 to 4/28.
- Compiled a career-high 11-game hitting streak 5/26 to 6/5. Had exactly one hit in each of the first 10 games of the streak before collecting two hits in the final game. Went 12-for-39 (.308) in the streak.
- Belted a pair of two-run homers 7/22 at CIN, including a ninth-inning game-winner.
- Reached base all five plate appearances 7/31 at COL, going 3-for-3 with a home run, three RBIs and two walks.
- Collected a season-high four hits, including two doubles, in an 8/15 win vs. CHI.
- Blasted his third grand slam of the season 8/9 at PHI (off Billy Brewer).
- Posted his fourth multi-homer game 9/26 at CIN.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Held big-league opponents to a .241 batting average, including .163 vs. lefties and .292 vs. righties.
- The Cardinals were 1-4 in his five starts, losing two one-run games and a pair of two-run contests.
- Began the season in the Reds organization and went 2-6 with a 5.13 ERA at Indianapolis (AAA) before being released in mid-July.
- Went 4-2 with a 2.94 ERA in 11 games (10 starts) at Memphis (AAA).
- Contract was purchased from Memphis on 9/1. Made his Cardinals debut on 9/4 at MIL. Allowed four runs (two earned) on six hits in six innings of work, as the Cards lost 4-2.
- Earned his lone Cardinals victory at CHI on 9/20. Tossed six shutout innings and allowed four hits while striking out five.
- Posted a strong outing at CIN on 9/26, but did not earn a decision as the Reds claimed a 7-5 win in 12 innings. Allowed just one run on three hits in six innings and equaled a career high with seven strikeouts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Played at Class-A Bend and was named to the Northwest League Postseason All-Star team after going 8-4 with a 1.95 ERA...led the league in complete games (4), strikeouts (102) and innings pitched (106.1)...also ranked among league leaders with 16 starts (T-1st), wins (2nd) and a .211 opponents' batting average (3rd).

1993 – Season was shortened by a right shoulder injury...began the year at Class-A Central Valley, where he went 1-0 with a 0.96 ERA in his first five starts...made 11 starts at Central Valley before jumping to Class-AAA Colorado Springs...began his Triple-A career 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA in his first four starts before suffering a shoulder injury on 6/30 while warming up in the bullpen...on 7/26 had surgery to repair minor fraying in the labrum...Dr. Wayne Gersoff performed the operation.

1994 – Tied for the Pacific Coast League lead with four complete games at Colorado Springs...made his Major League debut on 7/26 at SD and earned a 6-5 victory...was the first Rockies draft selection to play in the big leagues.

1995 – Split the season between Colorado and Colorado Springs...was optioned to Triple-A three times...opened the season at Colorado and on 4/26 vs. the Mets earned the franchise's first victory at Coors Field. 1995 POSTSEASON: In the division series vs. ATL, pitched the 10th inning of Game 3 and earned a save in the 7-5 win by retiring Mark Lemke, Chipper Jones and Fred McGriff.

1996 – In his first full Major League season appeared in 34 games for Colorado, including 28 starts...established career highs with nine wins, 169.2 innings, 99 strikeouts, and three complete games...on 5/19 vs. STL, threw a seven-hitter in a 10-3 victory for his first career complete game...from 8/6-24 established a career high with a three-game winning streak...began the streak with an 11-0 win vs. FLA on 8/6, his first career shutout and the first complete game shutout by a Rockies pitcher at Coors Field...recorded 13 hit batsmen, the fourth highest total in the N.L.

1997 – Opened the season in the Rockies' starting rotation and made six starts before going on the disabled list on 5/8 with a torn labrum in his right shoulder...made five minor league rehab starts before having surgery on 7/30 (Dr. James Andrews)...did not pitch again the rest of the season...on 4/15 at CHI hit his first career home run off Kent Bottenfield.

1998 – In an injury-plagued season pitched in just 11 games, including six starts for the Rockies and five starts on a rehab assignment...spent most of the season on the 60-day disabled list with a strained right shoulder and a severe strain in his right armpit...emerged from spring training as Colorado's fifth starter, but went 1-2 in six starts before going on the 15-day DL on 5/7...was transfered to the 60-day DL on 6/20...recorded his only victory of the season in his first start, a 5-3 win at HOU on 4/4...left his 4/24 start at FLA with weakness in his right shoulder...skipped his turn in the rotation and then made his final appearance of the season on 5/6 at PHI, leaving that game in the third inning with severe pain in his right armpit area...went on the DL the next day.

MISC: Graduated in 1989 from Logan County (Ky.) High School, where he lettered in baseball, basketball and football...attended the University of Kentucky and played three seasons of baseball...resides in Russellville, Ky.

M.L. SERVICE: 5.146

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

1999 SEASON:

- Established a Colorado club record with 31 saves, six more than the previous mark of 25 (Darren Holmes, 1993).
- Was outstanding on the road, where he saved 20 games in 21 opportunites while compiling a 2.52 ERA (10 ER, 35.2 IP), with nine walks and 38 strikeouts. Saved 11 of 18 chances at home with a 7.40 ERA (34 ER, 41.1 IP), 28 walks and 33 strikeouts.
- His 39 career saves with Colorado placed him third on the club's all-time saves list.
- Dominated the Dodgers, earning five saves in seven appearances. Allowed just one earned run in 7.0 innings (1.29), with one walk and 10 Ks.
- Did not allow a run in 10.0 innings (nine games) on artificial turf; recorded six saves, allowed eight hits and two walks and struck out 12 in those contests.
- Recorded saves in four straight appearances once (6/12 to 6/20) and in three straight on three occasions.
- Retired 52 of 73 first batters (74 percent) to lead the staff.
- Also led the Rockies' bullpen with a 0.52 (37-71) walks-to-strikeouts ratio.
- Tied for second in the N.L. with 63 games finished, one behind Robb Nen (SF).
- Established himself as the closer in spring training after holding the position for the final month of 1998.
- Retired the first batter he faced in his first 12 outings and in 15 of his first 16.
- Took the loss in Colorado's home opener on an 11th-inning home run by Jim Leyritz.
- Notched his first win 4/19 vs. MON, fanning two of the four batters he faced.
- Surrendered three solo homers to PHI on 5/9 in his first blown save of the season.
- Struck out nine batters in 5.0 innings over a four-game span 5/25 to 5/30.
- Combined with Darryl Kile and Mike DeJean on 1-0 victory 5/30 at PHI.
- Was 11-for-11 in save situations with a 1.33 ERA and 21 strikeouts from 6/12 to 7/25.
- Saved both games of a 7/3 doubleheader vs. SD, tying a club record. Repeated the feat less than three weeks later, in a 7/22 twin-bill at LA.
- Became first major leaguer since Jeff Brantley (1996) to save both games of a DH twice in a season.
- Saved all three games of 7/21-22 series at LA, allowing two hits and fanning five in 3.0 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1986 – Selected by Oakland in the January draft...started his pro career at Medford (A) of the Northwest League...led the league in starts (15).

1987 – Spent the entire season in Modesto's (A) starting rotation.

1988 – Split his season between Modesto and Huntsville (AA)...pitched a career-high 164.0 innings between the two stops.

1989 – Again worked in Huntsville's starting rotation...made one relief appearance, the first of his professional career...tossed two complete games, including his only career shutout.

1990 – Posted a career-high 11 wins in his first season at Triple-A Tacoma...made 23 starts and nine relief appearances, including his first professional save.

1991 – Acquired by the Dodgers from Oakland before the season...spent the year at Albuquerque (AAA).

1992 – Loaned by the Dodgers organization to the Mexico City Tigers of the Mexican League from 4/3 to 5/15...was released by the Dodgers following that stint and signed with Houston on 5/28...assigned to the Astros' Triple-A affiliate Tucson and worked almost exclusively out of the bullpen (made one start).

1993 – Split the season between the rotation (15 starts) and bullpen (28 games) at Tucson.

1994 – Opened the season at Tucson but was recalled by Houston on 5/9...lost his major league debut 5/10 at LA, allowing an unearned run in 0.1 inning of work...picked up his first big-league victory his next time out, 5/16 vs. SF (0.1 IP, 1 K)...earned first career save 8/6 vs. SF...did not walk a batter in his first 14 appearances (16.2 IP).

1995 – Led National League relievers with 103.1 innings, while his 72 appearances were second in the league to teammate Curtis Leskanic (76)...retired 53 of 72 (74%) first batters faced and allowed just 16 of 48 (33%) inherited runners to score...pitched two or more innings 22 times and went 3.0 innings four times...did not allow a run in his first 13 outings (4/26 to 5/21), a team-high 16.1-inning streak...his only save of the season came in a 2.2-inning scoreless appearance on 7/14 at SF.

1996 – Was traded to Montreal in the off-season...won his first four decisions for the Expos, giving him a personal career-high eight-game streak, dating to 1995...allowed just 10 earned runs over his final 34.2 innings (2.60 ERA)...hit safely in his first three at-bats of the season (two singles, one double) and finished the year 3-for-8...went 1-for-1 and drove in his first big-league run 4/28 at COL...left 6/18 game at COL and missed nine days 6/19 to 6/27 with a right flexor tendon strain.

1997 – Appeared in 53 games and pitched 62.0 innings in his second season with the Expos...earned his only save of the season with 4.0 innings of work 4/20 at PHI, the longest outing of his major league career...singled in his only at-bat of the season in that 4/20 game...left 8/17 game at SF with tightness behind his right shoulder, and then was placed on the 15-day disabled list with right knee inflammation (8/21 to 9/16)...pitched in four games after his return from the DL, allowing four earned runs in 3.1 innings.

1998 – After an off-season trade to Colorado, pitched mainly in middle relief but finished 26 games and recorded eight saves...led the bullpen in innings (76.1), ERA (2.83) and strikeouts (74)...averaged 8.7 strikeouts and 3.1 walks per nine innings pitched...held opponents to .233 batting average, second on the staff...his eight saves were one more than his career total entering the season...earned three saves and compiled a 2.35 ERA in June (12 games) and picked up three more saves and a win with an 0.84 ERA in September (10 games)...won Rockies' Player of the Month honors for September, the first pitcher to win the award since Darren Holmes in August 1993...went 3-1 with five saves and a 1.72 ERA, walked eight and struck out 27 in 29 appearances after the All-Star break...surrendered just one run in his last 20 games (21.1 IP, 0.42 ERA), dropping his ERA from 3.76 to 2.83...longest outing of the season was a 3.0-inning, four-strikeout effort 4/24 at FLA...put together 11.1 consecutive scoreless innings covering nine appearances from 4/14 to 5/13...struck out 13, walked four and allowed eight hits over that span...fanned at least one batter in 21 of 22 outings 4/11 to 6/20, and in 12 straight games beginning 5/16...final three saves came in consecutive appearances 9/18, 9/20 and 9/23...preserved a 1-0, 11-inning victory for Darryl Kile in the 9/20 game at SD...went 0-for-1 in his only career pinch-hitting appearance.

MISC: Graduated in 1984 from Gresham (Ore.) High School and attended Mount Hood Community College for two years...with his father in the Air Force, he participated in the Little League World Series, playing for the team from Europe...he lists that experience at Williamsport, Pa., as his most memorable in baseball...Dave and his wife Robin reside in Castle Rock, CO, with their daughter Terryn and son Ty...name is pronounced VEERZ.

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected by the Cardinals in second round of the June 1995 free-agent draft, with Philadelphia's pick as compensation for the loss of Gregg Jefferies.

M.L. SERVICE: 0.000

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000.

1999 SEASON:

- Sprained right elbow put him on the shelf in spring training, and forced him to start the season on the disabled list. Returned to action in mid-April.
- Spent second-straight season at Class-AA Arkansas and batted .272 with a career-high eight home runs, but only 15 RBIs. Batted just .109 with runners in scoring position.
- Was on the disabled list for three weeks with a strained hamstring in early June and again in July with back spasms. Has been on DL eight times in his five-year career.
- String of 25 or more steals ended at three years after seeing his season total dip to 11.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1995 – Selected by the Cardinals in the second round of the June, 1995 free-agent draft, with Philadelphia's pick as compensation for the loss of Gregg Jefferies...spent his first professional season at Rookie-League affiliate Johnson City and batted .279 with 14 RBIs in 31 games...went 2-for-3 with a double and RBI in his first professional game...batted .556 in four games against Martinsville...played for Cardinals' Winter Instructional League club.

1996 – Speedy infielder played 108 games at Class-A Peoria, where he batted .257 with 12 doubles, eight triples, 27 RBIs and 28 stolen bases...tied for third in the organization in triples and ranked fourth in stolen bases.

1997 – Moved up to Class-A Prince William, but missed eight weeks of the season with two different stints on the disabled list (strained groin and migraine headaches)...hit safely in 11 straight games from 5/24 to 6/4...his 10th-inning RBI single was the game-winner in a 2-0 win over Frederick on 7/10.

1998 – Played through an injury-plagued season at Class-AA Arkansas and batted .265 with four home runs and 16 RBIs...was on the disabled list with a strained groin from 4/10 to 4/22...had just returned to action when he suffered a dislocated finger in his right (throwing) hand and was again disabled from 4/29 to 6/21...from 8/13 to 8/27 he put together a 15-game hitting streak in which he batted .333 (21-for-63) with eight doubles and 10 stolen bases...despite playing just 76 games, he ranked fifth in the organization in stolen bases (28) and tied for seventh in triples (5)...collected more than 25 steals for the third straight season...played for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League...batted .243 in 18 games, with one home run and seven RBIs.

MISC: Graduated from American High School in Miami, Fla., in 1995...played baseball and received all-county and all-state accolades...led American High to district championships as a junior and senior...resides in Miami, Fla...married to wife, Milria.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to win the title.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out, two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood with the winning run. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at the time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award. The Cardinals played their first season at Busch on AstroTurf, which replaced the original natural-grass field.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extended his major league record for most seasons with 200 or more strikeouts to nine. He also set an N.L. career mark for righthanders with his 2,786th strikeout. Brock extended his record for most consecutive seasons of 50 or more stolen bases to eight. The Cardinals drew their 50 millionth fan since 1900.

1973 Brock stole his 600th base, moving into ninth place on the all-time list, and extended his major league record for most consecutive seasons with 50 or more steals to nine. Gibson moved into second place on the all-time strikeout list. Joe Torre collected his 2,000th hit and 1,000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' single-season mark and surpasses Max Carey's N.L. career record. Brock moves from ninth to second on the all-time career stolen base list. Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000 fans, the third-highest home attendance in their history. The Redbirds and Mets play a 25-inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride is named the N.L. Rookie Of The Year.

1975 Brock gets career hit No. 2,500 and stolen base No. 800. Gibson retires after a 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by a standing-room crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day attracts 50,548 fans, the largest regular-season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in the league batting race with a .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins the National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on managing, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post-season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries. The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record. The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9 games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 games as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win a New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite finishing fifth, the club drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on Sept. 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout," the Cardinals never lived up to expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Interim manager Red Schoendienst took over until Aug. 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth straight year, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players at key positions. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and plugged Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the schedule, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition outscored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

1995 The season was disappointing in most respects, with the Cardinals posting a 62-81 mark and their worst winning percentage (.434) since 1990. The schedule was reduced to 144 games due to the players' strike that continued into the first week of April. Once play began on April 26, the Cardinals never challenged for the NL Central lead. On June 16, Manager Joe Torre was fired and replaced by Mike Jorgensen. Although the team languished near the Central Division basement, there were a number of individual highlights. Reliever Tom Henke saved 36 of 38 opportunities, including a team-record 22 straight to begin the season, and won his first Rolaids Relief title. He also notched his 300th career save, becoming the seventh pitcher to reach that plateau. Henke headlined a bullpen that led the NL with a 2.71 ERA and a .225 opponents' batting mark. Rich DeLucia topped the team with eight wins (the lowest-ever total to lead the club), all in relief. While starters Danny Jackson and Ken Hill failed to fulfill expectations, Mike Morgan, who was acquired in a June trade for Todd Zeile, gave the Busch Stadium crowd a night to remember on July 3 when he held Montreal hitless for 8.1 innings. On offense, the Cardinals' outfield trio of Bernard Gilkey (a team-high .298 BA), Ray Lankford (25 HRs, 82 RBIs) and Brian Jordan (22 HRs, 81 RBIs) led the way. Lankford's team-high 25 homers were the most ever by a Cards center fielder, and he tied Jordan for the team lead with 24 steals, thus becoming only the fifth Cardinal and the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs and steals. Jordan and Lankford also formed the Redbirds' first 20-homer tandem since 1980. First baseman/outfielder John Mabry (.307) narrowly missed qualifying for the NL Top 10 in batting, but his average topped all NL rookies and earned him a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team. Ozzie Smith, who was slowed by a shoulder injury, added to his collection of fielding records on Sept. 15 when he turned his 1,554th double play, an all-time high among shortstops. He also became the first big-league shortstop since 1950 to play at the age of 40 and the first Cardinal shortstop to do so since 1918. Off the bench, veteran Gerald Perry became the club's all-time pinch-hit leader (70), rookie Mark Sweeney hit in seven straight pinch at-bats (one short of the major league record) and Danny Sheaffer hit the Cards' first pinch grand slam in nearly 10 years. The Cardinals took part in two bizarre games at Dodger Stadium: on May 12 they committed seven errors, their highest single-game total since 1940, and on Aug. 10 they recorded a 2-1 forfeit win, the first forfeited game in the majors since 1979. A busy off-season included the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the announced sale of the club to a group of long-time Cardinals fans led by Fred Hanser, William DeWitt Jr. and Andrew Baur. The Busch playing surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass prior to the '96 season.

1996 With new ownership, new Manager Tony LaRussa and a variety of new players in place, the Cardinals made their first postseaon appearance since 1987. The year also marked the end of an era, as shortstop Ozzie Smith completed his 19th, and final, major league campaign. The Cardinals began their climb to their first N.L. Central Division title after falling nine games below .500 following a series sweep by Colorado in mid-May. They rebounded with a sweep of the division-rival Astros in Houston, went on to record a 17-10 mark in June and reached the All-Star break tied for the division lead. The race remained close until Labor Day weekend, when the Redbirds swept three games from the first-place Astros to take over the division lead for good. Right fielder Brian Jordan led the league with a .422 batting average with runners in scoring position and teamed with center fielder Ray Lankford, the N.L. fielding leader, to provide dazzling outfield defense. New left fielder Ron Gant led the team with 30 homers despite missing over a month to injury. Brothers Andy (18-10) and Alan Benes (13-10) combined for 31 wins, and newcomer Todd Stottlemyre fashioned 14 victories in his first N.L. season. Lefthander Donovan Osborne won a career-high 13 games. The bullpen was anchored by former Oakland relief ace Dennis Eckersley, who saved 30 games in 34 tries. Fan-favorite Willie McGee returned to the club after five years with San Francisco and Boston and batted .307, including .350 in the pinch. The season also featured many record-setting achievements: The Cardinals tied a 56-year-old club record with a seven-homer game (July 12 at Chicago); the pitching staff recorded a team-record 1,050 strikeouts; and Willie McGee's five-RBI inning tied Chick Hafey's 1930 mark. The Cardinals retired the uniform numbers of Red Schoendienst (2), Enos Slaughter (9) and Ozzie Smith (1). In their first postseason appearance in nine years, the Cardinals swept a best-of-five Division Series from San Diego. After taking a 3-1 lead over defending World Series champion Atlanta in the NLCS, the Cardinals lost three straight.

1997 After beginning the season with a six-game losing streak, the Cardinals never climbed above .500 and finished in fourth place with a 73-89 record, 11 games behind division-winner Houston. The Redbirds did manage to take sole possession of first place for two days (July 2-3), and their high-water mark for the season was an even .500 (41-41). But after trailing first-place Pittsburgh by only two games at the All-Star break, the Cardinals dropped to 7½ back by the end of July. During the course of the season, the Cardinals set several club records. They used a record 51 players (including 24 pitchers), swatted a franchise-record 144 round-trippers (one more than their 1955 total of 143), and established team highs in strikeouts — at the plate (1,191) and on the mound (1,130). Ray Lankford, who missed the first two weeks of the season while recovering from shoulder surgery, emerged as a star-caliber player, leading the team with a career-high 31 homers (the most ever by a Cards center fielder) and career-best 98 RBIs. He finished only percentage points behind team batting leader Delino DeShields (.2954 to .2946). Slugger Mark McGwire arrived July 31 and belted 24 home runs as a Cardinal, including 15 in September (a club record for one month). He finished with 58 homers, tying the major league record for righthanded hitters. McGwire became just the fifth player to hit as many as 58 home runs and only the second, next to Babe Ruth, to record 50 or more in consecutive seasons. "Big Mac's" total of 110 homers in 1996 and '97 are the most ever back-to-back by a righty. He finished the year by homering in 12 consecutive series, but none of those blasts matched the flair of the 517-foot shot he launched above the left-field scoreboard in his first at-bat on Sept. 16, the day he announced he'd signed a multiyear contract with the club. Pitcher Matt Morris displayed much promise in his first season, leading N.L. rookie pitchers in wins (12), ERA (3.19), complete games (three), strikeouts (149), opponents' batting average (.258) and innings pitched (217). He topped the staff in victories and starts (33). DeShields led the team in batting (.295), hits (169), triples (14), sacrifice flies (six) and stolen bases (55). He was the first Cardinal since Lankford in 1991 to lead the league in triples. The Cardinals posted an 8-7 record against A.L. opponents in their first year of interleague play. They swept a three-game series from Minnesota but lost three at Milwaukee. The team drew 2,634,014 fans, the fifth-highest total in club history. Before the season, the Cardinals added a hand-operated scoreboard in center field and moved the visitors' bullpen to right field.

1998 While Mark McGwire slugged his way to a record-setting season, the Cardinals finished in third place for the fifth time in the last decade, 19 games behind Central Division champion Houston. The 83-79 Cardinals jumped out of the gate strong, as McGwire began his march toward 70 home runs by going deep in each of the first four games, helping the Redbirds to a 16-11 record through April. As injuries took their toll, the Cardinals labored into the All-Star recess in fourth place, 12½ games out of first, with a 40-46 record. The team wound up closing the season with a 43-33 record after the break, including an 18-7 mark in September, the franchise's best record in that month since moving into Busch Stadium in 1966. McGwire remained the center of attention throughout the year, captivating a national audience as he marched toward Roger Maris' 1961 single-season record of 61 homers. Big Mac eclipsed the record with his 62nd homer at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, Sept. 8. The record-breaking homer came with two outs in the fourth inning —a solo shot to left field off Cubs' righthander Steve Trachsel. McGwire set a bevy of records during his home run tour de force. He walked 162 times to set a new N.L. standard, averaged one home run every 7.27 at-bats to break his 1996 major league record of one homer every 8.13 at-bats, hit an N.L.-record 38 home runs at home and became the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three consecutive seasons. McGwire also set a club record for most home runs in one month when he hit 16 in May, became the first Cardinal to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, hit the longest home run in Busch Stadium history (an estimated 545 feet on May 16) and became the oldest player (34 years, 324 days) in major league history to hit as many as 50 homers in a season. Home run records weren't McGwire's exclusive domain, however, as the team collectively set a single-season club mark with 223 homers, most in the National League and second-most in N.L. history. The Cardinals hit 10 homers in the pinch, also a team record, and homered in a team-record 17 straight games (34 homers total) from May 7 to May 25. The Cardinals' lineup featured four players with at least 20 homers for the first time ever, with McGwire and the outfield trio of Ray Lankford (31 homers), Ron Gant (26) and Brian Jordan (25) making history. McGwire and Lankford combined for 101 home runs, becoming just the third pair of teammates in big-league history to top the century mark in one year. Lankford wound up with a career-high 105 RBIs and became the all-time Busch Stadium home run leader, reaching 87 in his career. Outfielder J.D. Drew, the Cards' first selection (fifth overall) in the June amateur draft, signed a major league contract July 3 and made his big-league debut Sept. 8. On the pitching staff, 15 hurlers drew starting assignments, though the staff became more solidified in the second half as players returned from injuries. Righthander Matt Morris was activated from the disabled list on July 10 and led the staff after the All-Star break with seven wins and a 2.48 ERA. Cardinals fans turned out in record numbers, setting club home (3,194,092) and road (2,766,984) attendance marks. The club sold out its final 14 home games (the entire September home schedule).

1999 The Cardinals concluded the 20th century almost exactly the way they began it — their .466 winning percentage (75-86) in '99 was nearly identical to their .464 mark in 1900, and they finished 21½ games out of first place, slightly off their 19-game deficit 99 years earlier. Mark McGwire followed his record-setting 70-homer season of 1998 with a 65-homer campaign in 1999 and led the league with 147 RBIs. While extending his record string of consecutive 50-homer seasons to four, McGwire climbed 10 spots on the all-time home run list, moving into 10th place with 522 career blasts. He hit No. 500 on Aug. 5 off San Diego's Andy Ashby, reaching the plateau in the fewest at-bats (5,487) in big-league history. Third baseman Fernando Tatis enjoyed a banner offensive season that included a .298 batting average, 34 home runs and 107 RBIs. He also stole 21 bases to become just the fourth player (and first infielder) in Cardinals history to have a 20-homer/20-steal season. Tatis led the league with a .692 batting average (9-for-13) with the bases loaded, and on April 23 he became the first player to hit two grand slams in the same inning, connecting for both off the Dodgers' Chan Ho Park. Tatis' three grand slams during the year tied a club record, and his 34 homers were the most ever by a Redbirds third sacker. Joe McEwing's 25-game hitting streak from June 8 through July 4 established a club mark for rookies, ranking as the fifth-longest by a rookie in major league history. Shortstop Edgar Renteria led the team in games (154), at-bats (585), hits (161), doubles (36), and stolen bases (37). Pitcher Kent Bottenfield matched his career victory total by posting an 18-7 record. Bottenfield, who took a 14-3 record into his first career All-Star Game appearance, led the staff in wins, ERA (3.97), strikeouts (124) and starts (31). Rookie Jose Jimenez provided one of the season's other pitching success stories on June 25, when he no-hit Arizona, winning a 1-0 duel over the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson. Jimenez became the 23rd rookie to toss a no-hitter and just the second Cardinals rookie to do so, after Paul Dean in 1934. Fan-favorite Willie McGee announced his retirement after the season, ending an 18-year major league career that included an N.L. MVP Award, two batting titles and 2,254 hits. Cardinals fans again passed through the turnstiles at a record clip, breaking the team home (3,225,334) and road (2,820,564) attendance marks for the second consecutive season.

BUSCH STADIUM
1966 — 2000

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. decided that if the team was to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 34-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Through the 1999 season, more than 70 million people have attended 2,617 games at Busch Stadium.

Recent improvements include the installation in 1997 of a hand-operated scoreboard flanked by flag decks commemorating the club's World Series championships and retired numbers; the return in 1996 to a natural-grass playing surface, which replaced the artificial turf that had been in place since 1970; the opening in 1996 of the Family Pavilion, featuring a variety of games and attractions for families and children, and Homer's Landing, a picnic area located above the bullpen in left-center field; and the return of a more traditional "ballpark green" color scheme for the outfield fence and stadium trim.

Other improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. The Stadium Club was totally renovated and included the addition of a sports-themed bar.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet, covers more than 12 acres and is 130-feet tall, measured from the playing field to the top of the stadium.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

BUSCH STADIUM'S MOST RECENT ADDITIONS

"Batter's Eye" Club – Located in straightaway center field between the bleachers, this glass-enclosed suite provides up to 252 fans a direct line of sight to home plate from a perch just above the playing field. The 80-foot wide club features a specially tinted antireflective glass on its front surface, which serves as the hitter's backdrop. A newly designed tri-vision ad panel sits above the club and replaces the existing ad panel that formerly served as the hitter's backdrop. Tickets for the club, which also features cushioned seating outdoors and an all-you-can-eat buffet, can be purchased in quantities of two to 252.

Statue Tributes – The club will add two more statues—those of Dizzy Dean and Rogers Hornsby—to the series of bronze sculptures that appear outside the stadium to honor the players who helped forge the Cardinals' championship tradition. Statues of Lou Brock, Red Schoendienst and Enos Slaughter were dedicated last year, following the inaugural 1998 dedications of statues honoring Bob Gibson, Stan Musial and Jack Buck. The statues, created by sculptor Harry Weber, will form an outdoor promenade that eventually will extend from Gate Six to Gate Seven.

"Suite 70" – This party room was destined to take its new name after Mark McGwire's record-setting 70th homer soared into the suite on Sept. 27, 1998. Located on the field-box level directly above the left-field wall, the suite is available for groups up to 80.

BUSCH STADIUM ATTRACTIONS

Busch Stadium Family Pavilion – The Busch Stadium Family Pavilion, located between Gates 7 and 8, adjacent to the Stan Musial statue and Plaza of Champions, features a variety of attractions inside and outside Busch Stadium. The Family Pavilion is open before, during and after all home games, as well as for selected special events during the year. All fans with a Cardinals ticket are admitted to the Pavilion for free. There is a nominal charge for select activities. The Family Pavilion's interactive games and attractions include:

- Power Alley – Fans have the opportunity to step into a state-of-the-art batting cage and hit real baseballs thrown by life-size video images of popular major league pitchers.
- Pitcher's Dream – Pitchers can take the mound to test their speed and accuracy with the latest in radar speed pitch technology.
- Fantasy Play-by-Play – Future broadcasters will get their chance to enter the broadcast booth and call great moments in Major League Baseball history and come away with a videotape of their experience.
- Sports Video Stations – The latest in computer sports video games will be geared to challenge rookies as well as big-leaguers.
- Family Pavilion Food Plaza – A place for fans to sit down and enjoy specialty food and beverages in a relaxing atmosphere.

Homer's Landing Picnic Area – Before the 1996 season, part of the left-field bleachers area was redesigned as a picnic area, complete with tables, concessions and a panoramic view of the action. Accessible to all fans entering Busch Stadium, the tiered picnic area also offers a great view of the visitors bullpen. The picnic area also is available to groups for pregame parties and events.

Power Alley – Similar to Homer's Landing in left-center field, the stadium's newest picnic area overlooks the Cardinals' bullpen in right-center field. The "Power Alley" features a picnic buffet and unlimited beverage service for fans who purchase tickets for reserved tables. Groups of four to 196 people can reserve tables for the entire game.

Luxury Suites – In 1998, four new luxury suites were built behind the field-box seats behind home plate. Each suite holds about 24 people.

New Box Seats – The premium "club box" seats, originally installed before the 1996 season, were expanded in 1998 into the areas formerly occupied by the TV cameras, next to both dugouts. Behind the club boxes, a new class of fully padded "diamond box" seats was added in the first six rows between the dugouts. An additional row of dugout box seats was installed behind the first- and third-base lines.

BUSCH STADIUM GROUND RULES

POSTPONED GAMES AT BUSCH STADIUM

There have been 55 regular-season games and two postseason games postponed in the 34-year history of Busch Stadium. There were a season-high four postponed games in 1967, 69, 70 and 74. The home opener has been postponed three times: in 1973 by cold weather and in 1991 and 1994 by rain. The last time the Cardinals were postponed by snow at Busch was April 10, 1997. The last postponed game occurred September 28, 1999.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:
Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:
Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:
Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:
1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:
A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:
15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.
60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

MIKE JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mike Jorgensen begins his ninth year as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development.

Jorgensen was named to the position on February 5, 1992, after his predecessor, Ted Simmons, joined the Pittsburgh Pirates as general manager. Jorgensen had been working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990 after managing the Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, Jorgensen also remained in his post as director of player development. He returned to player development full time following the 1995 season.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, Jorgensen was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who had been hired to manage the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen led St. Petersburg to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal in a multiplayer deal for Rusty Staub at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland (1977), Texas (1978-79), the Mets again (1980-83), Atlanta (1983-84) and the Cardinals (1984-85), arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, N.J., and his wife, the former Brenda Rice, have three children; Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81) and one grandchild; Eric (10-12-95). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., and attended St. John's University. Jorgensen enjoys quail hunting, cooking and coaching basketball in his spare time.

JEFF SCOTT
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PROCUREMENT

Jeff Scott was appointed in November 1998 to this position in the Cardinals' player development department after serving as a special assignment scout with the club since 1996. In his position, Scott oversees the club's amateur scouting operations and draft selections. He also assists with special assignment scouting at the general manager's direction.

Before joining the Cardinals, Scott was scouting director for the Detroit Tigers from 1994 to '96, for Cleveland in 1988 and for the Seattle Mariners in 1984 and '85. He also was the Indians' director of scouting and player development in 1986 and '87, the Mariners' assistant scouting director in 1982 and '83, and a scout with Colorado in 1996. Major leaguers scouted and signed by Scott include Edgar Martinez, Albert Belle, Omar Vizquel, Charles Nagy, Greg Swindell, Jeff Shaw and Bill Swift.

A former pitcher, Scott was drafted by the Texas Rangers in the third round of the 1972 amateur draft. He pitched for four years in the Rangers' system, reaching the Double-A level before injuries cut short his career. He then worked as a pitching coach for four years with the Rangers' Class-A Asheville club and managed Seattle's short-season Bellingham affiliate from 1979 to '83.

Scott, 45, and his wife, Vicki, have three children, Jennifer, Sara and Ryan.

JOHN MOZELIAK
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING OPERATIONS

John Mozeliak begins his second season as the Cardinals' scouting director after being appointed to the job in November 1998. He joined the organization following the 1995 season, serving as an assistant in scouting operations in 1996 and 1997, and as the assistant scouting director in 1998.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies, where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations.

Mozeliak, 31, is a graduate of the University of Colorado and a member of the Missouri Scouts Association. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, and daughter, Allyson More (7/22/99).

MARTY MARTINEZ
SUPERVISOR OF LATIN AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT

Marty Martinez begins his first season in the Cardinals' farm system in this newly created position. Martinez will focus on developing the organization's young Latin American talent playing in Central America and for Cardinals affiliates up to the Class-A level.

Martinez joins the Cardinals after working for five years as the Detroit Tigers' roving minor league infield instructor. Before joining the Tigers, Martinez spent 15 seasons in Seattle's system in a variety of positions. With the Mariners, he served as a minor league manager (1980, 1994-95), roving minor league instructor (1981-84, 1987-88), instructional staff supervisor (1989) and Latin scouting supervisor (1990-91). He also was a major league coach from 1984-86 and in 1992. Martinez was a scout with the Texas Rangers in 1979 and a manager in their farm system from 1975 through '78.

As a player, Martinez was originally signed by the Washington Senators in 1960 and made his debut as a 20-year-old infielder with Minnesota in 1962. He wound up playing all nine positions during his seven-year major league career, which included nine games with the Cardinals in 1972, and batted a career-high .308 with Houston in 1969. Martinez, 58, resides in Tulsa, Okla.

FRED McALISTER
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Fred McAlister became a Cardinals special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in 12 of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. McAlister's drafts produced more than 70 players who suited up for the Cardinals, as well as 17 players who reached the majors with other organizations.

McAlister also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967 to '69. He then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969 to 1979.

McAlister, 72, resides in Clearwater, Fla., with his wife, Patty.

GEORGE KISSELL
SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to Director of Player Development Mike Jorgensen. Because of his expertise in fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since joining the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals' coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, N.Y., native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (N.Y.) College. Last season, he was honored with a plaque that hangs outside Busch Stadium in recognition of his many years of service with the club, most of them as a teacher. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.

JOE PETTINI
MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Pettini begins his fourth year as the organization's minor league field coordinator. He managed eight seasons in the system, most recently at Class-AAA Louisville, where he guided the Redbirds to the 1995 American Association championship. Overall, he was 475-569 at the helm of the Cardinals' farm affiliates.

The 45-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with Hamilton, Ontario. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991 to '93 seasons (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he signed with the Montreal Expos as a nondrafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, W.V., and graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, W.V., in 1973. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, Ga. Pettini married the former Barbara Sperlazza on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

MARK RIGGINS
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Riggins is entering his fifth season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator and his 17th season in the system. In 1995, he served as the Cardinals' pitching coach under Joe Torre and Mike Jorgensen and was the pitching coach at Louisville from 1990 to 1994.

Riggins, 43, began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, to Arkansas in 1986, to Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining Louisville in 1990. Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of 1983.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three-year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Murray, Ky., with his wife, Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.

DYAR MILLER
ASSISTANT MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Miller begins his fourth season as a roving pitching instructor after spending the 1995 and '96 seasons as the pitching coach at Louisville.

Miller previously coached in the Cardinals' system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians' organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 53-year-old former pitcher was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born May 29, 1946, in Batesville, Ind. He graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. He and his wife, the former Bertha Jo Williams, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Indianapolis. Miller, a teacher during the off-season, enjoys golf, hiking and fishing.

RAY BURRIS
ROVING PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

A former Cardinal and veteran of 15 big-league seasons, Burris returns to the organization this season as a roving pitching instructor. Burris, winner of 108 decisions in his career, twice won 15 games with the Cubs (in 1975 and '76) and pitched in 23 games for the 1986 Cardinals.

After retiring as a player, Burris was a minor league pitching coach for Milwaukee in 1988 and '89 and the Brewers' bullpen coach in 1990 and '91. He also worked as a roving instructor, special assistant to the general manager, advance scout and community development employee for Milwaukee. In 1992 Burris joined the Texas Rangers as an assistant pitching coach before moving to their front office from 1993 to '95. He served as the Rangers' special assistant for community development and special projects, and as assistant to the vice president of community development.

Since 1996, Burris has owned and operated his own businesses, the Academy of Sports Instruction and B & A Sports Promotions. He resides in Arlington, Tex., with his wife, Debra. They have five children: daughter Deneen, an assistant basketball coach at Southern Methodist, and four sons in college, Djemal, Raymon, Damon, and B.J.

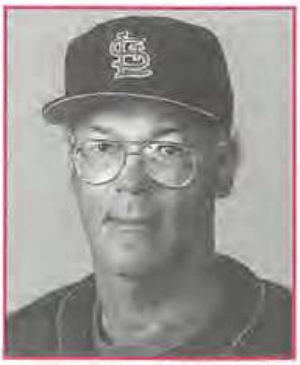
MITCHELL PAGE
MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Page begins his second year as the Cardinals' minor league hitting coordinator after joining the organization in 1998 as the hitting coach at Class-AAA Memphis. Before coming to the Cardinals, Page was the Kansas City Royals' first-base coach for the 1995-97 seasons and Oakland's Triple-A hitting instructor and first-base coach, at Tacoma, for the 1992-94 seasons.

As a player, Page enjoyed an eight-season big-league career with Oakland (1977-83) and Pittsburgh (1984). He was originally drafted by the Pirates in the third round of the June 1973 amateur draft but was sent to Oakland in a nine-player trade in March 1977. That year, he batted .307, hit 21 homers, drove in 75 runs and stole 42 bases — all career-best totals — and was named The Sporting News' A.L. Rookie of the Year.

Page was born October 15, 1951, in Compton, Calif., and has one son, Kyle. He resides in Oakland.



DAVE RICKETTS
MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Ricketts is entering his 27th year as an instructor with the organization.

The 64-year-old Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. He spent his last season as a player with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1970.

Ricketts began his coaching career with the Pirates, serving as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a major league coach in 1974. In 1976, he was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach form 1978 to 1991. In 1995, he was the pitching coach at Savannah.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, Pa. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife, Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

GAYLEN PITTS
MEMPHIS

Gaylen Pitts is entering his 20th season in the organization and his fourth successive year as manager of the Cardinals' Class-AAA affiliate. He begins his third season at the helm of the Memphis Redbirds following the move of the organization's Triple-A outpost to Tennessee in 1998. Pitts managed the Redbirds in their final season at Louisville in 1997. He also served as Louisville's manager in 1990 and coached there in 1983 and '84.

Pitts returned to the farm system in 1996 as Minor League Field Coordinator after serving the previous five seasons as a coach at the major league level. He was the Cardinals' bullpen coach from 1991-94 and third-base coach in 1995.

Pitts also has managed Cardinal farm teams at Arkansas (1981-82, '89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87) and Johnson City. He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts was signed by the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, 53, resides in Mountain Home, Ark., with his wife, Julia, and son, Travis Ray (6-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow- and water-skiing, and racquetball.

CHRIS MALONEY
ARKANSAS

Maloney begins his third successive season as skipper at Arkansas, where he earned honors as 1998 Texas League Manager of the Year for guiding the 80-60 Travelers to a regular-season title and their first trip to the postseason since 1989.

A member of the farm system's coaching and managerial ranks since 1988, Maloney has a career 536-432 (.554) record in eight seasons as a manager. In 1993, Maloney guided the Savannah Cardinals to a 94-48 record and the South Atlantic League championship — a feat that warranted his selection by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as its 1993 Minor League Manager of the Year. The year before, his .737 winning percentage (56-20) at Hamilton was the highest ever posted by a Cardinals farm team, earning Maloney recognition as the New York-Penn League Manager of the Year.

Maloney also has managed at St. Petersburg in 1995 (64-67) and '96 (75-63), at Arkansas in 1994 (68-67) and at Johnson City in 1991 (40-26). As a coach in the system, he's had stops at Louisville (1997), Johnson City (1990), Arkansas (1989) and Springfield (1988).

Maloney was signed as a nondrafted free agent by the New York Mets in June 1983. The outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played for Springfield.

Maloney graduated in 1979 from St. Joseph High School in Jackson, Miss., and from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives with his wife, Laurie, in Jackson during the off-season.

JOE CUNNINGHAM
POTOMAC

Cunningham, a manager in six of his 11 seasons as an instructor in the Cardinals' system, begins his third consecutive season at the helm of the organization's Carolina League entry.

In 1993, his second year as a skipper, Cunningham was named the Appalachian League's Manager of the Year for guiding Johnson City to a 37-31 mark, falling just half a game short of a playoff berth. He was 28-28 at Chandler in his managerial debut in 1992, 66-73 at Madison in 1994 and 70-69 at Peoria in 1997. Cunningham served as a roving minor league instructor in 1996 after coaching at Louisville in 1995, Johnson City in 1990 and 1991, and Hamilton in 1989.

The 37-year-old Cunningham, son of former Cardinals' All-Star outfielder and longtime front office employee Joe Cunningham Jr., played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, Fla. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing. His wife's name is Desilee.

TOM LAWLESS
PEORIA

Lawless, a member of two Cardinals World Series teams as an infielder from 1985 to '88, returns to the organization this season as manager of the system's Midwest League entry. He spent the last three seasons as hitting coach for the New York Mets' Triple-A club.

Lawless worked in the Angels' organization from 1992 through 1996. After serving as California's baserunning coach in 1992 and '93, he worked in the minor leagues as a manager and coach. Lawless also managed in the Hawaiian League in the winter of 1997.

Lawless' playing career spanned the 1982 through 1990 seasons, covering stints with Cincinnati, Montreal, St. Louis and Toronto. He was a member of the Cardinals' 1985 and '87 World Series teams, with his lone hit earning him a permanent place in Redbirds Series lore. After collecting just two hits in 25 regular-season at-bats in '87, Lawless cracked a three-run homer in Game Four, punctuating the blast off Twins ace Frank Viola with a memorable flip of the bat as watched the ball sail over the left-field wall.

Lawless attended Penn State University-Behrend, where he earned a degree in political science. He resides in Wildwood, Mo., with his wife, Cheryl, and three daughters, Jessica, Samantha and Hillary.

JEFF SHIREMAN
NEW JERSEY

Shireman returns to manage at New Jersey for his second consecutive season and third overall there, including his 1997 managerial debut. In 1998, he managed the Peoria Chiefs to a 72-68 record.

Shireman, 34, coached at Arkansas in 1995 and '96 following the conclusion of his seven-year playing career in the Cardinals' system in 1994. Drafted by the Cardinals in June 1988, the infielder had stops at Johnson City, Springfield, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. Shireman attended Georgia Southern University, where he earned all-conference recognition in 1987 and '88 and Conference Player of the Year honors in 1988.

Shireman was born March 3, 1966, at Ames, Iowa. He graduated from Bucholz High School, where he received all-state honors in 1984 and all-district recognition from 1981 to 1983. He makes his off-season home in Little Rock, Ark., with his wife, Melissa, and two sons, Jonah and Jacob.

LUIS MELENDEZ
JOHNSON CITY

Former Cardinal outfielder Luis Melendez returns to the managerial ranks in 2000 after serving last season as a hitting and outfield instructor in the club's minor league system.

Melendez owns a 171-173 record as a Cardinals minor league skipper, highlighted by an 82-55 season and South Atlantic League championship at Savannah in 1994. He also managed at New Jersey in 1995, at Hamilton in 1990 and at Peoria in 1989. He coached in 1997-98 at Double-A Arkansas following a one-year coaching stint at Louisville in 1996. Melendez was a roving instructor in the system from 1991 to 1993. He coached at Hamilton in 1988, his first season on the club's minor league staff.

Melendez was signed by the Cardinals in 1968 and saw action in eight major league seasons with the Redbirds and Padres. He enjoyed his best year in 1973, establishing career highs in games (121), runs (35), hits (91), doubles (18) and RBIs (35).

Born August 11, 1949, in Aibonito, Puerto Rico, Melendez still makes his off-season home there.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

BOOTS DAY
MEMPHIS

Day begins his third season as a coach in the Cardinals' minor league system. He starts his second successive campaign at Triple-A Memphis after making his organizational coaching debut at Prince William in 1997. Day joined the Cardinals' staff after coaching the previous two seasons in the Cleveland Indians' organization, at Class-A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1997 and at Class-AAA Buffalo in 1996. He previously scouted for Kansas City, the New York Yankees and Detroit, and managed the Tigers' rookie-level Bristol club in 1982-83.

A former outfielder who made his big-league debut with the Cardinals in 1969, Day played for Montreal in five of his six major league seasons, splitting the 1970 schedule between the Expos and Cubs. He batted .256 during his career, including a .283 mark for Montreal in 1971.

Day, 52, was born and raised in Ilion, N.Y. He now resides in Ballwin, Mo., and has two daughters, Kori and Tara.

BILL CAMPBELL
MEMPHIS

Campbell begins his first year on the Cardinals' minor league staff as the pitching coach at Class-AAA Memphis after working the last eight seasons in the Milwaukee system.

Campbell, the Brewers' big-league pitching coach in 1999, spent the previous seven seasons as an instructor in Milwaukee's minor leagues. He worked as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Brewers in 1997-98, as a pitching coach at the Class-A level in 1996 and as a Triple-A pitching coach from 1992-95.

The 51-year-old Campbell pitched in 15 big-league campaigns, including the 1985 season as a member of the Cardinals. He appeared in three games in both the NLCS and World Series after pitching in 50 games during the regular season, one of seven seasons in which he worked at least 50 games. Campbell twice led the league in games pitched, with 82 for the 1983 Cubs and with 78 for the Twins in 1976, when he tied an American League record for most games won as a relief pitcher, posting a 17-5 record. Campbell appeared in the 1977 All-Star Game as a member of the Boston Red Sox, saving a league-leading 31 games that year with a 13-9 record.

Campbell resides in Palatine, Ill., with his wife, Linda, their two daughters, Emily and Marnie, and son, Joseph.

BRIAN RUPP
ARKANSAS

Rupp works his first season as a minor league coach after making the transition from minor league player to manager in 1999 as skipper of the Peoria Chiefs.

A native St. Louisan, Rupp played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1992-98 after being drafted in the 43rd round of the June 1992 amateur draft. He compiled a career .295 batting average, highlighted by a South Atlantic League batting title in 1993, when he hit .320 with 81 RBIs at Savannah, and a 1992 batting crown in the Arizona League, where he hit .386 while leading the league in hits and RBIs. Rupp, 28, was drafted as a shortstop from the University of Missouri-St. Louis but eventually found playing time at first and third base and the outfield.

A graduate of McCluer North High School, Rupp resides in Florissant, Mo., with his wife, Stacie.

DAVE LaPOINT
ARKANSAS

Former Cardinal Dave LaPoint returns to the organization in 2000 as pitching coach at Class-AA Arkansas.

A major leaguer for 12 seasons, LaPoint began his coaching career in 1993 as pitching coach for the San Pedro de Macoris Dominican Winter League team. After working as an agent in 1994, he was the general manager, manager and pitching coach for the Adirondack Lumberjacks of the Northeast League in 1995 and '96. He guided the team to a championship in their inaugural season.

LaPoint, 40, pitched for nine teams during his major league career, logging his longest tenure with the Cardinals, from 1981-'84 and 1987. LaPoint tied for the team lead with 12 wins in 1983 and was second with 12 victories in '84. In 1982, the rookie lefthander pitched the Cardinals to a 4-2 victory on Sept. 27, clinching the N.L. East title. Overall, he was 35-23 as a Redbird.

LaPoint resides in Glens Falls, N.Y., with his wife, Laura, and their three children, Cody (8), Casey (6) and Max (3). He also has two sons, Bobby (16) and Tommy (12). LaPoint and his wife own a travel agency, LaPoint's Travel Services, and sports bar, Dave LaPoint's Pitchers.

GLENN BRUMMER
POTOMAC

Brummer, the former Cardinals catcher who spent 11 seasons in the organization as a player, takes over as the hitting coach at Class-A Potomac after returning to the organization in 1999 as a coach at Double-A Arkansas. For the previous 10 seasons, Brummer had worked in the Phillies' farm system, as a roving catching instructor (1989-95) and as a coach at their Class-A Clearwater affiliate (1996-98).

Signed by the Cardinals in 1974, Brummer toiled in the system for seven seasons before making his big-league debut in May 1981. He appeared with the Cardinals through the 1984 campaign and became a fan favorite for his hustle and enthusiasm. He'll long be remembered for his heroics at Busch Stadium on Aug. 22, 1982, when he stole home in the 12th inning of a 2-2 game against San Francisco with 2 outs and a 2-2 count after reaching base with a pinch-single. Brummer appeared in one game in the World Series that fall and wound up his Cardinals tenure with a .238 average in 129 games. He batted .278 for Texas in 1985, his final major league campaign, and concluded his career with a .251 average.

Brummer, a 1971 graduate of Effingham (Ill.) High School, was signed out of Lakeland Junior College at Mattoon, Ill. He resides in Clearwater, Fla.

MARK GRATER
POTOMAC

Grater, 36, begins his third season as pitching coach for the Cardinals' Carolina League affiliate and his fourth year on the organization's minor league staff. In 1997, he was the pitching coach at New Jersey.

A former pitcher nicknamed "The Saver," Grater appeared in the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1991 and Detroit in 1993. He led the Florida State League with 32 saves at St. Petersburg in 1989 and the American Association with 24 saves for Louisville in 1992. Grater was the Cardinals' 24th-round pick in the June 1986 draft out of Florida International University. He is originally from Rochester, Pa., and resides in Monaca, Pa.

TODD STEVERSON
PEORIA

Beginning his second year in the system, Steverson joins the staff at Class-A Peoria after working the 1999 season at Potomac. Steverson wrapped up his playing career in 1998 as an outfielder with the Cardinals' Class-AAA Memphis club, capping a seven-year career that included big-league appearances with Detroit in 1995 and San Diego in '96. .

Steverson, 28, originally was drafted out of Culver City (Calif.) High School by the Cardinals in the sixth round of the June 1989 amateur draft but elected instead to attend Arizona State University. Three years later, he was a first-round pick (25th overall) by Toronto.

Steverson, a cousin of former major leaguer Ron LeFlore, resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

SID MONGE
PEORIA

Monge begins his first year in the Cardinals' system as pitching coach for Class-A Peoria. The former big-league lefthander spent the previous three seasons in the Padres' minor league chain, working as pitching coach for their rookie club in Peoria, Ariz., in 1998-99 and as pitching coach for Triple-A Las Vegas in 1997. Before joining the Padres, Monge spent five seasons as a pitching coach in Detroit's farm system.

Monge was 49-40 with a 3.53 ERA in a career that spanned 10 seasons. He played with the Angels (1975-77), Indians (1977-1981), Phillies (1982-1983), Padres (1983-84) and Tigers (1984). Monge was a member of the American League All-Star team in 1979, when he posted career bests with 76 appearances, 12 victories, 108 strikeouts and a 2.40 ERA.

Monge, 49, and his wife, Carol, have three children, Michael, Amanda and John.

GARY BUCKELS
NEW JERSEY

Buckels, 34, enters his fourth season on the Cardinals' minor league staff and second at New Jersey after coaching at Peoria in 1997 and '98. Buckels playing career spanned eight seasons, starting in the California Angels' organization in 1987. He appeared in 10 games with the Cardinals in 1994, going 0-1 with a 2.25 ERA. The same year, he was named to the Triple-A All-Star team while pitching for Louisville.

Buckels was born in La Mirada, Calif., and attended Cal State-Fullerton. He resides in Orange, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and daughters, Megan and Tarah.

ELIAS SOSA
JOHNSON CITY

Sosa, 49, begins his second year on the Cardinals' minor league staff. He spent the 1997 and '98 seasons with MLB International's envoy program, which sends coaches to 25 countries around the world to hold clinics, spot players and promote the game. Sosa was a pitching coach in the Montreal system from 1989 to '91 and in San Francisco's system from 1994 to '96.

As a durable reliever, Sosa pitched for eight teams in a big-league career that spanned 12 seasons (1972-83). He was 59-51 with 83 saves in 601 games and appeared in 14 games with the Cardinals in 1975. He was part of the Dodgers' 1977 World Series title team.

Fax: (314) 982-7399

Brian Bartow — Director
Steve Zesch — Manager
Brad Hainje — Assistant
Melody Yount — Assistant

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Cardinals on a daily basis. Season credentials must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made in writing to the Cardinals Media Relations Office. Deadlines for credentials are as follows: Season – March 17; Daily – two working days prior to the game requested. All agencies must have a letter on file to have credentials issued. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only. No spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media also are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available at the press gate, between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. After 5 p.m., credentials are available at the Press Will Call window (located next to the press gate). Photo identification is required.

ADMISSION — The media entrance is through the press gate, located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium.

PRESS BOX — Take the elevators to Level 5. All persons entering the press box must sign in. The press box and broadcast booths are located on Level 5. The press box is for working members of the media only.

MEDIA DINING — Located inside the press box. It is open for meal service 1-1/2 hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately 90 minutes after the game for beverage service. There is a $5 charge for meals.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals' and visitors' clubhouses are located on Level 1. Access the clubhouses by taking the elevator to Level 1 and then walking to the clubhouses. All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than ten minutes following the game's conclusion. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc.

FIELD — All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch. No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., photo pass).

NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box two hours prior to game time. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES — Five credit-card-only telephones are available for media use in the main press area. Two pay phones are also available in the press box.

TICKETS — All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to the Cardinals Media Relations Office at least 24 hours before the start of the requested game. Requests for Saturday and Sunday games must be made by 2 p.m. Friday. Tickets can be picked up at the Press Will Call windows between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium 90 minutes prior to the game. Photo identification is required.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING — 2000

RADIO

KMOX Radio, St. Louis, is the flagship station for a network of more than 100 stations covering 11 states. It will broadcast all 2000 games with commentary by Jack Buck, Mike Shannon and Joe Buck.

TELEVISION

WB-11, St. Louis, will televise 45 regular-season games locally and to a network of approximately 20 stations reaching seven states. Fox Sports Net, a regional cable network, will televise 58 games. Commentary will be provided by Joe Buck, Bob Carpenter, Al Hrabosky and Dan McLaughlin.

CARDINALS BROADCASTERS

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Buck was inducted into the Broadcasters' Hall of Fame in 1990. He was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He received widespread acclaim as the former voice of the National Football League, and he had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League. His autobiography, "Jack Buck: That's a Winner," was published in 1997. In 1998, the Cardinals honored the legendary broadcaster by unveiling a bronze sculpture of Buck behind the microphone, outside Busch Stadium's main ticket lobby.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 29th season in the Cardinals' radio booth. His many years as a player in the organization and year in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary, which is only heightened by his zeal for the game. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his popularity and performance on the air and, as a player, on the field.

The 60-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series champion teams in 1964 and 1967, and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968.

The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease.

JOE BUCK

Joe Buck handles play-by-play duties on the Cardinals' radio network and on home games telecast by Fox Sports Net. He also is Fox Sports' lead baseball announcer for national telecasts.

Buck, 30, joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991 after spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds. He also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR-TV and Prime, and in 1996 and '98 he called the World Series for Fox.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993. They have two daughters, Natalie and Trudy.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His expert commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals home and road telecasts on WB11 and Fox Sports Midwest.

Hrabosky's fast rise in broadcasting came as no surprise. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station. He has been a commentator on telecasts by Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable, and hosts a local radio show on all-sports station KFNS. Away from the booth, Hrabosky is an active supporter of the MLB Players Alumni association.

BOB CARPENTER

Bob Carpenter has emerged as one of broadcasting's most prolific talents, calling games and describing the action for a myriad of major sporting events. He returns to the WB11 booth for his seventh season of Cardinals play-by-play, which he'll handle for all home games telecast on WB.

This season is Carpenter's 16th in baseball. With the Redbirds, he has called games for the Sportstime cable network in 1984, for the Prime cable network and KMOX Radio in 1995 and '96, and for Channel 11 since 1997. He begins his 10th season of baseball on ESPN and has worked in the TV booth for the Texas Rangers (1986-89), New York Mets (1992-93) and Minnesota Twins (1994). Over the years, he's shared the microphone with numerous former Cardinals, including Bob Gibson, Al Hrabosky, Ozzie Smith, Mike Shannon, Tim McCarver, Andy Van Slyke, Joe Magrane, Jerry Reuss and Jim Kaat.

A St. Louis native, Carpenter is remembered locally for his early play-by-play of St. Louis Steamers indoor soccer from 1983-86. He has worked college basketball games on ESPN for 12 seasons, emerging in the process as the "voice" of the Mountain West Conference (since 1996) and Conference USA (since '97). On the USA Network, he hosted the 1995 U.S. Open tennis championship and The Masters golf tournament from 1986-88. He's also been heard on ESPN's telecasts of college football action, World Cup soccer and as host of the 1990 Hall of Fame induction ceremony.

Carpenter is a 1971 graduate of McBride High School in St. Louis and earned a degree in broadcasting from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin enters his second season with St. Louis as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals road games telecast by WB11 and Fox Sports Net. Before joining the Cardinals, McLaughlin did baseball play by play at the collegiate level. A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, he began his professional broadcasting career in 1996 as a sports talk show host at KMOX Radio, where he still serves as an occasional host.

During the baseball offseason, McLaughlin, 26, has worked for two years as a regular on St. Louis Blues telecasts on Fox Sports Midwest and WB11. He's also been a pregame, intermission and postgame analyst for Blues radio broadcasts, and a television host and analyst for the Missouri Valley Conference basketball tournament.
